

TO AWARD BRYN MAWR PRIZE

---

Amy Lowell, Cecilia Beaux And Mrs. Catt Form Jury.

Bryn Mawr, Pa., June 1 (Special).—Miss Amy Lowell, the poet; Cecilia Beaux, of New York, artist, and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt will be asked to become members of the jury to award the M. Carey Thomas prize, established by the Bryn Mawr Alumnae Association this year as a tribute to the retiring president of the college.

The prize will be $5,000, to be given every five years to an American woman who has achieved eminence in some form of work. Dr. Thomas will be a permanent member of the jury, and others will be A. Dorothy Shipley and Anne Hampton Todd, both of Philadelphia, representing the alumnae.

Any American woman engaged in any work which will bring her national eminence may aspire to the prize.

It was said the prize will be awarded for the first time in 1927.

---