in the year Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-nine, leaving a last will and testament, recorded in Liber J.H. No. 1, Folio 511, a certified copy of which is herewith filed marked "Exhibit Will D.C.W.", whereby he devised his entire estate to his sons David C. Winebrener, III, and Philip Ritchie Winebrener, share and share alike absolutely; and the said David D. Winebrener, III, has heretofore departed this life on the twenty-seventh day of March, in the year Nineteen Hundred and Forty, leaving a last will and testament, recorder in Liber J.H. No. 1, Folio 573, a certified copy of which is herewith filed marked "Exhibit Will D.C.W.III" whereby he devised and bequeathed all of his estate to his mother, Eleanor Nelson Ritchie Winebrenner, in the event she survived him, and the said Eleanor Nelson Ritchie Winebrenner did survive her said son, David C. Winebrenner III, and is now living unmarried; and the said Philip Ritchie Winebrener is now the husband of Katherine Cramer Winebrener, all of whom are made parties hereto.

That at the time of the death of the said Arie Winebrener descendants of the four brothers and sisters of the testator, Reverdy J. Winebrener mentioned in his said will were living as follows:

(2) That George A. Winebrener, a brother of the half blood died long prior to the death of Reverdy J. Winebrener, the testator, leaving him surviving four children as follows:

George Clinton Winebrener, a son who died before the life tenant, Arie Winebrener, leaving him surviving two children, Roy B. Winebrener, divorced, and Herbert C. Winebrener, widower, both residing in the State of Pennsylvania and both parties hereto; Noah Melville Winebrenner, a son, whose wife's name is Edith Etzler Winebrener, who reside in the State of California and are parties hereto; a daughter, Mollie Metz, a widow, who resides in the State of California and is a party hereto; and a son, Samuel C. Winebrener, who died before the life tenant, Arie Winebrener, leaving him surviving four children, to wit: George Winebrener, Bertha Winebrener and Hallie Winebrener, all unmarried, and Media L. Zimmerman, whose husband's name is Ephriam B. Zimmerman, all residing in Frederick County, Maryland and all of whom were living at the death of the life tenant, Arie Winebrener, and all of whom are parties hereto.

(3) That Margaret Getzendanner, a sister of the said testator, and the wife of Daniel Getzendanner, died before the life tenant, Arie Winebrener, leaving her surviving six children and their descendants as follows:

(a) Henry Getzendanner, a son, who died before the life tenant, Arie Winebrener, leaving him surviving two children, William Jacqueline Getzendanner, unmarried, who resides in the State of West Virginia, and a party hereto and a daughter, Margaret G. Williams, who departed this life before the said life tenant, Arie Winebrener, leaving her surviving two children, Henry C. Williams and George M. Williams, both unmarried, and both residentsof the State of West Virginia and parties hereto.

(b) Lewis Getzendanner, a son, unmarried, who was living at the death of Arie Winebrener, the life tenant, and a party hereto.

(c) Clara Border, a daugher, who died before the life tenant, Arie Winebrener, leaving her surviving two children, Ralph W. Border, a son whose wife's name is Annie Border, residents of West Virginia, and Margaret Hollinger, a daughter, whose husband's name is John C. Hollinger, residents of the State of Pennsylvania, all of whom are parties hereto.

(d) May Briscoe, a daughter, whose husband's name is John P. Briscoe, residents of the State of West Virginia, and parties hereto.

(e) Phoebe Getzendanner, unmarried, a resident of the State of West Virginia, and a party hereto.

(f) Frank Getzendanner, a son, who died before the life tenant, Arie Winebrener, leaving him surviving an only child, Ansel Getzendanner Bonhag, whose husband 's name is George