No 8627 Equity.

"not its property for the sum of $264.75. One of the Safes, however advertised for sale, and stated in "Exhibit Sales": as sold to G. M. Besant for $120.00 - your receivers found could not be removed from the vault in the Bank building aforesaid, as it proved too large to pass through the door of said vault, and your receivers were informed that said vault was built around said safe. So that they will be unable to deliver that safe to the purchaser; and the total amount of sales of personal property therefore, will be $252.75. Of this amount, all has been paid to your receivers except the sum of $41.00 due from Jacob Ephraim for and on account of the adding machine which he purchased. There is still due your receivers, from E. J. Handsow, the sum of $456.00 part of the purchase price for the Frederick County Bank stock purchased by him. Your receivers report the gross amount of sales, therefore, of real estate and personal property, to be the sum of $16,499.05, and the gross, and the gross amount of sales of real estate, after deducting the amount of sales of personal property, to be the sum of $13,370.00.

Your petitioners, therefore, pray your Honor, to ratify and confirm the above reported sales of real estate, after publication, of the usual order nisi thereon, and as in duty etc.
