
A LITTLE GIRL MURDERED BY A NEGRO.—

Near Greensborough, Caioline county, on Wednesday evening last, as a little daughter of Mr. Edgar Plummer, about eight years of age, was passing through a small skirt of woods in returning from school, she was met or overtaken by a negro man named Jim Willson, who in attempting to commit violence upon the person of the child, caused her death immediately. The negro was arrested on suspicion and on being carried where the child laid a corpse, he frankly acknowledged the murder, but said he did it by throwing her against the ground. The worst penalty that the law can inflict is too good for the scoundrel.
