No. 8862 Equity.

of the products of its milk plant; and it also being understood that any questions of priority that may now or hereafter be presented between the holders of the Certificates and note hereinabove referred to are reserved for future consideration of the Court; as also is reserved the question of the proportion of the costs and expenses of the receivership and sale of the assets of said Baltimore and Washington White Cross Milk Company to be borne by the holders of the bonds of said Company outstanding and the holders of the other claims against said Company.

Glenn K. Worthington.

Offer of the Interstate Investment Company, Inc.

Filed Dec. 16 1912

To the Honorable Judges of Said Court:—

Now comes the Interstate Investment Company Inc. Washington, and offers to the Receiver appointed in the above entitled cause, the sum of $30.000.00 for all the property real, personal and mixed except the Bills and accounts receivable of the Baltimore & Washington White Cross Milk Company, Inc. mentioned in the aforegoing proceedings, together with the Good Will and business of that Company upon the terms stated in said offer herewith filed as part thereof, marked "Exhibit I. I. C." This offer is made upon the condition that the same shall be accepted and immediately ratified by the Court. And upon the further condition that the said Interstate Investment Company, Inc. Washington, D. C. receive a good and marketable title to the plant business, property, good and marketable title to the plant, business, property, good will and all other assets of the said Baltimore & Washington White Cross Milk Company, except the Bills and accounts receivable including the personal property and assets of the Company in Washington D.C. This offer is conditioned upon the immediate ratification of the same by the Court for the reason the business of said Milk Company is of such a character that any delay in notifying the offer will ensue to the great loss and detriment of all concerned, as shown by petition of Receiver, filed in this cause November 22-1912, as by reference thereto will appear.

John C. Motter
Stoner & Weinberg
A. Ralph Butler
Attorneys for Petitioners