

BARBARA HADDOCK TAYLOR : SUN STAFF

Recognizing state treasurer's service

Lt. Gov. Kathleen Kennedy Townsend presents state Treasurer Richard N. Dixon with a plaque to commemorate his years of service to the residents of Maryland, as Comptroller William Donald Schaefer (left) looks on. Yesterday was Dixon's last meeting of the Board of Public Works. He announced two weeks ago that he would leave office tomorrow because of worsening diabetes.