

DEMAND STATE ACT IN LYNCHING

Officials Condemn Salisbury Mob Attack on Negro

Brief comments of Baltimore, Eastern Shore and Maryland officials and others on last night's lynching at Salisbury follow:

GOV. ALBERT C. RITCHIE: "An inquiry into the whole situation on the Eastern Shore is under way by my office. I shall confer with Attorney General William Preston Lane Jr. today and also make inquiry into last night's lynching. I expect to have a statement outlining my position in this case and also in the Orphan Jones case prepared late today, but not for the afternoon papers."

WILLIAM PRESTON LANE JR., attorney general of Maryland: "I am greatly shocked by this whole affair. I feel sure that the state's attorneys will take necessary action toward prosecuting leaders of the mob guilty of this murder."

MAYOR WADE INSLEY, for three years chief executive of Salisbury: "We have greatly prided ourselves in Salisbury on the law-abiding
