

her. As for ourselves, we owe her thanks for the pleasure her wit afforded us ranger. Her friend Obediah had his full to keep his Ruth within the rules of r etiquette.

beautiful sisters, the Misses Stewart, of were deservedly admired. One was dressed a Peri, and a more lovely one we'er sat colate at the gate of Paradise. She d so ethereal in her light veil and dress of tulle, and her gauzy wings, that one-half ted to see her fly away. Her beauty was t delicate style that we always ascribe to , and she actually did not seem to touch round as she passed along. Her sister, y Beautiful, but in another style, was the a girl, Jesse O'Neil, who is so associated the relief of Lucanow. The beaming eye enthusiastic manner of these bonnie ladies the delusion, and most agreeably end up her of the smiling girl who first ted the truth, was that the "Campbell coming." She was beautiful alone accompanied by her ver girl. Though common ers, she was the prettiest and sweetest excited universal admiration.

Appointment.

Gov. Hicks has appointed R. B. Carmichael Judge of the Judicial District composed of the counties of Kent, Queen Anne's, Caroline and Talbot, in place of Judge Hopper, deceased.— Mr. Carmichael is a Democrat, but, notwithstanding that serious disqualification, it is believed that he will make a good Judge.

The appointment had been tendered to Judge Eckerton; who refused to accept; preferring to remain on the Bench of the Court of Appeals.

Slavery Convention.

There is but little opposition manifested, in this county, to the call of a Slavery Convention.
We believe the vast majority in favor of the Convention; those who are opposed to it are, probably, not more than all.

regard to the various reports current subject of Bumpoiltstakiu's literary will say this: It is true that he is a r tributor to the Subterranean Deposits thrilling romance, entitled "Mystic polia," was written for, and published periodical. It is not true, however, t spending the summer with Mr. Irving side, when he wrote this story, and gather upon his imagination for the composed it at home, in his own pri and wore the plot out of facts in his so that the narrative, ghosts and all, i true tale." (He will here add, that the copyright, and will sell it to the $150.) In the same year, Bumpoilt to the medical world, in papers of De but it is no fact that the growth of so much pleased with this product and the labor a social gift, with them. Finally, Bumpoiltstakiu is i who cannot be considered a primary A girl named Mary, the daughter of Bumpoiltstakiu, was the subject of
of a girl named Mary, the daughter of
of a girl named Mary, the daughter of
of a girl named Mary, the daughter of