Just as we go to press, the sad and startling news of the death of the Hon. John F. Mudd reaches the office of The Times Crescent.

Mr. Mudd died suddenly at his Bryantown home, (today), Thursday, February 16, and we deeply regret we cannot publish further details of his death in this issue of the Times-Crescent.

Truly he was loved by his contemporaries in every walk of life, and truly he deserved that position in the hearts of the people of Southern Maryland.
