EXHIBIT WILL D. C. W. III

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF DAVID C. WINEBRENNER 3d.

I, David C. Winebrenner 3d., a resident of the City of Frederick, County of Frederick, State of Maryland, do hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament and do hereby revoke and declare void each and every will and testament heretofore made by me.

After the payment of all my just debts I give, will, devise and bequeath my entire estate, real and personal, vested or contingent, in possession or in expectancy, wheresoever situate, and whatever rights and property I may legally dispose of by my will to my beloved mother, Eleanor Nelson Ritchie Winebrenner, outright, in the event that she shall survive me; and in the event my said mother shall survive me then the remaining paragraphs of this will, except the paragraph or paragraphs naming my executors, shall be of no force and effect and shall be utterly null and void except as an indication to my said mother subject to her approval of my wishes as to the ultimate disposition of certain personal property specifically bequeathed.

In the event my said mother shall predecease me then, and in that event only, I give, will, devise and bequeath my estate in the manner and form following, that is to say:

1. I give and bequeath unto Mary Virginia Butcher, now residing in Frederick, Maryland, her choice of any single piece of jewelry I may own at the time of my death excepting such pieces as are hereinafter specifically bequeathed.

2. I give and bequeath my set of diamond and pearl shirt studs and cuff links which belonged to Governor Albert Cabell Ritchie, to my god-son, David Wilson Byron 2nd., the son of my friends, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Byron, now residing in Williamsport, Maryland.

3. I give and bequeath my horseshoe of pearls scarf pin to my god-son, Donald Francis Dice, the son of my friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. Dice, now residing in or near Elizabeth, New Jersey.

4. I give and bequeath my gold watch, which was presented to me at a testimonial dinner held in my honor on May 23, 1935, and my watch chain to Richard Lee Dice, the son of my friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. Dice, now residing in or near Elizabeth, New Jersey.

5. I give and bequeath my silver cigarette case, which belonged to Governor Albert Cabell Ritchie, to my friend, Arthur Potts, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Potts, now residing in Frederick, Maryland.

6. I give and bequeath my signet ring bearing the seal of the Mason family and which belonged to the American patriot, George Mason, to Mason Swann, the son of my friends, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Swann, now residing in Baltimore, Maryland.

7. I give and bequeath my collection of foreign coins and currency assembled by me during my several trips to Europe, South America and the West Indies, to my friend, Ernest Helfenstein 3d., the son of my friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Helfenstein Jr. now residing in Frederick, Maryland.

8. I give and bequeath my portrait of Judge Albert Ritchie, If I shall be the owner thereof at the time of my death the father of Governor Albert Cabell Ritchie, to Albert Ritchie 2nd., the son of my cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Ritchie 3d., now residing in Charlottesville, Virginia.
