To the Worshipfull Justices of their Maiesties Court in Court now sitting for ye County of Somerset. The Petition of Wm. Woulehabe humbly sheweth. That whereas Thomas Oxford being Ordered the 18th day of October 1692. to pay sixty days work upon Taromore Bridge and John Godam & ye Petitioner were appointed Overseers to the work but out by reason of great floods of Water it could not be performed this winter ye Petitioner being hitherto at great trouble to see the said work done, being at so great a distance from the Bridge, will engage if ye worpps will be pleased to allow the ffind of Maud Mr. gowon to perform the work of the Causway, it being by ye worpps formerly allowed the a forese Oxford, if his sixty days work could not compleat it. Your worps Petitioner Craves ye Order to me & it shall by the help of God be performed & ye Petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray &c.

The aboves Petition being read was granted. The so Wouldhave assuming forthwith to repaire ye said work, & by the next fall to compleat & finish the same.

Rice Rugg this day in Court produced a receit which he desired might be preed in Court which was by the Gate of Somerset Dirkinson

---

To the Worpt. Justices of their Maiesties Court for the County of Somerset in Court now sitting The Petition of Thomas Oxford humbly sheweth that whereas ye Petitioner last was bound to the Peace of the good behaviour, your Petitioner ever since hath carried himself loyally & civilly to all his Maiesties Subjects & liege people (as I hope none can offer ye Contrary) your Petitioner Craves your worpps would be pleased to release me from my Bonds and ye Petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray &c.

The aboves Petition being read, & Proclamation made, ye aboves Bonds as prayed granted

---

Ye Capitall Somerset ss// Whereas John Cope of the County Glandor upon ye day of May anno Dominii 1692. was bound by Recognizance in the One of their Maiesties Justices of ye Peace [illegible] in the sume of [illegible] pounds Recognizance is sure ye [illegible] personall appearance before [illegible] Maiesties Justices of the Peace at the Quarter Sessions to be holden for the said County then & there to answer & that shall be ordered agt the said Cope, on Behalf of their Maiesties Here [illegible] Attorney Comes & [illegible] the said John Cope, not having the fear of God