Indenture and acknowledged the same to be their act and deed, and delivered the same for the uses and purposes therein mentioned. At the same time personally appeared before us the Subscribers aforesaid, the said Delia W. Wayly wife of the said Alexander H. Wayly and out of the presence and hearing of the said Alexander H. Wayly her husband, did sign seal and execute the within and aforegoing Deed, and acknowledge the same to be her act and deed, and the negro slave Hannah therein mentioned and thereby bargained and sold, to be the right and property of the within named Eliza E. Hayward her heirs and assigns forever. And the said Delia W. Wayly being by us privately examined apart from and out of the hearing of her husband. Whether she doth execute and make her acknowledgment of the same willingly and freely, and without being induced to do so, by fear or threats of, or ill usage by her husband, or fear of his displeasure. Acknowledges that she does execute and make acknowledgment of the same freely and willingly and freely, and without being induced to do so by fear or threats of, or ill usage by her husband or fear of his displeasure. And we do further Certify that of our own knowledge we are satisfied that the said Alexander H. Wayly and Delia W. Wayly who make the above acknowledgment are the same persons who are named and described as and professing to be the parties grantors in the within and aforegoing Deed of Indenture — Acknowledged before and Certified by Robt Bell
