Horace W. Clarke, deceased, and executor of said will respectfully shows unto Your Honors--
First--That as executor of the will of said Horace W. Clarke, deceased, he has settled his first and final account in the Orphans Court of Frederick County, and distribution has been made of said estate under the direction of said Orphans' Court, wherein there has been distributed in part as follows--To James C. Jeffery, trustee for Wendell B. Clarke, 20 shares of Frederick County National Bank stock."
Second--That by decree of Your Honorable Court, passed in the above case on the 16th day of June A. D. 1914, your petitioner isauthorized and directed to transfer, pay over and deliver to said Wendell B. Clarke all the trust funds and securities in his hands as trustee for said Wendell B. Clarke under said will.
Third--Thatsaid Wendell B. Clarke desires to have cash in place of said bank stock wherefore Your petitioner prays tour Honors to autherize him to sell said stock and pay over the proceeds thereof to said Wendell B. Clarke, and that he may have such other and further relief to which he may be entitled he will ever pray &c.

Urner & Urner

Solicitors for Petitioner.

Upon the foregoing petition it is ordered by the Court this 26th day of June, 1914, that James C Jeffery, trustee, he and he is hereby authorized to sell the twenty shares of stock of the Frederick County National Bnk mentioned in the foregoing petition for the best price he can obtain for the same, and the proceeds of the sale take the palce of said stock and be subject to the provisions of the decree of this Court of June 16 1914, and that he report said sale to this Court in the report that he is directed to make by said decree.

Glenn H. Worthington.

ASSIGNMENT AND RELEASE.

This assignment and release made this 20th day of June, in the year nineteen hundred and fourteen by us, Virginia O.Jeffary, and Edward T. jeffery, her husband, Sarah L. Gunn and Walter C. Gunn, her husband and Charles S. Clarke.
Witnesseth--Whereas Horace W. Clarke, late of Frederick County, in the State of Maryland, deceased, by his last will and testament which was duly admitted to prabate by the Orphans' Court of said Frederick County, bequeathed a portion of his estate to James C. Jeffery in trust for the benefit of Wendell B. Clarke, a brother of said testator, during the lifetime of said Wendell B. Clarke and then to be divided among the next of kin of said testator; and whereas the Circuit Court of Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity, assumed jurisdiction of said trust, in case No. 9048, on the equity docket of said Court; and whereas we the said Virginia O. Jeffery and Edward T. Jeffery, herhusband, Sarah L. Gunn and Walter C. Gunn, her husband, and Charles S. Clarke, together with said Wendell B. Clarke, by our petition filed in said No. 9048 equity in the Circuit Court for Frederick County, Maryland, did ask said Court to exringuish and terminate said trust and order and direct said James C. Jeffery, trustee, to pay and deliver to said Wendell B. Clarke all the trust funds and securities in his hands or that may come into his hands as trustee for said W. B. Clarke, under the provisions of the will of said Horace W. Clarke, or under an agreement for a settlement and distribution of his estate entered into by the parties in interest, a copy of which as filed in said equity Cause, free and clear of all claims, present or in remainder of said petitioners or any of them; and whereas the said Court by its desree filed in said cause on the 16th day of June A. D. 1914, did adjudge, order and decree "that upon the said Virginia O. Jeffery and Edward T. Jeffery her husband, Sarah L. Gunn and Walter C. Gunn, her husband and Charles S. Clarke, assigning all of their respective interests in said trust funds to said Wendell B. Clarke, and releasing said James C. jeffery, trustee, from all claim present or in remainder they might have in said trust, and upon said Wendell B. Clarke also executing his release