

Dr. Taussig Wins Award

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 14 (AP).—Dr. Helen B. Taussig of Baltimore has been named one of four major 1966 award winners of the American College of Physicians.

The Group, which represents some 13,000 specialists in internal medicine and related fields, will present the awards April 21 during the annual meeting, in New York City.

Dr. Taussig was given the John Phillips Memorial award for distinguished contributions in internal medicine.
