To hold another one fourth for the use of my son, Frederic Arthur Bryan and to pay over to him the net income therefrom until he shall attain the age of thirty five years, at which time to assign, transfer, convey, pay over and deliver to him, the said one fourth of said Estate, absolutely and free of all trusts. If however he shall die before that time, leaving issue, then to pay, transfer and deliver the same unto his children living at his death and the descendants then living of any deceased children, per stirpes. If however he should die before that time without leaving issue, then to divide said principal between my children then living and the descendants then living of any of those who may at that time be deceased, per stirpes - the shares however of my sons who may be under thirty five years of age, to be retained and held by it upon the like trusts as their original shares are held hereunder and the share of my daughter to be held upon the trusts similar to those hereinbefore declared as to her original share of my estate.

To hold the remaining One fourth for the use of my son, Edgar Alfred Bryan and to pay over to him the net income therefrom until he shall attain the age of thirty five years, - at which time to assign, transfer, convey, pay over and deliver unto him, the said one fourth of said estate, absolutely and free of all trusts. If however he shall die before that time, leaving issue, then to pay, transfer and deliver the same unto his children living at his death and the descendants then living of any deceased children, per stirpes. If however he should die before that time without leaving issue, then to divide said principal between my children then living and the descendants then living of any of those who may at that time be deceased, per stirpes, - the shares however of my sons who may be under thirty five years of age to be retained and held by it upon the like trusts as their original shares are held hereunder, and the share of my daughter to be held upon the trusts similar to those hereinbefore declared as to her original share of my estate.

While I authorize my said Trustee, in its discretion, to continue any investments made by me in my lifetime, nevertheless I empower it to change any of said investments whenever it may deem the same most beneficial for the trust purposes hereinbefore declared, and to invest the proceeds thereof, as well as any other funds requiring investment, in such manner as it may deem best, but I suggest that the character of investments so to be made by it should be only those that are secured by mortgages on unencumbered, improved and productive real estate, or Government Bonds or stocks of municipal corporations or bonds of any incorporated Railroad Company which for three years prior to such investment have had a continuous market value of par and upwards and have not defaulted in payment of interest; and upon such sales made by it for the purpose of change of investment or for the purpose of making a division of any of said trust funds (power being also hereby conferred upon said Trustee to sell for this purpose), I fully authorize it to execute to the purchasers thereof good and sufficient Deeds, transfers and other assignments without obligation upon their part to see to the application of the purchase money. During the minority of any of my children, I direct said Trustee to apply their share of income from my estate to their support and education, and if my wife should survive me I wish the same paid over to her for that purpose, and in case of her death during their minority, then to be paid over or applied by said Trustee in such manner as it may deem most beneficial for such purpose. All payments to be made under this Will shall be to the beneficiaries direct (except as above expressed as to my children during their minority) into their own hands and not into the hands of others, whether claiming by their authority or otherwise.

Sixth: I hereby constitute and appoint my wife, Melissa Anne Bryan, the Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Baltimore and my friend John A. Tompkins, to be my Executors and I empower them to make any sales of any part of my Estate that may be necessary, in their opinion, to enable them to settle the same promptly. I hereby provide that my said wife as Executrix shall be excused from giving bond as such.

Seventh: I revoke all former Wills made by me.
