To the Honorable, the Judges of said Court;

The above cause being at issue and notice having been given me by the Solicitor for the Plaintiff of his desire to take testimony in said cause, I. D. Princeton Buckey, one of the standing Examiners of the Circuit Court for Frederick County, duly appointed, qualified and sworn, met at the law office of Messers Stoner and Storm, in Frederick City, Maryland, on Monday, May 5, 1924, at the hour of 10 o'clock a.m. and then and there, in the presence of the Solicitor for the Plaintiff, the parties in interest and their witnesses, proceeded to take the following depositions, that is to say;

Present; Frank L. Stoner and William M. Storm, Esquires.
Solicitors for Plaintiff.
Parties in interest and witnesses.

Edgar K. Moore, a witness produced on behalf of the Plantiff, after having been first sworn, duly deposes and says as follows;-

Int. State your name, age and residence.

A. My name is Edgar K. Moore, age is forty-six and I reside in Frederick City.

Int. Do you know the parties to this suit?

A. I do.

Int. Did you know Aaron Anders in his lifetime and if so, is he living or dead?

A. I did, he died during the fall of the year of 1923.

Int. State who survived him as his heirs at law and next of kin.

A. He left a widow, Louise G. Anders and an infant child, Nancy Anders.

Int. Are you familiar with the property of which he died seized .

A. I know of his real estate in a general way and I believe the Exhibits filed correctly describe it.

Int. State whether or not, in your opinion, is sufficient personal property belonging to his estate to pay and satisfy his debts.

A. The personal property was insufficient for that purpose.

Int. State what amount is due the Farmer's & Mechanics National Bank, the Complainant in this cause.

A. The Judgment filed in this cause was at the time of his death Seventy-Five Hundred ($7500.00) Dollars and January 12th, 1924, it was reduced by credit of Nine Hundred Ninety-Seven ($997.00) Dollars. This reduced the principal to Sixty Five Hundred Three ($6503.00) Dollars and that amount due plus interest from January 1st, 1924, to March 22d, 1924, at which time a further credit of Twelve Hundred ($1200.00) Dollars was applied on said Judgment , reducing the principal to Fifty-Three Hundred Three (#5303.00) Dollars, which amount carries interest to this date, making the amount due the Bank Fifty-Three Hundred Three ($5303.00) Dollars, with interest on Seventy-Five Hundred ($7500.00) Dollars from January 1st, 1924, to January 12th, 1924 and with interest on Sixty-Five Hundred Threen($6503.00) from January 12th 1924, to March 2d, 1924, and interest on Fifty Three Hundred Three ($5303.00) Dollars from March 22nd, 1924, to date. There was due the Farmer's & Mechanics National Bank, Plaintiff in this cause, the further sum of Forty-Two Hundred Eighty Dollars and Seventy-one ($4280.71) Cents, at the time of Mr. Ander's death on note, which has been fully paid and liquidated.
