

[COMMUNICATED.]

Editors Beacon:—Please state in your next issue that a few weeks ago our colored lawyer, Richard E. King, carried me to Washington and collected my bounty and pay, which other lawyers told me could not be collected. I have deposited my money in bank to buy a homestead.

Mr. King is a gentleman, and has acted upright and honorable by me, and I wish him all possible success. Yours truly,

RACHEL GLADDEN.