herein,I,D.Princeton Buckey,one of the standing examiners for the Circuit Court for Frederick County,duly appointed,qualified and sworn,met the Solicitor for the Complainants and the witnesses at the office of William M.Storm,Esquire,on July 13,1928,at the hour of ten o'clock a. M.and then and there with the assistance of Hettye Hahn,Clerk and Stenographer,she having first been duly sworn as such to take the following depositions,that is to say,present William M.Storm,Esquire,of Solicitors for Complainants.

GRORGE MOORE,a witness of lawful age,after having been duly sworn,deposes and says;-

My name is George Moore and I am 65 years of age and reside at Rocky Springs,Frederick County,Maryland. The property described as Exhibit No.1,is the property which Edward L.Stup and Victoria Stup died seized and possessed.

I have known this property for 30 years and reside within one-fourth mile of said property This property is improved with a one and one-half story log weatherboarded house,stable, small hog pen,chicken house and small smoke house. It is located on the road leading from Rocky Springs to Frederick City Water Works and contains about six acres of land, Edward L.Stup died about 20 years ago intestate and his wife Victoria Stup died intestate this year and left the following children; Elmer Stup,a son whose wife's name is Annie B. Stup.Mary Hildebrand,a daughter whose husband's name is John Hildebrand,Joseph Stup,a son whose wife's name is Laura Stup,Lewis E.Stup,a son whose wife's name is Emma Stup,Albert Stup a son whose wife's name is Alberta Stup,and a deceased daughter Rosie Crum whose husband's name is Frank Crum,Rosie Crum having died a short time after her father's death leaving the following children; Clarence Crum whose wife's name is Maude Crum,Casper Crum,Mary Victoria Crum and Raymond Crum,infant; and a deceased daughter Katie Smith who died before her father leaving the following children; Clara Sunday whose husband's name is Marion Sunday,Gertie Smith whose husband's name is David Smith,Vernon Smith whose wife's name is Maude Smith,and Edward Smith whose wife's name is Ethel Smith.

These are the children and grand children of Edward L.Stup and Victoria Stup. This real estate is a single piece of land and is not susceptible of division among the heirs without loss and injury and it would be to the best interest and advantage of all parties that same be sold and the proceeds divided. This property is worth about Fifteen Hundred ($1500.00) Dollars.

TO THE GENERAL INTERROGATORY;

Nothing further.

George S.Moore.

Lewis Kemp,a witness of lawful age having been duly sworn deposes and says;

My name is Lewis Kemp and I will be 75 years of age this November,I reside at Rocky Springs Frederick County,Maryland,and reside about one mile from the property in question. Crossing fields I reside about one-half mile from the property.

I have known this property all my life. The deed marked Exhibit "A" property described the property in question. This property contains about six acres and is improved with a one and one-half story log and weatherboarded house,old log stable,small smoke house,hog pen and small hen house. This property is located at Rocky Springs,Frederick County,Maryland, This property is located on the Rocky Springs road,Northwest of the Church.

Mr.Edward L.Stup died intestate about 20 years ago and his wife Victoria Stup died intestate this spring. They left the following heirs at law; Elmer Stup,a son whose wife's name is Annie Stup,Mary E.Hildebrand,a daughter whose husband's name is John Hildebrand,Joseph C.Stup, a son whose wife's name is Laura Stup,Lewis E.Stup.a son whose wife's name is Emma Stup,Albert Stup,a son whose wife's name is Alberta Stup,Rosie Crum whose husband's name is Frank Crum, having died after her father's death leaving the following children; Clarence Crum whose wifes name is Maude Crum,Casper Crum,Mary Victoria Crum and Raymond Crum,infant; Katie Smith a daughter who died before her father leaving the following children; Clara Sunday whose husbands