In the Circuit Court for Frederick County.

In Equity.

To the Honorable, the Judges of said Court.

Your Orator, in filing this his amended Bill of Complaint in the above case, by leave of the Court first had and obtained, respectfully shows unto Your Honors:—

1. That in the Month of May, 1881, he was the owner of the Real Estate in Baltimore City, Maryland, consisting in part of a lot of ground, fronting 410 feet, more or less, on ~~north~~ Calvert Street, between Eager and Chase Street, extending for frontage from North West Corner of said North Calvert and Eager streets to within 22 feet of Chase street and extending westward 122 feet and 5 inches, more or less, to Hargrove alley which lot of ground was then unimproved. And being desirous to improve the same by the erection of dwelling houses thereon for rental purposes and secure revenue from his said lot, he applied to J. Porter Veazey, Esq., then a prominent attorney of Baltimore City, and a relative of your orator for advice and suggestions as to how best to improve his said lot by the erection of dwelling houses thereon; that your orator was at the time a resident of New York City, and was then and has been ever since a minister of the Gospel in the Protestant Episcopal Church and actively engaged in the exacting and strenuous duties of his ministerial calling, and being unable to give the matter of carrying out his purpose of properly improving said ground and raising the necessary funds therefor, very much of his personal attention, he was compelled to leave the originating of the plan for said improvements
