No. 8862. Equity.

oath in due form of law that the matters and things stated in the aforegoing petition are true and bona fide as therein set forth to the best of his knowledge and belief

Harry W. Bowers,
Clerk of the Circuit Court for Frederick County.

The foregoing petition having been read and considered, and it being shown to the satisfaction of the Court that it is for the best interests of all parties having an interest in the Baltimore and Washington White Cross Milk Company that its assets be conserved and that its business be continued until the time of the final ratification of the sale of its property: it is thereupon this 9th. day of December in the year 1912, by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity and by the authority thereof,

Adjudged, ordered and decreed that Richard J. Earnshaw and David Lowenstein ancillary receivers, be, and they are hereby, authorized to borrow upon their notes as ancillary receivers, without personal responsibility a sum of money, not exceeding Three Thousand (3000) Dollars, as necessary to continue the business in accordance with the prayer of the aforegoing petition; and that they be further authorized and directed to pay said sum of money borrowed, together with the sum of Two Thousand (2000) Dollars borrowed, by said receivers upon receivers' certificate issued by them under the other order of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia dated the Seventeenth day of September, 1912, out of moneys coming into their hands from the collection of bills and accounts receivable due said Baltimore and Washington White Cross Milk Company, and from the sale of the products of its milk plant, provided that a similar order be passed by the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia having jurisdiction in the cause and under which the assets and property of the Baltimore and Washington White Cross Milk Company in the District of Columbia are being administered; it being understood that the said sum of Two Thousand (2000.00), together with interest thereon, as borrowed on receivers' certificates under said order of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, and the sum not exceeding Three Thousand ($3000.) Dollars to be borrowed upon the note of said ancillary receivers under this order shall have equal standing, and be paid without preference of either over the other, out of the said moneys coming into the hands of said ancillary receivers from the collection of said bills and accounts receivable and the sale
