

JOIN THE SUFFRAGIST PARADE

Four Hundred Washington Women Are Going to Baltimore Saturday.

More than 400 women will take part in the Baltimore "Votes for women parade," Saturday. The arrangements for their transportation have been nearly completed, a number of electric cars having been engaged. They will leave early on the afternoon of the parade and will return that night. The Baltimore parade will be similar to the one held here in formation, and will be headed by Pocahontas and twelve Indian maidens. There will be twelve floats.

Among the Washington women who will take part in the parade are:

Miss Margaret A. O'Brien, Miss Irine Kittell, Miss E. H. Thomas, Miss Augusta Lashurst, Mrs. S. B. McDuffie, Mrs. Mollie Wetzel, Miss Helen Munroe, Miss Ann B. Dabney, Mrs. F. W. Olcott, Mrs. Monroe Hopkins, Miss Grace L. Sickles, Miss Elsie Hill, Mrs. J. Curtin, Mrs. F. W. Olcott, Miss Elizabeth McLean, Miss Nellie H. Dunn, Mrs. A. T. Condon, Mrs. A. B. Casselman, Miss Lucy Burns, Mrs. H. B. Simpson, Mrs. J. B. Newman, Mrs. Laura K. Owens, Miss M. M. McClure, Mrs. William Kent, Mrs. Louise H. Arnold, Miss Helen Hotchkiss, Miss Mary Hotchkiss, Miss Marie M. Court, Mrs. Patricia Street, Miss Elizabeth Fairall, Miss Lily R. Glenn, Mrs. Irving Moller, Miss Garnett Kondruff, Mrs. G. M. Davis, Mrs. Ingrams, Miss Bertha Riddle, Miss Joy Webster, Mrs. Richard Coke Burleson, Miss Alice Paul, Miss Lavinia Engle, Miss Gertrude Leonard, Mrs. J. S. Mendinhall, Mrs. Clara Cox Dawson, Miss Florence H. Stiles, Mrs. Stahl, Mrs. Charlotte Johnston, Miss Anna Bray, Miss Nancy Morrison, Miss Cornelia Lyne, Miss Nellie Bresnahan, Miss Edna Stahl, Miss Katharine Hurst, Miss Mary M. Nolan, Miss M. E. Mellick, Miss Hilda Cross, Mrs. Abby Scott Baker, and Mrs. Ormsby McCammon.