NO. 8862. Equity.

That in view of the danger of the Custom and Good will of the defendant Corporation (which forms so large a part in value of the assets of said Company), being in grave peril of being dissipated, the undersigned have concluded that in the best interest of all creditors, bondholders and stockholders of the said Company the assets of said Company must be sold without delay, and if no better offer is obtained by the receivers than the one herein above set out by the time the sale can be consummated they desire to express to the Court their willingness and consent that the said offer be accepted.

This letter is written with the understanding that Saul Charles Bendheim and Albert S. Gatley, trustees in the deed of trust above described, and being the security upon which they depend, shall be made parties to the case now pending in this Court, and will consent to the authorization by the Court of the said Receivers to make the sale as contemplated.

This November 13-1912.

Consent of First Mortgage bondholders to Sale of the Property.

Filed Nov. 18-1912

To the Honorable, The Circuit Court of Frederick County, State of Maryland.

The Undersigned respectfully states to the Court that he is a bondholder under the first deed of trust given by Baltimore & Washington White Cross Milk Company to Charles Bendheim and Albert S. Gatley, trustees dated January 15-1912, of which he understands that $46,500 in bonds were issued and are outstanding; that he has had knowledge of the proceedings taken in the above entitled case wherein Richard J. Earnshaw and David Lacoustin were appointed Receivers of defendant Company, and of the efforts of said Receivers to make an advantageous sale of the property of said Company; that he has also been informed of an offer made to said Receivers by one George M. Oyster, Jr. to purchase the assets of
