Only The Beginning

JUDGE KATHRYN SHOOK is doing a tremendous job as the senior (administrator) Judge of the Sixth Circuit Court in Montgomery County Maryland.

This is what you hear from everyone in or near the Courthouse in Rockville.

One shouldn't be too surprised. Judge Shook has the intelligence, the background and the temperament to be great. And when given the power to act, she displays what her friends and even some of her critics have known for years. She is great.

The orderly operation and the noticable decline of personality differences in the Court have only begun to unfold. Many forward, bold and progressive reforms are due in the months ahead.

Judge Shook already has the distinction of being the first woman Circuit Court Judge elected in Maryland. It's our judgement that she will earn a national reputation as a jurist. The woman bit can be left out. Her future is bright and this means the people of this county and state will profit by her actions.
