No. 10620 Equity.

(3) Annie E. Carter, your Oratrix, a sister, who is now unmarried.

(4) The following named children of Mary E. Mehrling, a sister of said William H. Adam, who died during his lifetime; Edward W. L. Mehrling, who is married and whose wife's name is Rosa Mehrling; Harry Mehrling, who is unmarried; Mollie E. Fixworth, who is married and whose husband's name is William Foxworth, Cecelia F. Mules, who is a widow; Anna M. Mehrling, who is unmarried; Katharine B. Chatterton who is married and whose husband's name is Herbert I. Chatterton; and Albert L. Mehrling, who is married and whose wife's name is Mary Mehrling.

(5) The following named children of Georgie E. Hanssen, who died during the lifetime of her mother, Catharine C. Fout, who was a sister of said William H. Adam and who died during his lifetime; Albert Hanssen, who is married and whose wife's name is Elaine Hanssen; and Elsie Linthicum, who is married and whose husband's name is Earl Linthicum.

(3) That your Oratrix is advised and avers that under the Law of Inheritance of the State of Maryland the aforesaid real estate is now owned as tenants in common by the above-named heirs at law of the said William H. Adam in the following porportions; the said Clara E. Garis, Emma Hanssen and your Oratrix being each entitled to a one-fifth undivided share or interest therein; the said Edward W. L. Mehrling, Harry Mehrling, Mollie E. Fixworth, Cecelia F. Mules, Anna M. Mehrling, Katharine B. Chatterton, and Albert L. Mehrling being each entitled to a one-thirty-fifth undivided share or interest therein; and the said Albert Hanssen and Elsie Linthicum being each entitled to a one-tenth undivided share or interest therein.

4. That the said lands and improvements, being the real estate mentioned and described in the first paragraph of this Bill of Complaint, cannot be divided without loss or injury to the parties interested, and your Oratrix believes and avers that it would be to the interest and advantage of all of the said parties in interest for the said real estate to be sold by a Trustee or Trustees to be appointed by your Honorable Court and the proceeds divided among them according to their respective interests.

5. That all of said parties to this Bill of Complaint, Plaintiff and Defendants, are adults; and all of the said Defendants herein reside in Baltimore City in the State of Maryland, except the said Katharine B. Chatterton and Herbert I. Chatterton, her husband, who reside in the City of Seattle in the State of Washington.

Wherefore your Oratrix prays for the following relief;

(1) That your Honors will pass a decree for a sale of the said real estate by a Trustee or Trustees appointed by said decree, and that the proceeds of said sale or sales may be distributed to the parties entitled thereto under the direction of your Honorable Court.

(2) That your Oratrix may have all such other and further relief to which she may be entitled and the nature of the sace may require.

And your Oratrix prays for the following process;

That the writ of Subpoena in the usual form directed to the Sheriff of Baltimore City may be issued out of your Honorable Court against the said Dfendants, Clara E. Garris and Charles E. Garris, her husband, Emma Hanssen and Frank Hanssen, her husband, Edward W. L. Mehrling and Rosa Mehrling, his wife, Harry Mehrling, Mollie E. Foxworth and William Foxworth, her husband, Cecelia F. Mules, Anna M. Mehrling, Albert L. Mehrling and Mary Mehrling, his wife, Albert Hahssen and Elaine Hanssen, his wife, and Elsie Linthicum and Earl Linthicum, her husband, all residents of Baltimore City in the State of Maryland; commanding them and each of them to appear in this Court on some certain day to be named therein to answer the premises and abide by and perform such decree as may be herein passed; and that the order of publication in the usual form may be published against the said Defendants Katharine B. Chatterton and Herbert I. Chatterton, her husband, residents of the State of Washington, giving them notice of the object and substance of this Bill of Complaint and warning them to be and appear
