This Inquisition taken this 14th day of February, in the year 1914, at Frederick City, Frederick County, Maryland, before John D. Conard Jr., Esq., Sheriff of said County by virtue of the annexed Writ De. Lunatico Inquirendo to him directed, issued out of the Circuit Court for Frederick County upon the oaths or affirmations of Edward A. Lorne, John D. Keilholtz, Frank B. Higgins, George H. Whitmore, Stanley Zecker, Maynard Dudderar, Otho J. Doneiffy, Rudolph J. Ault, William E. Beatty, Henry L. Brandenberg, Albert E. Kolter, James A. Harbaugh Good and lawful men of the bailiwick, who being sworn and charged upon their oaths and affirmations to inquire into the sanity of Georgeanna Brust of Frederick City, Frederick County, Maryland.

WITNESSETH:

That the said jurors aforesaid do find that the said Georgeanna Brust in said writ named is of unsound mind and a lunatic so that she is incapable of the government of herself or the management of her estate, and that she has been in such state of mind for ~~some time~~ past, but how she became so the jurors aforesaid cannot say, unless by the visitation of God; and the jurors aforesaid do also find that the said Georgeanna Brust is seized and possessed of real estate in the value of about $ 1200.00 and of personal estate of the value of about $ 285.00 ; that the said Georgeanna Brust, is a widow and her nearest of kin are her children whose names follow (the said Georgeanna Brust having first married John T. Six, who died some years ago, and she had no children by her husband Henry Brust, with whom she afterwards intermarried and who is also dead, the following named being children by her first husband, John T. Six) to wit:- Tiny Gertrude Barnes, who is married to Henry Barnes and who resides in Washington, D.C., Annie K. Daniels, who is married, and whose husband's name is J. J. Daniels, and who resides in Washington, D. C., Clara Etter, a widow, Rosie