William M. Maloy Once Was Commission Chairman

Offices of the Public Service Commission will "close" at 2 P.M. today out of respect to William Milnes Maloy, former chairman of the commission, who died Tuesday.

However, a sufficient number of employes will remain at work during the afternoon to carry on the business of the commission.

The closing will enable members of the commission's staff who knew Mr. Maloy to attend funeral services for him at 3 P.M. at a funeral home at St. Paul and Preston streets.

Mr. Maloy, a leading figure in Maryland Democratic politics for many years, was chairman of the commission from May 11, 1920, until January 1, 1924, when he resigned to become people's counsel.

He was, at various times, executive director of the unemployment compensation department, State senator, member of the House of Delegates and candidate for Governor and United States senator.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Matilde Backus Maloy, and three sisters, Mrs. Mai Edgett, Mrs. Albert Gosnell and Mrs. Howard B. Canter, all of Baltimore.

Burial will be in Greenmount Cemetery.

Sunday School Dinner Slated

The Deer Park Methodist Church Sunday School will serve its annual chicken dinner starting at 2 P.M. August 27 on the church grounds, 10 miles north of Eldersburg on the Westminster road.
