No. 8013 Equity.

respect to the Court he had again presented himself to have to clay & again requests the payment of said fees & also his fees for this day & his mileage all of which has been refused. Therefore he under protest takes the witness stand and at a later date will request the Court to suppress his depositions unless the same are paid. This course was pursued with a view to economizing time as it is understood that a ruling of the Court on this point could not be obtained without delay"
