State of Maryland, Frederick County to-wit:

I hereby certify that the aforegoing is a true copy of the original Deed from J. Stuart McAleer, et. al., to Reverdy J. Winebrener as recorded in Liber 318, Folio 436 &c., one of the Land Records of Frederick County, Maryland.

Place of Court Seal

In testimony whereof I hereuhto subscribe my name and affix the seal of The Circuit Court for Frederick County, at Frederick, Maryland, this 15th day of June, 1942.

Ellis C. Wachter
Clerk of the Circuit Court for Frederick County, Maryland.

Filed June 20, 1942.

EXHIBIT WILL R. J. W.

I, Reverdy J. Winebrener, of Frederick County, State of Maryland, do hereby make, ordain, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament, in manner and form following to wit:-

After the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses, I give, devise and bequeath as follows:-

I given and bequeath to The Glade Church, a body corporate of the State of Maryland, in Frederick County, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) absolutely, free from all trusts, recommending and believing, however, that said corporation will use the same for the purpose of providing for the perpetual care or keeping in good order and condition the graveyard or cemetery of said Church, located at the site of the old Church at what is known as "The Glade," in Frederick County, Maryland.

I give and bequeath to my wife, Annie Winebrener, the sum of Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) per annum during the term of her natural life, to be paid her annually out of my estate.

All the rest andresidue of my estate, real, personal and mixed, wheresoever situate, lying or being, and whether in possession or expectancy I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter, Arie Winebrener, for and during the term of her natural life, and at her death, I give, devise and bequeath said rest and residue of my estate as follows:-

A one-fith part or portion thereof to my nephew, D. Charles Winebrener, son of my deceased brother, David C. Winebrener, and the other four-fifths thereof to such persons as, under the then existing laws of the State of Maryland, would be my next of kin had I died intestate at the time of the death of my said daughter, excluding, however, the issue and descendants of my said deceased brother, David C. Winebrener; said next of kin to take and be entitled to participate in said rest and residue of my estate in the same manner and in the same proportions as the then laws of said State of Maryland shall provide.

My eldest brother, George A. Winebrener, a brother of the half blood, is now deceased, as is also my brother, Davide C. Winebrener. My sister, Margaret E., was the wife of Daniel Getzendanner, my sister, Harriet A., was the wife of Charles Henry Fulton, and my sister, Emma B., was the wife of William C. Neidig. I make the above provision because I desire my nephew, D. Charles Winebrener, to have the one-fifth share of my estate which his father would have been given by me had he survived my daughter.

I advise my said daughter and others interested in my estate to make no effort to sell any of the real estate of which I may die seized and possessed during the life time of my said daughter, believing that it will be to the interest and advantage of all persons interested in my estate not to have said real estate sold during the life time of my said daughter.

Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my said daughter, Arie Winebrener, to be executrix of this my last will and testament hereby revoking and annulling all former wills by me at any time heretofore made. And I do hereby request that my said daughter shall be
