

out the gaol the greater part of the
and, perhaps, during that period, ever were absent from my door more an hour at one time. They enquired after the tories, and threatened vengeance
they find them within.

Pratt saved my life. He protested that if the tories were there, invited them in, and offered to forfeit his life if he was to be deceitious. This would satisfy for a while. Many of them, particularly the Frenchmen, would tell them to come away.
He has no tories in him." Thus things went on during the
The next day they did not visit our often.

In the latter part of the night, the mob did particularly for several of Mr. Han-driens by name. But the next morning subject of their search appeared to be Mr. ——. At a still later hour, (7 o'clock) they enquired particularly for Graham and Sprigg. This they continued to do at 11 o'clock on Wednesday, when they were reinforced by numbers, amounting to about 300. During the whenever they came, they swore that I and myself were there, and that they would have us. Du Pratt, however, had already succeeded by presence of mind and advice in sending them away.

On the reinforcement appeared, they knocked at the gaol about my door, which they did several times, swearing most vehemently.
Sprigg and Graham were there, and they would murder them. I was then retreated behind the door, and they looking through the grating. This must have been a very bad time to the little Frenchman. There is no doubt, that he would have fallen a victim to the resentment of the mob, if I had not found under his protection. If he had been an attorney-general of a state, a commandant of a brigade, or a mayor of a city, he might have proposed terms to the mob, and their victim might have been handed over for sacrifice. But as he was an humble prisoner, confined on a charge of felony,
and not yet lost all regard for moral obligations. He had promised to protect me, and I had trusted him. By his address and courage, the torious band were again sent from the

When they retired, they swore that we were that their numbers were not quite at present; but that towards night
they would bring a force sufficient to carry on their shoulders. I sent for the and desired him to go or send immediately for an attorney. He appeared further and not a little pleased to see me; and

MEETING IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

At a numerous meeting of the Citizens of Montgomery County, composed of all political parties, held at Rockville, on the 15th of August, 1812, agreeably to public notice, for the purpose of taking into consideration the Late Outrageous Proceedings of the Mob in Baltimore,

Col. RICHARD ANDERSON was unanimously called to the Chair—and ZADOCK LANHAM, appointed Secretary.

When the following persons were appointed a committee to report Resolutions on the subject, to wit:—William Carroll, Colonel Thomas Fletchall, Robert P. Magruder, Major John H. Riggs, Major Wm. Worthington, Abraham Jones and Charles Evans, Esquires—who, after retiring, in a short time
returned and reported the following Preamble and Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, we live under a government of laws, which, if properly administered, can at all times maintain the peace of society, and afford protection to the rights of the citizen;
and whereas, the constituted authorities of Baltimore have suffered a Lawless Mob to rise in their city at different times, and without prevention, to destroy the property of individuals, & at length assail their lives with unheard of circumstances of cruelty and barbarity; and whereas, by these outrageous proceedings a beloved citizen, General JAMES M. LIN-GAN, has been massacred, and the lives of many more put in extreme jeopardy—therefore,

Resolved, That we view with horror and indignation the lawless proceeding which has been carried on in Baltimore for the last six weeks against the Liberty of the Press, the Security of Person and Property, and every privilege which is assured by the social compact.

Resolved, That we regard the massacre committed upon our fellow citizens, who were placed in the prison of Baltimore for security, under the most solemn oaths and protestations of defence and protection from the civil and military authorities, as in the highest degree derogatory to civilized society, and a blot which cannot be effaced from the character of the Emporium of the State.

Resolved, That by forbearing all interference for so long a period to restore the reign of the laws, and to afford to the citizens that security from injury, which is the direct and most essential end of government, the Executive of this State has justly incurred the loss of all confidence; and our Delegates to the next General Assembly, are hereby requested, if they see proper, to promote an effective investigation of the cause of this alarming apathy, to the end that it may be followed by the constitutional animadversion which may be found appropriate.

Resolved, That Mobs are the foes of a free government, which if at first disregarded, will immediately spread over the body politic, to the prostration of the laws and the subversion of society; and that we will ever hold ourselves pledged to use every exertion to prevent them from taking root in our land.

Resolved, That when the constituted authorities, through weakness or corruption, fail to give protection to the citizen, he has a right to protect himself by armed force, if necessary.

Resolved, That the LIBERTY OF SPEECH and of the PRESS, ought to be inviolably preserved.

Resolved, That the thanks of this assembly are due to ALEXANDER C. HANSON and his heroic companions, who with unexampled bravery and magnanimity risked their lives in defence of this palladium of rights, this surest safeguard against the subversion of our constitution, and the establishment of tyranny on its ruins.

Resolved, That we feel penetrated with the deepest sorrow for the loss of our virtuous, brave, and patriotic fellow-citizen and friend, Gen. JAMES M. LINGAN, who will ever be remembered as the tender husband, the indulgent father, the honoured and beloved neighbour, the brave revolutionary hero, the magnanimous patriot, who loved his country better than his own life.

Resolved, That in testimony of our love and esteem for his numerous virtues, and in commemoration of the glorious cause in which he expired, a MONUMENT be erected to his Memory, and that a committee be appointed to superintend the raising of subscriptions, and to correspond with the committees appointed for the same purpose in other places.

Resolved, That we recommend to the citizens of Montgomery county to wear crape on the left arm for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That we feel deeply impressed with sentiments of gratitude to that Overruling Providence, without whose superintending care those of our injured friends who survived that dreadful night, could never have been preserved, amidst the dangers and cruelties to which they were exposed.

Resolved, That Charles Galloway, Col. Richard Anderson, James Lackland, Henry Howard, of John, and Ezekiah Linthicum, be a committee to carry these resolutions into effect.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be signed by the chairman, and attested by the secretary, and that they be published in the Spirit of '76, Federal Republican, National Intelligencer, and Frederick-town Herald.

RICH. ANDERSON, Chairman.
ZADOK LANHAM, Secretary.

ST. MARY'S COUNTY.

At a large meeting of the citizens, composed of all political denominations, of Saint-Mary's county, on Friday the 7th day of August, 1812, convened at Leonard-Town, for the purpose of expressing the public feeling, in relation to the violent and savage proceedings of the Mob in Baltimore, Col. Henry Neale was called to the chair, and James Forrest appointed secretary, when the chairman appointed a committee, consisting of the following gentlemen, John Rousby Plater, Raphael Neale, Athanasius Fenwick, James Hopewell and William C. Somerville, who having retired a short time, returned with the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

We the inhabitants of Saint-Mary's county, feeling the most anxious solicitude for the preservation of internal tranquillity, and viewing with deep regret the reiterated lawless and violent proceedings in the city of Baltimore, deem it our bounden duty to denounce such outrages, as destructive of the principles of all free government, and vitally ruinous to the peace, happiness, and tranquillity of society, and if not in time suppressed, leading to the worst of evils universal confusion and anarchy.

Resolved Unanimously, That we regard with detestation and abhorrence every assault upon private property, and personal security, and every assemblage tending to destroy the peace of society; that we recognise in them the principles which desolated France during her revolution, the embryos of an anarch fiend, which, if nurtured, may lead to the extinguishment of our liberties; therefore,

Resolved unanimously, That it is the opinion of this meeting, that the executive of this state ought to take immediate and efficient measures to enforce obedience to the laws and constitution; to cause the sacred privileges of the citizen to be respected; to bring to condign punishment all instigators and perpetrators of such violations of the law; and to use every constitutional means to prevent in future similar outbreaks from whatever quarter they may proceed.

Resolved unanimously, That all outrageous violations and disregard of law, tend to the dissolution of the happy union of these states; that we regard the union as the ark of our political salvation, and that we pledge our prompt and cordial co-operation, in carrying into effect every measure that may be embraced by the constituted authorities to secure its perpetuity.

On motion, ordered, That copies of the above resolutions, signed by the chairman and secretary, be forwarded to the editors of the Federal Republican and Maryland Republican, for insertion; and that Raphael Neale, Athanasius Fenwick, Gerard N. Cauffman, James Forrest and Henry Gardiner, be a committee to forward to the executive of this state a copy of these resolutions.

By order,
HENRY NEALE, Chairman.
JAMES FORREST, Secretary.

From the Boston Repertory.

ON THE DEATH OF GENERAL LINGAN.
"Thou hast not fallen by the sword of the mighty;
"Neither was thy blood on the spear of the valiant!"

TO the sod where the bones of the Soldier
are laid;

Who bared his brave breast to the spear of
the foe.

Shall approach his fond friends, and, in fable
array'd,

Pour over his relics the soft plaint of woe.
And first, see stern HONOR, his eye on the ground,

With the tears of affection besprinkle his mound;

He mourns, too, to mark how ungrateful
have proved,

The sons of those Sires, who once LIBERTY loved.

To thy cold mansion, Lingan! next VALOUR
draws near;

A deep blush of crimson emantles his face, Aham'd of thy fate, he in rage rends his spear,

And exclaims, "See what lustre can facin-
on deface!"

But fairer than light, a meek, sorrowing form,
See FREEDOM comes griev'd and with bosom forlorn;

The sad bodings of fear still unite with her moan,

That the death of her Lingan presages her own!

But avaunt grief and fear; for lo! yonder
draws nigh,

The bright car of GLORY:—it stops at his grave!

Bright seraphs of light bear the Warrior away,

To realms of felicity worthy the brave;
Still, Friend of thy Country! thy name shall be dear,

Whilst we LIBERTY love, whilst Oppression we fear;

Thee Honor shall mourn, Valour, Freedom,
and Glory,

Whilst free tongues and free presses shall teem with thy story!

Gen. JAMES MACUBBIN LINGAN,
was a native of Maryland, descended from a respectable family; and was brought up in a store in George-town. At the commencement of the American Revolution he obtained a commission in the army—was at the battle of Long Island, where the Maryland line suffered severely, and was one of those spared to aid in the defence of Long Island—He escaped the balls of the Hessians who drove in the advanced posts of Fort Washington, and became prisoner when that fortress surrendered, and partook of the sufferings which followed, as was evinced by the rheumatism with which he was severely afflicted when he returned to George-town after the close of the war.

When the new Constitution went into operation he was appointed collector of the port of George-town by Washington the friend of the patriot and soldier. He was well known to many of those who served in congress from 1800 to 1804, who often partook of his hospitable board.

This is a brief account of the man who was recently and barbarously murdered by the infuriated mob of Baltimore.

Gen. LINGAN was one of the most upright of men, and it may justly be said he knew no guile. He was emphatically the poor man's friend, and was ever ready to aid the industrious mechanic. I do not think he would have been guilty of a deliberate falsehood to amass a fortune, or use deception to carry a favorite political point.

He was above the middle size as to height, and a stout well proportioned man; in respect to personal courage he appeared to know no fear. This was evinced in the hour of his death, after having received the fatal blow, he reached out his hand to one of his companions, saying "farewell, I am a dying man, make your escape, return home and take care there."

For several years past he lived retired in the country, useful to a numerous family circle (much dependent on his council and management) beloved by his neighbours and respected by all who knew him. Few men enjoyed a larger portion of domestic comfort. His wife is amiable and accomplished, and her time much devoted to the education of their children—her loss is great indeed, and so is that of their fatherless children; but the widow will find support, I trust, and comfort, from the ARM that the enraged mob cannot wither—she has long since chosen the LORD as her GOD—JESUS as her Saviour, and I hope she will be enabled in this trying affliction to lay hold on that precious promise—"All things shall work together for good to those who love God." Can the leaders of the mob and those who manage behind the scene, look up to the father of mercies as she can?

FROM THE AGRICULTURAL MUSEUM.
Columbian Agricultural Society.

At a meeting of the Columbian Agricultural Society held at Georgetown, according to adjournment, on Monday the 8th of June 1812, it was determined that the following premiums in plate with suitable devices, be given, under the usual regulations and restrictions, at the general meeting of the society, to be held on the third Wednesday of November next, viz:

1. Forty dollars for the best bull as to form and size, age considered, not less than one year, nor more than four grasses old.
 2. Thirty dollars for the best heifer as to form and size, age considered, not less than one year nor more than three grasses old.
 3. Thirty dollars for the best fat bullock or spayed heifer for beef.
 4. Thirty dollars for the best yoke of draft oxen broke to work single or double.
 5. Twenty dollars for the best written essay on the mode of gearing and working oxen, founded on experiments.
 6. Thirty dollars for the best piece of fulled and dressed woolen cloth of any width, not less than seven square yards.
 7. Fifteen dollars for the second best piece of fulled and dressed woolen cloth as above.
 8. Twenty dollars for the best piece of woolen kerseymere not less than ten yards in length.
 9. Ten dollars for the second best piece of woolen kerseymere as above.
 10. Twenty dollars for the best piece of cloth, cotton warp filled with wool, to show the wool on one side, not less than ten yards.
 11. Ten dollars for the second best piece of cloth cotton warp, filled with wool as above.
 12. Twenty dollars for the best piece of fancy patterns for vests of wool and cotton not less than ten yards.
 13. Twenty dollars for the best piece of flannel, all wool, not less than ten yards.
 14. Ten dollars for the second best piece of flannel as above.
 15. Fifteen dollars for the best piece of flannel, part cotton and part wool, not less than ten yards.
 16. Ten dollars for the best pair of woolen stockings, knit or woven, full size.
 17. Twenty dollars for the best pair of fine woolen blankets, large size.
 18. Ten dollars for the best pair of stout coarse blankets, for laborers, full size.
 19. Ten dollars for the best coarse woolen cloth fulled or otherwise, calculated for laborers, combining warmth, durability, cheapness of material and manufacture, not less than ten yards.
- These are the considerations by which the quality of the blankets also will be determined.

By order of the standing committee.
DAVID WILEY, Sec'y.

From a London paper of June 30.
Mrs. SIDDON'S RETIREMENT.
COVENT GARDEN. The departure of Mrs. Siddons from the stage is an event that most sensibly interests every amateur of the art. She has long maintained the lustre of the genuine drama, that it fills the breast with the most sincere regret that she should thus retire in the fulness of her fame, while her powers are undecayed by years, and when she sees no rising candidate in any adequate degree qualified to supply the place which she will leave vacant.

The play with which Mrs. Siddons took leave of the public last night was Macbeth. Mrs. Siddons, in the dress of the sleep scene, came forward and delivered a poetical piece (written by Horace Twiss, Esq.) with great feeling and effect—The following are the concluding lines:—

Judges and Friends! to whom the tragic strain
Of nature's feeling never spoke in vain,
Perhaps your hearts, when years have glided
by,

And pass emotions wake a fleeting sigh,
May think on her, whose lips have pour'd so long

The charmed sorrows of your Shakespeare's song:

On her, who parting to return no more,
Is now the mourner she but SEEM'D before,
Herself subdued, resigns the melting spell,
And breathes, with swelling heart, her long,
her last farewell!

She made her reverences with great emotion, and Mr. Kemble slept on the stage to assist in leading her off. The house took leave of their favorite with reiterated acclamations.

DEFENCE OF A HOUSE.

Sometime since the house of captain Trethen, at Bath, was entered in a riotous manner, and himself and his sister abused.—The next day he procured arms & ammunition, and on the following night, when his house was attacked, but before it was entered, he fired twice, and killed two persons.—He was tried and acquitted. [Lond. Pal.]

NEW-YORK, AUG. 20.

LATEST FROM OUR SQUADRON.
The prize-master of the British brig Harmony, [sent into this port by the Yankee] informs us, that previous to his leaving the Yankee they spoke and boarded an American vessel, the captain of which informed them that he was boarded on the THIRTEENTH of JULY by an officer from one of Commodore Ridger's Squadron. The boarding officer stated that they had captured and destroyed THIRTY-ONE SAIL OF ENGLISH VESSELS during their cruise.

It is stated in a Newport paper that a letter has been received from an officer on board the President, dated July 19, [without name or place] announcing that the Squadron had captured and destroyed 160 English vessels.

The letter also mentions, that a few days after leaving port, the Horner had a brush with an English frigate, supposed to be the Belvidera.

A letter from New-London, dated on Monday, says, "A ship has arrived off Montauk Point in 32 days from England, waiting orders."

Died, in this city on Sunday the 16th inst. in the 69th year of his age, Mr. Thomas Wilmore—And, on Sunday last, at his dwelling on the North side of Severn, Mr. Daniel Fowler, formerly an inhabitant of this city.

Jonathan Hutton,

LATE FROM BALTIMORE,
Respectfully makes known that he carries on the COACH MAKING BUSINESS in all its various branches, at the shop formerly occupied by his father in Corn-Hill street, and hopes by unremitting exertion to please, and the speedy and well performance of all work with which he is entrusted, to receive a portion of public patronage.

N. B. Orders from the country will be punctually attended to, and carriages of all kinds mended on the most reasonable terms. Half worn carriages will be received in part payment for new ones.
Aug. 27. 3w.

By His Excellency ROBERT BOWIE,
Esquire, Governor of Maryland,

A PROCLAMATION
WHEREAS the Executive of the State of Pennsylvania hath lately demanded of the Executive of Maryland, Joseph Roche, Thomas Kennedy, John Oram and James Oram, as fugitives from justice, alleged to be at large in the State of Maryland; and hath transmitted an affidavit, dated the nineteenth ultimo, charging said Joseph Roche, Thomas Kennedy, John Oram and James Oram, with felony in kidnapping three negroes from the city of Philadelphia, viz. Solomon Luff, Richard Bailey and Gabriel Jackson. I have therefore issued this my Proclamation, authorizing & enjoining it on all civil officers, and other citizens of this State, to arrest and commit said Joseph Roche, Thomas Kennedy, John Oram and James Oram, to the goal of the county in which they may be found, and to give notice thereof to the Governor and Council of this state, in order that the Executive of Pennsylvania may be duly notified of the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Maryland, at the City of Annapolis, this third day of August, eighteen hundred and twelve.
ROBERT BOWIE.

By his Excellency's command,
NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

ORDERED, That the above Proclamation be published twice in each week, for the space of four weeks in the Maryland Republican and Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis; in the Whig, Sun, American, and Federal Gazette at Baltimore; the Republican Gazette at Frederick-town; and the Maryland Herald at Hagerstown, the National Intelligencer at Washington, and the Star at Eastern.

By order,
NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.
August 13, 1812.

This is to give Notice,

That the subscriber of Anne-Arundel county, hath obtained from the orphans court of the county aforesaid, letters of administration on the personal estate of Nicholas Carroll, Esquire, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate, are requested to bring them in, legally authenticated, and those in any manner indebted to the estate to make immediate payment to Nicholas Brice, Esquire, of Baltimore, whom I have fully authorised to settle the business of said estate.

NICHOLAS C. CARROLL, Admr.
August 13. 3X 3w.