JURIES—Continued	ART	SEC.	PAGE
Judge shall select foreman of grand jury; clerk shall then draw twenty-two names, who, with foreman, shall be grand jury	51	10	869
The remaining twenty-five shall be petit jury	51	10	869
Prince George's county excepted	51	10	869
Names of disqualified persons not to be placed on list	51	11	869
If placed and drawn, error may be corrected	51	11	869
Drawing not thereby to be invalidated	51	11	869
Court may coerce attendance of jurors by fine or imprisonment, or both, for contempt	51	11	869
Box to be emptied before beginning of drawing	51	12	870
Panel in civil cases, how selected	51	13	870
Each side may strike four	51	13	870
Clerk may strike under direction of court if parties fail or refuse	51	14	870
Challenge to the array	51	14	870
Court to have power to summon talesmen when necessary	51	15	871
By agreement of parties, full panel may be dispensed with	51	16	871
Similar provisions to apply in criminal cases in which right of peremptory challenge is not allowed	51	17	871
Aliens to be tried by same juries as citizens	51	18	871
Peremptory challenge allowed in criminal cases, where punishment is death or penitentiary	51	19	871
Defence to challenge twenty, and State four, without assigning cause	51	19	871
Pay and mileage	51	20	871
Special provision for Baltimore city	51	20	871
Pay in cases of forcible entry and detainer	51	21	872
Grand jury to visit jail at each term	51	22	872
Case may be submitted to court by consent without jury	75	97	1142
JURISDICTION.
Of United States in Maryland	96	3, 4, 17	1434, 1438
Of circuit courts and judges in equity	16	70	155
Of circuit court of Baltimore city	16	70	155