

Next Governor of Maryland.—The newspapers are already beginning to agitate the subject of the next Governorship of Maryland. The people of Annapolis being considerably interested in the matter, we subjoin a list of the names of gentlemen spoken of as candidates for nomination by the American party, viz: Hon. JAMES WALLACE, of Dorchester; Hon. WILLIAM H. PUBNELL, of Worcester; Hon. GEORGE R. DENKIS, of Somerset; THOMAS H. HICKS, Esq., of Dorchester; Hon. JAMES B. RICAUD, of Kent; Gen. HENRY S. STITES, of Cecil; Dr. ROBERT GOLDSBOROUGH and WILLIAM PAGA, Esq., of Queen Anne; Dr. C. C. COX, of Talbot.

Surely out of such an array of excellent and competent gentlemen, the American party can make a selection that will do honor to the State and to the Party. Any one of them can be elected by 10,000 majority.

The few Sag Nichts left in our good o'd State, talk now-and-then, spasmodically, of running a candidate for Governor, if they can get any one to serve. Col. LLOYD, of Talbot, or Dr. CATHELL HUMPHREYS, will, probably, be the unfortunate victim to be offered up as sacrifice to Sam.
