

inst., in his 63rd year. (Oct. 14, 1824)

GANTI, Dr. Robert, died 13th ult., in the state of Alabama; formerly of Cal. Co., Md. (March 27, 1823)

GANTI, Dr. William T., and Kitty Worthington, daughter of Brice J. Worthington, all of A. A. Co., were married Tues., 2nd inst. (Dec. 11, 1828)

GARDINER, John M., of the U. S. Navy, and Miss Sophia Gassaway, of Annap., were married Friday evening last [Nov. 1], by the Rev. Mr. Higinbotham. (Nov. 7, 1805)

GARDINER, Lieut.-Commandant John M., U. S. N., died Wed., 30th ult., at Doden, on the south side of South River. (Sept. 7, 1815)

GARDINER, Richard, of George, died Mon. last, at his residence near Annap. leaving a widow and three children. (April 28, 1836)

GARDNER, Mr. Richard, and Elizabeth Ann, youngest daughter of Mr. Howard Duvall, were married Tues. evening last, in South River Neck, by Rev. T. Riley. (Dec. 24, 1829)

GARLINER, Thomas, and Miss Susan Brewer, all of Annap., were married on Tues. evening last [March 14], by the Rev. Mr. Watkins. (March 16, 1820)

GARSTON, Thomas, one of the owners of the Annapolis packet, was drowned off the mouth of the Magothy on Friday last en route from Annap., to Balto. (Feb. 28, 1793)

GASKINS, James R., of Balto., and Eleanora Sewell, of A. A. Co., were married Tues., 15th inst., by the Rev. Dr. Hammond. (Dec. 24, 1835)

GASSAWAY, Mrs., of Elk-Ridge, departed this life. (Oct. 31, 1805)

GASSAWAY, Amelia Pinckney, youngest daughter of Louis and Rebecca Gassaway, died Sun. morning last, in her fifth year. (March 27, 1834)

GASSAWAY, Capt. Henry, a meritorious officer in the Revolutionary army, died in Annap. on Mon. night last. (Feb. 11, 1818)
He died on Feb. 10, 1818. (Feb. 26, 1818)

GASSAWAY, Capt. John, died last Thurs. [June 10], at his plantation near South River, in his 55th year; for a number of years in the Commission of the Peace, for three years Sheriff, and for eight years one of the Representatives of A. A. Co. (June 17, 1762)

GASSAWAY, Gen. John, died in Annap., on Sun. evening last. He was