I, Barbara Ann Mantz, widow of Francis Mantz, and resident of Frederick City, in Frederick County, in the State of Maryland, do make and publish this to be my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:-

After the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses I give, devise and bequeath all my estate, real, personal and mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed, as follows:-

I give and bequeath unto the children of my daughter Lillie M. Mullinix one-fourth part, and unto the children of my daughter Willetta Quincy Keefer, one-fourth part, and unto the children of my son Francis Miller Mantz one-fourth part, and unto the children of my son Willie E. Mantz one-fourth part of all the money I will have on deposit in Books No. 218, and No. B. 730 issued by the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Frederick, Maryland, and due by said Bank to me at the time of my death.

I give and bequeath unto my daughters Lillie M. Mullinix and Willetta Quincy Keefer all my household and kitchen furniture and other personal property belonging unto me being in and about my dwelling house on Clarke Place, in Frederick City, in Frederick County, Maryland, at the time of my death, to have the same as tenants in common, share and share alike.

I give and devise unto my daughter Willetta Quincy Keefer the use and occupation of my house on Clarke Place in Frederick City, in Frederick County, Maryland, for the time of one year from the date of my death, rent free, or for such shorter time as she may desire to use and occupy the same with her family after my death, and before the same will be sold by my Executor hereinafter named.-

Whereas my husband Francis Mantz, deceased, executed his last will and Testament dated December 8th 1886, and which is found recorded in Libre J. K. H. No 1, folios 385 etc, one of the Record Books of Wills in the Office of the Register of Wills for Frederick County, Maryland, in which Will he devised his farm known as "Fat Oxen," containing about 112 acres of land in Urbana District, in Frederick County, Maryland, unto our son Willie E. Mantz at his election after my death at a valuation of $8000.00, now, therefore, should the said Willie E. Mantz not elect to take said farm at said valuation after my death, and shall elect to have the same sold, and to receive the equal interest of all our children as in said last Will of his father provided, then and in that event I give and devise unto my Executor hereinafter named all the rest and residue of my property, of every character and description, excepting the bequests and legacies first herein named, for the purpose of selling all my said property at public or private sale, as in his judgment will be for the better interest of my estate, and to divide the nett proceeds arising therefrom, together with all monies then due or owing to me, and not herein otherwise disposed of, among my children, Willie E. Mantz, Francis Miller Mantz, Lillie M. Mullinix and Willetta Quincy Keefer, in equal parts, share and share alike;- should, however, the said Willie E. Mantz elect to take said farm known as "Fat Oxen," at the valuation placed upon it by his father's Will, and should the final division of the estate of my husband Francis Mantz, after my death, distribute unto the brother and sisters of said Willie E. Mantz a less sum than five thousand dollars, then and in that event, as I desire by my last Will and Testament to give to each of our three children, Francis Miller Mantz, Lillie M. Mullinix and Willetta Quincy Keefer, to equalize them with said Willie E. Mantz, such sum of money in amount each of them may hereafter fall short of $5000.00 distributed to them by final settlement of the estate of my husband, Francis Mantz.- I give and devise unto my Executor hereinafter named all the rest and residue of my estate of every character and description, excepting the bequests and legacies first herein named, for the purpose of selling all my said property, such as not herein otherwise disposed of, at public or private sale, as in his judgment will be for the better interest of my estate, and to divide the nett proceeds arising therefrom, together with all monies then due and owing unto me, and not herein otherwise disposed of, as follows:-

I give and bequeath unto Francis Miller Mantz, Lillie M. Mullinix and Willetta Quincy Keefer each such sum of money as will equalize them with Willie E. Mantz in the final settlement of the estate of my husband Francis Mantz, after my death, the valuation of the said farm known as "Fat Oxen", being placed at $5000.00.

I hereby constitute and appoint William T. Mullinix, of Frederick City, Maryland, my son-in-law, to be the Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

} I, J. J. Quikehart, of the Borough of Waynesboro County of Franklin and State of Pennsylvania, make my last will and testament as follows, hereby revoking any wills by me heretofore made.

I direct my Executors hereinafter named as soon after my decease as can conveniently be done, to convert my entire estate, real, personal and mixed, into money and for this purpose I give to my said Executors full power to sell any real Estate of which I may die seized, at public or private sale as they may find most to be the advantage of my Estate, and to execute and deliver deed or deeds therefor to purchasers.

Out of my Entire Estate thus converted into money I direct my just debts and funeral Expenses to be first paid. I direct that the remainder of my Estate be divided into five Equal shares.

I give and bequeath to my daughter, Mary Way Beard one of said shares, to be hers absolutely.

I give and bequeath to my son, A. J. Quikehart, one of said shares, to be his absolutely.

I give and bequeath to my daughter Emma R. Johnson, one of said shares to be hers absolutely.

I give and bequeath to my Executors hereinafter named, one of said shares in trust to invest the same in liens on real Estate at such rate of interest as they may find practicable, and to pay the net income thereof to my son J. J. Quikehart for his life, and at his death to pay said principal sum to his child or children, should he leave any surviving him, and if not to pay to his widow the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per month for her life or so long as she remains his widow, and at her death I give and bequeath the said principal sum to Mary Way Beard, A. J. Quikehart, and Emma R. Johnson to be divided among them, share and share alike.

Neither principal nor income of the property thus bequeathed for the benefit of my son J. J. Quikehart is to be in any way responsible for the debts and obligations, past, present or future of my said son.

I give and bequeath to my Executors hereinafter named, one of said shares in trust to invest the same in liens on real estate at such rate of interest as they may find practicable, and to pay the net income thereof, to my daughter Margaret Elizabeth Bremeison for her life, and at her death the principal sum to her child or children should any survive her, and of none survive her, then to pay said principal sum to Mary May Beard, A. C. Dukehart and Emma R. Johnson, to be divided among them share and share alike.

The sum hereby bequeathed to Margaret Elizabeth Brennisson is to be subject in no respect to the control or management of her husband nor to be liable in any way for the debts or obligations, past, present or future, of my said daughter.

In ascertaining the five shares above mentioned I. F. Dukehart and Margaret Elizabeth Brennisson are to be charged with the amount of advancements they have received from me, as shown by my book of advancements. That amount there is in the case of I. F. Dukehart being at present probably a little more than Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) and in the case of Margaret Elizabeth Brennisson a little more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).

I am informed that my son, J. A. Dukehart, who died some years ago at Lincoln, Kansas, or Nebraska left children surviving him. I never seen these children and know nothing of them and have intentionally omitted making any provision for them in this will.

I constitute and appoint my sons A. C. Dukehart, and my attorney J. A. White, Executors of this my last will and testament.

which will make an additional sum of $600 with which I wish to charge him, making the total sum to be charged against his share in the distribution of my Estate ($1000.) One Thousand Dollars.

In addition to the net income which in my said will I authorized my Executors to pay to him, I now authorize them to pay to him as much of the principal of his share of my Estate as my said Executors may from time to time in their discretion think proper. I desire to leave the matter of payments to him more largely to the judgment of my Executor J. A. White.
