BILL OF COMPLAINT

Morse W. Brightman and Josephine D. Brightman,	"	No. 12062 Equity
	"	In the Circuit Court for Frederick County.
Vs.	"
Cora D. Lee	"

TO THE HONORABLE, JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

The Bill of Complaint of Morse W. Brightman and Josephine D. Brightman, respectfully represents unto your Honorable Court:

FIRST: That a certain Emma Virginia Hathaway, late of Frederick County, Maryland, died on the 22nd day of August, 1923, seized and possessed of a certain parcel of real estate lying and being in Brunswick, Frederick County, Maryland, being the same parcel of real estate conveyed to her by a certain Christopher C. Mark, by deed recorded in Liber H. W. B. No. 29o, Folio 1, one of the Land Records for Frederick County, a certified copy of which deed is filed herewith marked Exhibit "A" to this Bill of Complaint, which it is prayed be taken and considered a part hereof.

SECOND: That upon the death of the said Emma Virginia Hathaway, she left surviving her as her heirs at law her husband, Orville, D. Hathaway and the following children, Cora D. Lee and Josephine D. Brightman, all of whom are age, the said Cora D. Lee residing at Brunswick, Frederick County, Maryland.

THIRD: That the said Orville, D. Hathaway, her husband, died on the 6th day of April, 1930, and the property thereby became vested in the aforementioned children, your Complainant, Josephine D. Brightman, and the Defendant, Cora D. Lee, who are entitled to the same as tenants in common, under the laws of the State of Maryland.

FOURTH: That said property consists of a parcel of real estate improved with a dwelling house and the same cannot be divided without loss and injury and that it would be to the best interest of all parties thereto that same be sold and the proceeds divided among those entitled thereto.

TO THE END, THEREFORE,

1st. That a decree may be passed by your Honorable Court directing a sale of the land and premises in the foregoing Bill of Complaint and that a Trustee or Trustees be appointed to sell the same and divide the proceeds among the parties hereto as their interests may appear.

2nd. And for such other and firther relief as the nature of the case man require.

And your Complainant pray for the following process:

That a subpoena may issue in the usual form directed to the said COra D. Lee of Brunswick Maryland, commanding her to be and appear in your Honorable Court on some day certain to be named therein, to answer the premises and abide by and perform such Decree as may be passed therein.
