9. I give and bequeath my portrait of General Roger Nelson, if I shall be the owner thereof at the time of my death my great-great-grandfather, to John Ritchie 4th., the son of my cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Ritchie 3d., now residing in Charlottesville, Virginia.

10. I give and bequeath my copy of the Weinbrenner coat-of-arms and my mahogany dining room table to Virginia Lane Gambrill, the daughter of my cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gambrill 3d., now residing in Frederick, Maryland.

11. I give and bequeath my portrait of my mother and my silver service, including urn, coffee pot, tea pot, sugar bowl and waste bowl to Susan May Lane, the daughter of my cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Lane 3d., now residing in Frederick, Maryland.

12. I give and bequeath all my flat silver, including knives, forks and spoons if I shall be the owner thereof at the time of my death to Eleanor Cartwright Gambrill, the daughter of my cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gambrill 3d., now residing in Frederick, Maryland.

13. I give and bequeath my set of four sterling silver candelsticks if I shall be the owner thereof at the time of my death to Betty Lane, the daughter of my cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Lane 3d., now residing in Frederick, Maryland

14. I give and bequeath my sterling silver meat platter to Blanche Gambrill, the daughter of my cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gambrill 3d., now residing in Frederick, Maryland.

15. I give and bequeath my mahogany combination desk and bookcase to Caroline Lane, the daughter of my cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Lane 3d., now residing in Frederick, Maryland.

16. I give and bequeath my Russian samovar if I shall be the owner thereof at the time of my death to Antoinette Lane, the daughter of my cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Lane 3d., now residing in Frederick, Maryland.

17. I give and bequeath the sterling silver water pitcher that belonged to my aunt, Henrietta Ritchie Duvall, to Julia Boyd, the daughter of my cousins, Mrs. and Mrs. John Ritchie Boyd, now residing in the City of New York.

18. All my silverware, furniture, rugs, pictures, china, glassware and bric-a-brac not specifically bequeathed in the aforegoing paragraphs shall consitute a part of the residue of my estate, except such items as shall be determined by my executors to be family pieces or articles; as to such ("family" pieces or items I give and bequeath all such items as came through the Winebrenner side of my family to the aforesaid Virginia Lane Gambrill and Susan May Lane share and share alike; I give and bequeath all such items as came through the Ritchie side of my family to the aforesaid John Ritchie 4th.

19. I give and bequeath unto my friend, Parsons Newman, now residing in Frederick, Maryland, such volumes from my law library as he may desire; and such volumes as he may not select shall constitute a part of the residue of my estate.

20. I give and bequeath unto my friend, Earl E. Sittig, now residing in Frederick, Maryland, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) outright.

21. It is my will and I direct that the legacies contained in the aforegoing paragraphs, numbered respectively one to twenty, shall be free and clear of all collateral inheritance taxes and I direct my executors to pay such collateral inheritance taxes from the residue of my estate.

22. It is my wish that my death shall not be a source of financial worry to anybody and I, therefore, hereby expressly forgive and cancel any debts that may be owing to me at the time of my death by individuals except such debts as may be represented by promissory notes or other written evidences of indebtedness in my possession at the time of my death (and "written evidences of indebtedness" shall not be construed to include my own accounts, records