Miss Alice Gray, the Baltimore favorite, assumes the character of Marguerite, Mr. Raymond that of Sibel, while the others will be sustained by the members of the newly organized company. THE CHICAGO DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—The Chicago Convention, which assembles on Monday next, promises to be very largely attended. Delegates are already arriving from all directions. A dispatch represents that the feeling in the various delegations appears to be in favor of the nomination of Gen. McClellan, and that the outside pressure in his behalf is very strong. The mass meeting to be held there to-day, and at which it is proposed to concentrate the movement in his favor, is expected to be one of the largest demonstrations ever witnessed in Chicago. It is said, however, that Millard Fillmore has warm friends among the delegates, and it is thought to be possible that should Vallandigham and his friends steadily oppose McClellan's nomination, he may be defeated. It is known that there are radical differences in the party as to the proper policy to be pursued in the coming campaign; but the belief is expressed in the principal organs of the party that harmony will finally be secured. A strong opposition is manifested to the adoption of any specific platform by the convention, the party leaders not desiring, apparently, to be restrained by any definite pledges.

LORD PALMERSTON'S LAST ON NEUTRALITY.—Somebody or other keeps Lord Palmerston constantly defining the position of the British government with reference to our war.—Still, each declaration is read with interest, to see whether any possible leaning is discoverable. The following was his Lordship's statement of the matter at Bradford, being his last:

"We have lamented, no doubt, that terrible war, that bloody war, which has been raging in the northern part of the American continent; but we have felt that any endeavor on our part, or in conjunction with any other European power, to interfere in that quarrel would have done mischief instead of good.—The feelings are high when the quarrel is fierce and the battle raging; the combatants will not listen to the calm advice of friends, however good their intentions, and however wise their counsels. All that we have to do is to pursue the course by which in the first instance we averted the consequence of this calamitous war, to abstain from meddling, and to wait for that hour, which must come at last, when the two parties, exhausted by their mutual efforts, are at last weaned away from those revengeful feelings which at present influence them, and are more disposed to come to an amicable settlement. We can only hope that the time will shortly arrive when that blessed result will take place."

MARYLAND SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—On Thursday the steamer Atlantic arrived at Philadelphia from Fortress Monroe, with a number of sick and wounded soldiers, among them the following belonging to Maryland regiments:

Adjutant J. B. Colony, 1st Maryland; Lieutenant W. G. Brashears, do.; Lieutenant Ed. Williams, do.; Lieutenant Thos. Henry, do.; Colonel Richard N. Bowerman, 4th Maryland; Captain J. Bailey Orem, do.; Captain Thomas H. Watkins, Purnell Legion; Lieutenant John Kahn, do.; Captain A. C. Williams, 4th Maryland; Lieutenant Robert Neeley, 1st Maryland; Lieutenant Seth G. Reed, do., and Lieutenant Chas. A. Conner, 7th Maryland.

THE NEW YORK POLITICIANS.—A letter from New York, dated Thursday, says:

There is a very general "clearing out" of Democratic politicians to Chicago. Thus far, however, only those whose exchequer enables them to pay several days' board at the hotels, have gone; others, whose means are more circumscribed, will not go till to-morrow night or Saturday morning. Mozart Hall, and Tammany Hall, and all the other "halls" and "headquarters" look quite deserted. "Public opinion," thereabout, is gradually settling down into the conviction that McClellan is to be the nominee; so certain are some folks, indeed, that this is to be the result, that orders have already been given for banners, transparencies, &c., with the name of McClellan thereon, to be used at the ratification meeting.

PATENTS ISSUED.—Among the patents just issued are the following:—To Samuel Wethered, of Baltimore, for improvement in thimbles for steam-boilers. To R. H. Loomis, of Baltimore, for improvement in governor cut-off valves. To Hugh L. McAvoy, of Baltimore, assignor to himself and Elias S. Hutchinson, of the same place, for improvements in apparatus for carburretted air. To John H. Abbott, of Frederick city, Md., for cigar-knife.

YELLOW FEVER IN BROOKLYN.—Several cases of yellow fever (one of them terminating fatally) were reported in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Thursday. The fatal case was in Leonard street. The disease is said to have been brought into the city by sick persons who came on from Key West, in a schooner, which went to New London in order to avoid the quarantine regulations.

LATEST NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

Rebel Accounts of the Fight on the Weldon Railroad--A Repulse Acknowledged—General Early's Movements in the Valley of Virginia, &c.

The following extracts are from late Richmond papers:

FROM PETERSBURG—THE FIGHT ON THE WELDON RAILROAD.

[From the Richmond Examiner, August 23.]

The effort made on last Friday to dislodge the enemy from his position on the Weldon Railroad proved, as we have before stated, unsuccessful. Saturday passed without any fighting between the two armies, save a little shelling and picket firing. On Sunday the effort was again made.

Accordingly, early on Sunday forenoon an advance was ordered. Our forces drove the enemy out of their front lines of breastworks back upon their main line, and capturing three hundred prisoners. The enemy did not retire without giving battle, and the ground was hotly contested for the space of an hour or two before they were forced back. In the meantime, the enemy's artillery was throwing shell and canister at our ranks and our batteries in the rear were replying. The enemy's main works on the railroad were adjudged too strong to attack, and our troops therefore held their second line of entrenchments.

In the meantime a more important movement was started towards the enemy's extreme left, about one mile west of the railroad. A body of our troops acting in conjunction with others, was sent down on the Vaughan road, some three or four miles from the city, to reconnoiter the enemy's position in that direction, and ascertain their strength there, with a view to further movements.

It was discovered that the Yankees had extended their lines west to the Vaughan road, in the direction of Poplar Springs Church, and were rapidly fortifying. An effort, we learn, was made to turn that flank, and dislodge them, which did not prove successful. The outer works were carried, but the inner were found to be of such great strength and so heavily armed with artillery as to render their capture a matter of doubt, without great loss of life. Some advantages were gained, we learn, at a considerable cost in killed, wounded and missing, which were subsequently yielded. Gen. John C. C. Saunders, of Alabama, was killed here while leading his men in a charge.

The position of the enemy, as nearly as we are able to judge, is about thus:—Their centre rests upon the Weldon railroad, about three miles from the city, their right extending across the wooded country to the Jerusalem plank road on the east, and their left to the Vaughan road on the west. Along this whole line they have strongly fortified themselves, and works of great strength have sprung up like magic. In their rear, on the line of the railroad and on both sides, they have thrown up heavy works to provide against flank movements. At Yellow Tavern and the Gurley House heavy batteries of guns are planted. At every point open to attack they are strongly fortified.

Warren's Corps, which first occupied the railroad, have been heavily reinforced within the last two nights. Hancock's (Second) and Burnside's (Ninth) Corps have reached the road, and now confront our troops, numbering in the aggregate fully thirty thousand men.

The Yankees have been busy in destroying the railroad, and reports say that the track is torn up to and beyond Reams's Station, a distance of ten miles from the city.

In addition to the strong character of the fortifications on the enemy's left, which were assaulted by our flanking column, one of the main causes of the repulse was the giving away, at a very critical moment, of a brigade, which caused considerable confusion and gave the enemy a great advantage. Our troops were compelled to retire after capturing a line of the enemy's skirmishers and reaching their strongest works. Colonel Lamar, of Florida, was mortally wounded.

A DECIDED REPULSE.

[From the Richmond Examiner, Aug. 23.]

To congratulate our readers every morning upon some brilliant success of the Confederate arms would be, indeed, delightful, although monotonous. Unhappily, such is not our privilege to-day. The fighting of Sunday south of Petersburg has gone against us, and the possession of the Weldon road yet remains undecided. It was perfectly evident, for some time past, that Grant must make some extraordinary effort to break out of his present most fatal and most dismal position. Accordingly he put his troops in movement the other day with the utmost activity, both by the right and left flank.

On his right, if successful in defeating the forces opposed to him, he might have advanced up to the fortifications of Richmond. On the left, if he could but break through the line of the Weldon railroad, he could make some further progress in isolating Petersburg, could stretch out his hand toward the Southside and Danville roads, and begin really to interfere with the communication of Richmond with the South.

It was known that although Grant had sent off considerable forces for the immediate defence of Washington, he still had a large army in front of Petersburg, and plainly he could not let it lie idle, rotting in the low grounds of the Appomattax and James rivers. His plans are now revealed, and all the energies and all the gallantry of the army under Lee and Beauregard will not be too much to beat back this bold movement to the south of Petersburg.

The main body of Grant's whole army is now on or near the Weldon railroad. Their centre rests upon that road, about three miles from the city, and their left stretches westward to the "Vaughan road," which is, we presume, the wagan road lately used to make the connection with the interrupted line to Weldon and Wilmington.

Around this position, says a Petersburg paper, works of great strength have sprung up like magic, armed with heavy guns, and guarding every approach. Warren's Corps has been reinforced by Hancock's and Burnside's, and the enemy's works on that side are now occupied by 30,000 men.

On Sunday a portion of our troops was thrown against this strong position, but not in such force as to effect the main object of driving the enemy completely out of their works. We have met with a repulse, and have lost some distinguished officers and many brave men, but the affair is not over.

Grant's designs are now apparent, but he has vigilant and able adversaries, and a Confederate army in his front unused to see Yankees stand firm before them. Grant's new fortifications, and their defenders, must be staunch, indeed, if they can hold that position against Lee and Beauregard. It would be foolish to deny or disguise our repulse of Saturday; but the end is not yet.

EARLY IN THE VIRGINIA VALLEY.

The Richmond Whig of the 23d has a letter dated Winchester, Aug. 17th, claiming a victory for Gen. Early in the recent fighting in the valley. It says:

Early had left Strasburg in the morning, marched 20 miles, routing the enemy with his advance skirmishers, and followed them as far as the darkness of the night would suffer him. The enemy, as they retired from Strasburg, literally destroyed everything in the way of food for man or beast. With their immense cavalry they extended their lines from Front Royal, in Warren county, to the North Mountains, West of Strasburg, and burnt every bushel of wheat, in stack, barn or mill, in Frederick, Warren and Clark, as well as oats and hay; they have really left absolutely nothing in those three counties.—They drove before them every horse, cow, sheep, hog, calf and living animal from the country. What the people are to do, God only knows. Gen. Early, two weeks since, gave orders not to have a bushel of grain taken from below Strasburg, as hardly enough was left for the citizens. Our corn crop, for want of labor to cultivate and the drought, is a failure, so that starvation on the border is no joke.

I can but mention a performance of Harry Gilmore, the night of the fight. He rode in a party of thirty-five Yankees, and found himself alone and entirely surrounded. In a moment he called out, "surrender, you d–d thieves, or you will all be shot;" then, as if to his men, (he had none,) "hold on, boys, don't shoot, they surrender;" and sure enough he brought every man, with his horse, and handed them over as prisoners. Now, this is no romance, but the fact. We have about 400 prisoners, taken here; few killed or wounded.

Great apprehension was felt here that the town would be burnt the night the enemy fell back. I think the chances are it would have been if our men had not driven them out when they did. It is but justice to say, when General Emory (of the Nineteenth Corps) was here, he kept perfect order, and protected all property in town.

Friday morning, 18th, our army is advancing towards Martinsburg, the enemy falling back towards Harper's Ferry.

An official dispatch states that a portion of our force in the Valley crossed the Shenandoah at Front Royal on the 16th, and drove the enemy's cavalry, which retreated towards Winchester, burning the hay and wheat stacks in their route. On the 17th Sheridan began to retire from his position, was pursued, and two divisions of the Sixth Corps, with a large force of cavalry, overtaken at Winchester and driven through the town, losing over two hundred prisoners. The enemy fell back towards Harper's Ferry.

ORDERED TO DUTY.

The following officers, recently exchanged by way of Charleston, have been ordered to report for duty as follows:

Major Gen. Archer, ordered to report to headquarters of the army of Northern Virginia. Major Gen. Edward Johnson, ordered to report to headquarters at Atlanta. Brig. Gen. Jeff. Thompson, ordered to report to Lt. Gen. E. Kirby Smith.

FROM THE VALLEY OF VIRGINIA.

The Threatened Rebel Invasion—Rumored Crossing of the Potomac—Fighting near Kearneysville—Rebel Force 40,000 Strong.

The Washington Republican, of last evening, mentions a rumor that a considerable body of rebels crossed the Potomac early yesterday morning at the fords above Harper's Ferry. It gives no particulars, however.

The Fighting Still in Progress.

[Dispatch to the New York Times.]

WASHINGTON, August 25.—The right wing of General Sheridan's line, held by Wilson's Cavalry division, was this morning advanced and met the enemy in a severe engagement, which was continued up to the time of departure of the train from Harper's Ferry. The attack was made in consequence of movements on the part of the enemy, showing a design of crossing the Potomac by a turning movement on the right wing of Sheridan's position. Up to latest advices the action still continued.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The Times' special correspondent at Harper's Ferry, transmits the following to this bureau:

A large portion of Early's forces broke camp at Charlestown this morning and marched in the direction of Leetown, on the main road to Martinsburg. Our cavalry encountered their skirmishers beyond Kearneysville.

Heavy firing has been heard in the direction of Shepardstown.

A splendid charge was executed by our cavalry on striking the enemy, and a large number of prisoners were captured. Our loss consists of four killed and wounded.

A Reconnoissance.

HARPER'S FERRY, Aug. 25.—A reconnoissance was made this morning by a large force of cavalry under command of Gen. Torbert, which has resulted in obtaining very important information with respect to the enemy's movements. From the information received, it appears that a considerable portion of the enemy's forces broke camp at Charlestown this morning at daylight, and marched in the direction of Leetown.

Our cavalry struck their line of skirmishers about a mile beyond Kearney's Hill, and after a brilliant charge, succeeded in capturing quite a number of prisoners. During the skirmish we lost a few killed and wounded, all of whom were brought off the field.—Among the killed is Major Schlick, of the 22d Cavalry, who was shot through the head.—Lieut. Blunt, of the 5th New York, serving on the staff of Gen. McIntosh, was shot through the ear.

The Rebel force 40,000 Strong—7,000 Cavalry—A Battle Expected.

[Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, August 25.—Gen. Sheridan estimates the rebel force in his front at about forty thousand—about seven thousand of them cavalry.

The rebels are drawn up in line of battle at Halltown, and an engagement is imminent.

HARPER'S FERRY, Thursday, August 25.—Brisk cannonading was heard from 11 until 1 o'clock to-day on our extreme right. It has since been ascertained that our army met and engaged the enemy near Kearneysville, but with what result has not yet transpired. At half past 4 the firing on the right again opened and at this hour, 5 o'clock, continues briskly. With this exception all has been quiet along our front during the day.

BY TELEGRAPH.

From Gen. Grant's Army,

All Quiet in Front—Our Lines Extended Seven Miles.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, August 24—Evening.—Everything is quiet here to-day, excepting cannonading on the right, in front of the Eighteenth Corps, which was commenced at 6 P. M., and still continues at 10 o'clock to-night.

On the left our line has been extended about six or seven miles and we now hold the line of the Weldon Railroad securely to Reams's Station, a distance of about seven miles. No rebels are to be seen on our left front, and their line has evidently been contracted in this direction.

The losses in the 5th Corps in the battles of Friday and Sunday are now computed at about five thousand killed, wounded and missing. On Sunday this corps is reported to have fought splendidly.

From Memphis and New Orleans—The Retreat of Forrest—Admiral Farragut's Operations in Mobile Bay.

CAIRO, August 25.—Memphis advices of the 23d say that the 7th Illinois cavalry have returned from the pursuit of Forrest. At the last intelligence on Monday the rebels had crossed Cold Water river, 23 miles from Memphis, retreating in the direction of Panola. They were quarreling among themselves over the failure of their expedition, as they had expected to create a diversion of General Smith's expedition. Forrest told our officers under a flag of truce on Sunday that Gen. Grierson occupied Oxford, Mississippi.

The steamer brings New Orleans dates of the 18th, and the following summary of news from Mobile bay: Admiral Farragut made a reconnoissance on the 14th to the obstructions near Mobile, and found the steamer Nashville had been sunk across the channel, making access to the city impossible until she is first removed. The gunboat Morgan came down and cannonaded our vessels from a safe distance. There are still two iron-clad rams and several plated batteries near the city. Our batteries were to open on Fort Morgan in a few days. Two hundred of the rebel prisoners taken at Fort Gaines had petitioned to be allowed to take the oath of allegiance.

A New Political Movement—Efforts of Disaffected Republicans to Induce the Withdrawal of Fremont and Lincoln and to Hold a New Convention.

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Several prominent abolitionists, including Messrs. E. Wright and G. Howe, has written to General Fremont, speaking of the dissatisfaction existing in the republican ranks, and advising the Baltimore and Cleveland nominees both to withdraw their names as Presidential candidates, and that a new convention be called to select new candidates. Messrs. Wright and Company conclude their letter as follows:

"Permit us, sir, to ask whether in case Mr. Lincoln will withdraw, you will do so, and join your fellow-citizens in an attempt to place an administration in power on the basis broad as the patriotism of the country and its needs."

Fremont under date of Nahant, 25th, replies at considerable length. He does not feel at liberty to withdraw his name without the consent of the patriotic party who nominated him, but suggests that a direct effort be made to obtain an immediate understanding between the supporters of the Baltimore and Cleveland nominations, in order that the friends of both may coalesce and unite upon an early day for holding such a convention. The following is from Fremont's letter:

"Much has been said about peace—you will excuse me, if I say what I understand by it: For me, peace signifies the integral establishment of the Union without slavery, because slavery is the source of all our political dissessions, and because the institution itself is condemned by the enlightened liberal spirit of the age. These are to be the essential conditions of peace."

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, August 26.—The Executive Committee of National Union Committee had a long session to day, but no business of a public character was transacted. They will adjourn to-morrow, and their next meeting will be held in the city of New York.—So far from there being any probability, whatever of President Lincoln withdrawing from the canvass, as some have suggested, the gentlemen comprising the committee express themselves confident of his re-election.

The Treasury department has issued a circular notifying holders of 7 30 notes, dated October 1, 1861, that they may be presented immediately, in any amount, to be exchanged for 6 per cent. bonds falling due after June 30, 1881. The interest on the 7 30 notes will be settled to date of maturity, October 1st, and the 6 per cent. bonds will bear full coupons from July 1.

Among several other naval officers who have recently mysteriously disappeared, is Acting Ensign J. O. Shaw, late of the United States steamer Tahoma. The Navy Department has in vain sought information concerning him.

The engineer was instantly killed and one man fatally injured. Three others were severely hurt.

Governor Morton and Joseph McDonald, his political opponent, were on the train, but escaped uninjured.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Funeral of Mr. S. F. Streeter.—The funeral of S. F. Streeter, Esq., took place at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, from his late residence, southeast corner of Charles and Read streets. The religious services were performed by the Rev. Mr. Bowen, of the First Independent Unitarian Church. Sermons were preached by the Rev. Mr. Bowen and also by the Rev. Dr. Morris, of the Lutheran Church. The Rev. Dr. Dalrymple was also present, and assisted in the religious exercises.

Three companies of the 194th Penna. Infantry, under command of Major Jenkins, were detailed by Major Gen. Wallace, as a guard of honor. They were drawn up in line along Charles street, in front of the residence of the deceased. The mayor and city council, the school board, a number of the members of the Union Leagues, together with many other citizens and strangers were present.

After the coffin was placed in the hearse the military took the right of the line and proceeded out Charles street, followed by the Union Leagues, then by the City Council and school board in hacks, then by Gen. Wallace and several staff officers in hacks, then the clergy and ex-Governor Hicks, Mayor Chapman, Colonel Denison and others; then the hearse, followed by a number of carriages, in which were relatives and friends of the deceased. After the cortege was formed, they moved out Charles street to John, and thence to Greenmount Cemetery, where the remains were placed in Mr. John H. Weaver's private vault.

The band of the Second United States Infantry, stationed at Fort McHenry, was sent by General Morris to attend the funeral, and performed music appropriate to the occasion.

The body of the deceased had been embalmed by Mr. James H. Weaver, and the face was very life like. The funeral was under the supervision of Mr. John H. Weaver, while the carriages were supplied by Messrs. Durham & McKeever. The following named gentleman acted as pall-bearers:—James Young, president of the first branch City Council; Samuel Duer, president second branch City Council; Hon. Judge Bond, Mr. John Needles, Mr. P. G. Sauerwein and Mr. Evans Rogers.

The Condemned Men in Fort McHenry.—It will be recollected that the Military Commission which recently held its sessions in this city tried and found guilty Wm. H. Rogers, of Baltimore; John R. H. Embert, of Delaware; Braxton Lynn, of Maryland, and Samuel B. Herne, of Delaware, of the charge of being rebel spies, blockade runners, &c. These parties were condemned to be hung on Monday next, and the sentence approved by the commander of the Middle Department. Since their conviction they have been closely confined in Fort McHenry, and a number of influential citizens have interested themselves in their behalf with the President. These efforts, it was understood in the city last evening, have been successful. The President, after having patiently listened to the testimony brought to bear in their respective cases, it is currently rumored, yesterday granted a full pardon to Rogers, and commuted the punishment of the other three to imprisonment.

Internal Revenue Tax.—All persons in the Second Congressional District, which includes the first seven wards of the city, who shall have failed to pay their United States taxes after the 1st day of September, will have ten per cent added thereto, and upon service of notice twenty cents additional, and mileage at five cents per mile. They are subject moreover to immediate distraint and sale, and for non payment of license to fine and imprisonment. The collector has no discretion under the law, which is imperative.

George W. Dawson, Esq., the collector of Internal Revenue for the fifth district, announces that the taxes in that district are now due, and that payments may be made at any time on or before the 22d of October, at his office at Miller's Hotel, corner of German and Paca streets, Baltimore. In the meantime for the convenience of tax payers, he will be present at different places in Howard and Baltimore counties, which he designates, to receive the sums due.

The Military Commission.—Major Este, of Gen. Wallace's staff, who has been acting as judge advocate of this commission for some weeks past, was, by special order, relieved from said position yesterday, and Major William P. Lord, of the First Delaware cavalry, detailed to fill his place. It is understood that Major Este was relieved in order to act as judge advocate to a military commission about being formed in Wilmington, Del., for the trial of cases in that region.

The cases of James Cullison and Dorsey Taylor were disposed of by the commission yesterday. J. H. Ing, Esq., counsel for the latter.

F. G. Smith, son of Samuel Smith, Esq., of this city, arrested some months ago whilst coming from the South to Baltimore, as alleged by himself and generally understood, to see his relatives, but charged with illegally crossing the lines and with being a spy, was yesterday, by order from Washington, relieved from trial and required to be held for exchange as a regular prisoner of war. He left in the afternoon under guard for Elmira, New York. Charles J. M. Gwinn and Jno. Wills, Esqs., were his counsel.

City Retail Markets.—The markets during the past week have been well supplied with all articles, fruit being particularly abundant and of fine quality. Prices have varied but little, the following being the rates generally demanded yesterday: Hams, best quality, 35 cents per pound; beef 25 cents, mutton 20 cents; veal 20 cents; tomatoes 75 cents to $1 per bushel; new potatoes 80 cents per bushel; cabbages 50 cents a head; eggs 25 cents per dozen. Fair sized chickens brought $1 per pair, and white perch 50 cents for a small bunch. Peaches continue very plentiful, but the best quality could not be obtained for less than $1 per peck, although an inferior article was selling a much lower rates.

Western Maryland Telegraph Company.—The board of directors of this company, at their last meeting, received the first annual report from Mr. J. N. Worl, the late president, from which it appears that there is a very flattering prospect that the entire line will be completed at an early day. Mr. Worl was appointed an agent to solicit subscriptions to the stock of the company, with a view to the extension of the line. Mr. Wm. Callow, of this city, is at present the president of the company, and Messrs. John Lee Chapman, John R. Cox, Geo. S. Reese, H. H. Wainwright, Esqs., of Baltimore, and John Smith, Esq., of Carroll county, directors.

Miraculous Escape.—Yesterday morning, about 10 o'clock, a little boy, aged three and a half years, son of Mr. Frederick Hempell, in Frederick street, whilst balancing himself on the railing of the verandah of his father's residence, lost his balance, and fell to the pavement, a distance of at least twenty-five feet. He was quickly picked up and taken into the house, where Dr. Liebman, the family physician, attended him. His head was severely cut, and the skull slightly fractured; but it is supposed he will recover. Parents should be very careful how they leave children of a tender age alone, as accidents similar to the above have been quite frequent of late.

The City Council.—Both branches of the City Council met yesterday afternoon, but there was no quorum in either. The Council was called to meet in extra session, by the Mayor, on Wednesday, and several of the members being absent in the country, whilst several others are members of the Constitutional Convention, it has been impossible so far to get a quorum. Having been called together it is now necessary to get a constitutional number of members to adjourn, and until this is done the session may be drawn out to a very indefinite period. About 5 o'clock those members present, together with the Mayor and other city functionaries, left the hall in carriages to attend the funeral of Mr. Streeter.

The Draft in Baltimore County.—The residents of the ninth district of Baltimore county are making vigorous efforts to fill up their quota in the next draft. A subscription is being made for the purpose of procuring recruits, and many have already contributed to the fund. In addition to this, a new and correct enrollment of those liable to the next draft is nearly completed, which will considerably reduce the quota based on the present list, which contains the names of a large number not liable on account of change of residence alienage, &c., and of many who, attracted by the bounties, have been enlisted in and credited to the city.

Run Over.—About noon yesterday a wagon, loaded with two tons of hay, run over a middle-aged lady named Mary Corroll, residing at 55 Monument street. The accident occurred at the corner of York avenue and Monument street, and the driver was immediately arrested and taken before Justice McKinley, who released him on security for a further examination. Officers Wood and Taylor conveyed the injured lady to her residence, where she was found to have been considerably bruised and the heel of one foot severely mashed. Dr. Andrews was promptly on hand and dressed her wounds.

The General Conference of the Colored Methodist Protestant Church.—This body assembled yesterday, President Scott in the chair. After prayer by the Rev. Benson, the subject of the revision of the book of discipline was taken up, and occupied the day's session. Rev. John Addison was introduced to the Conference, after which the body adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

Serious Charge.—Captain Lynch, of the eastern police, on Thursday night arrested a man named Christian Kohler on the charge of attempting to commit a rape upon the person of Christiana Myers, residing on South Bond street. Justice Duncan, after an examination into the circumstances, held the accused to bail to answer the charge at court.

Sale of Real Estate.—Samuel H. Gover, auctioneer, yesterday sold the property known as the Eastern Hotel, situated on lot No. 48 Centre Market space. The house is four stories, with a four-story back buildings—twenty-five feet front and sixty feet deep, with all the modern improvements; ground rent one cent. Sold for $5,900; purchaser P. Flemming.

Surrendered Himself.—Wm. Fowler, charged with defrauding sailors out of their bounty money, gave himself up at the provost marshal's office yesterday. He was locked up for trial. Fowler was arrested some time since on a similar charge, and was released on returning the sailors their money.

Released.—G. V. Riley, arrested several days since, charged with violating the oath of allegiance, which he had previously subscribed to, was released yesterday. Christian Setz, arrested on the 10th of August, charged with dealing in government horses, was released yesterday.

Alleged Assault.—John Bowersox was arrested yesterday by policeman Slaughter, upon the charge of assaulting, with intent to kill, Robert Douglas. Justice G. W. Showacre released the accused on bail, to appear at a further examination on the 8th of September next.

Death at the Jail.—Charles Wise, committed to jail on Wednesday last for two months as a vagrant, died at that institution yesterday morning. Coroner Brewer held an inquest on the body, and a verdict was rendered of death from general prostration by disease.

Fatal Result.—Mr. Albert Underwood, who was so severely injured by scalding at the rolling mill, Canton, a few days since, died at his residence, No. 55 Burke street, on Thursday, from the effects. He leaves a wife and several children.

Attempt to Rescue a Prisoner.—Levi and W. R. Weaver were arrested yesterday, charged with attempting to rescue a rebel soldier from the custody of a detective. The accused parties were locked up in the military prison to await trial.

Charitable Bequest.—The will of Anna White, admitted to probate yesterday in the Orphans' Court, bequeaths $100 to the Orphan's Home, one of the most deserving charities of our city.

Edward Comegy, indicted for selling liquor without license, was brought into court and pleaded "not guilty;" R. J. Gittings, Esq., counsel for defence.

There being no further business ready for trial, the court after trasacting some business of minor importance, discharged the jury until Monday morning at 10 o'clock and adjourned the court until to-morning at 10 clock, when it will sit in equity. W. B. K.

EMPLOYMENT OF SLAVES.—The Secretary of War has ordered that all slaves who are brought to the several recruiting rendezvous in the several States, and found physically disqualified for military service, and who do not desire to return to their masters, but seek military protection, shall not be rejected, but enlisted and mustered into the United States service, with a view to transfer to the Quartermaster's Department. Quartermasters are also ordered not to forward the men until they are properly transfered by order of the War Department.—N. Y. Tribune.

A NEW PLAN FOR FILLING A QUOTA.—The people of the Eighth district, New York, have adopted the plan for filling their quota with which the Boston people were so successful. A company has been formed, who have chartered a steamer to go to Germany for men, who will be enlisted on their arrival, and credited to that district. They expect to have a cargo of such recruits in time to apply on the draft which is ordered to take place on the 5th proximo.

THE SUN.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 27, 1864.

THE WAR NEWS.—The intelligence received from Gen. Sheridan's army is of an interesting character. A considerable portion of Earley's forces are reported to have broken camp at Charlestown, on Thursday morning, and marched in the direction of Leetown, on the road towards Martinsburg. A detachment of Union cavalry was sent out to ascertain the design of this movement, and encountered their line of skirmishers about a mile beyond Kearneysville, when a spirited engagement took place. The Union troops are said to have lost in it a few killed and wounded and to have taken a number of prisoners. After four o'clock in the afternoon firing again broke out in the direction of Kearneysville, and at latest advices the fight was still in progress. A rumor was current in Washington yesterday that a portion of the rebel army had crossed the Potomac above Harper's Ferry.

From the Army of the Potomac the latest advices are up to Wednesday night, when everything was reported to be quiet, with the exception of cannonading on the right in front of the Eighteenth Corps, which had been going on for several hours. On the left the Union line has been extended a distance of about seven miles over the Weldon railroad. In the battles of Friday and Sunday the losses of the Fifth Corps are now computed at about 5,000 in killed, wounded and missing.

And youth flies on as fast as fleeting hours.
The master and pupil. Oh Youth, Youth, is there a spell to bring thee back again? The Demon appears at his bidding. The Doctor's demands. The conditions. The Vision of Marguerite. Transformation from age to youth, and Faust's contract with Lucifer is complete. Street and Wine House. The Carrousers. Parting of Brother and Sister.
Song and Chorus
"No saucier set of scamps, I ween,
Than German Students ever were seen."

I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended to those Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully, as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, and is "not a rum drink."
Yours, truly, LEVI G. BECK.

LOOK AT THAT LADY!
LOOK AT THAT LADY!
Once beautiful and blooming as the rose—now how pallid! her whole complexion tinged with yellow, like the seer leaf of autumn, and her "sun is even going down while it is yet day!" Let her but try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, and she will wonder at the mighty change; that after all the other medicines so freely taken, none could reach her case but this pleasant balm from Nature's garden.
If you are sick why delay until your disease becomes incurable, and then have to lament when it is too late? Thousands who die prematurely might have been saved by Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. Why go languishing and drooping, debilitated and broken down, life a burden, with a desire to avoid your best friends, when one bottle of

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS.
BALTIMORE, Aug. 26, 1864.

At a special meeting of the Twelfth Ward held on Wednesday, the 24th instant, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas It has pleased an allwise Providence to remove from the scene of his earthly labors, our friend and fellow-citizen, SEBASTIAN F. STREETER; and

Whereas In his mortal life he was remarkable for a public spirit, patriotism and philanthrophy, claiming the admiration and praise of those who survive him; therefore, be it in special meeting convened of the Board of Commissioners of Public Schools,

Resolved, That in the death of SEBASTIAN F. STREETER, this community has lost one of its most useful and valuable members, distinguished for his exemplary conduct in the walk of private and social life, and for a beneficent and influential activity in the public service of his adopted city, alike a good man and a good citizen.

Resolved, That the State and the nation have lost a prompt and firm adherent of their interests, ready on all occasions to encounter toil and self sacrifice for their welfare; devoting himself with unwearying effort to the support of the Government of his country and the maintenance of her institutions; while he gave a strong and diligent aid to the sanitary measures of the times, by a rare devotion in ministering to the relief and comfort of the wayworn, sick and wounded soldiers.

Resolved, That the members of the Board feel that they have met with a severe loss in the removal of the deceased, who was ever an intelligent and earnest friend of public instruction, and in his office of chairman of the Committee of Education of the City Council, an active co-operator in the labors of this Board.

Resolved, That we deeply deplore his death, and would offer our sincere sympathy to his family, who, while they mourn his loss, will have an abiding consolation in the memory of his worth and usefulness.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, and be published in the newspapers; and that the members of this Board will attend the funeral in a body. By order of the Board.

NEW SKIRTS FOR 1864.
A NEW AND GREAT INVENTION IN HOOP SKIRTS.
THE DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE) STEEL SPRING.
J. I. & J. O. WEST, No. 97 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK,
Are the owners of the Patent, and exclusive manufacturers of this
J. W. BRADLEY'S
PATENTED DUPLEX ELLIPTIC STEEL SPRING SKIRTS.
This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most elastic, flexible and durable spring ever used, enabling the wearer, in consequence of its great elasticity and flexibleness, to place and fold the Skirt when in use as easily and with the same convenience as a silk or muslin dress. It entirely obviates and silences the only objections to Hoop Skirts, viz: the annoyance to the wearer as well as the public, especially in crowded assemblies, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, or in any crowded place, from the difficulty of contracting them to occupying a small space. This entirely removes the difficulty, while giving the Skirt the usual full and symmetrical form, and is the lightest, and most stylish and graceful appearance for the street, opera, promenade, or house dress. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterward willingly dispense with the use of them. They are the best quality in every part, and by far the lightest, most durable, comfortable and economical Skirt made.
Merchants will be supplied as above, and ladies in the most first-class retail stores in this city and throughout the different States, inquire for the TERMS.—Terms of sale are, $2,500 cash on the day of sale, and the residue in three equal instalments in two, four and six years from the 1st day of January next, with interest from said time annually on the unpaid principal until the whole is paid; to be secured by the bond of the purchaser, with two or more securities, to be approved by the trustee. THE SUN.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 27, 1864.

[Reported for the Baltimore Sun.]

Maryland Constitutional Convention.

ANNAPOLIS, August 26.

Present Hon. H. H. Goldsborough, president, and 72 members.

The Judiciary Department.—The Convention resumed the consideration of the report of the committee on the judiciary department.

The Orphans' Courts.—The substitute offered by Mr. Ridgely for section 25th, was adopted —yeas 43, nays 28.

Section 25. The said Orphans s Courts shall have all the powers now vested by law in the Orphans' Courts of this State, subject to such changes as the General Assembly may prescribe, and shall have such other jurisdiction as may from time to time be provided by law.

This rejects the proposition adopted yesterday giving certain equity powers to the Orphans' Courts.

The Registers of Wills.—Section 26th, providing for the election of Registers of Wills at the general election for county officers, for six years, as in the present constitution, was adopted.

Apprenticeship of Emancipated Minor Slaves.—Mr. Todd offered the following as an additional section, which, after the accepting himself of several amendments, reads as follows:

"Sec. —. It shall be the duty of the Orphans' Court of the several counties and the city of Baltimore, to bind out until they are 21 years for males, and 18 for females, all negroes emancipated by the adoption of this constitution, who are minors, and incapable of supporting themselves, and whose parents are unable to maintain them, subject to such regulations as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law; and in all cases the preference shall be given to their former masters, when in the judgment of the said courts they are suitable persons to have charge of them."

An amendment offered by Mr. Stockbridge requiring the masters of said apprentices to have them taught to read and write, or forfeit said indentures, &c., was rejected—ayes 31, nays 39.

The subject was discussed at length and with much animation, and some excitement, by Messrs. Todd, Purnell, Pugh, Stirling, Stockbridge, Daniel, Schley, Cushing, Sands and others, when the call for the previous question was sustained.

The section offered by Mr. Todd as amended, was then adopted—the first put down to the word "law," by ayes 51, nays 20, and the remainder of the section by ayes 45, nays 27.

The Convention adjourned until 8 o'clock, P. M.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.

Pardon and Commutation of Sentence—Execution of a Spy in the Yard of the Old Capitol Prison—Scenes on the Scaffold—Young Men's Christian Association—Gen. Butler—Sentence of Deserters—The Late Affray at Beltsville—Georgetown and Alexandria Affairs, &c.

An afternoon paper here, The Republican, states that of four persons sentenced to be hung at Baltimore on Monday next, the President has commuted the sentence of "three," and it is understood pardoned the other one. The latter is a young man named Rogers, of Baltimore. They were all tried by military commission, but in the case of the latter it is said the President is now satisfied he should not have been convicted, under the evidence.

There was an execution in the yard of the Old Capitol prison this morning, at about quarter to 12 o'clock—the victim being Chas. Fenton Beavers, who was tried before a court-martial in this city, of which Col. G. W. Cartright was president, on the charge of being a spy and violating his oath of allegiance. He was acquitted of the first charge, but found guilty of the second, and sentenced to be hanged by the neck until dead. Beaver belonged to Moseby's cavalry, and in February last came into our lines and gave himself up as a deserter, taking the oath of allegiance. On being discharged from prison, he desired Wm. P. Wood, superintendent at the Old Capitol, to procure him a pass to go home to Virginia, but that gentleman advised him against returning among his old companions. He then remained inside the Union lines until the 10th of March, 1864, when he was missing. On the 3d day of June last he was captured, together with other rebels, at that time being again in Moseby's service. He was arraigned before the court-martial on the 20th of July, and plead "not guilty." The court, after a mature and full consideration of the evidence, found Beavers guilty as above stated, and sentenced him to be hung, at such time and place as the President should direct.

Beavers having been made aware of his fate, yesterday called the Rev. O. B. Pitcher, missionary of the Young Mens' Christian Association, as his spiritual adviser, who was with him the most of last night and during his final hours this morning. A guard of the Veteran Reserves was placed in the vicinity of the scaffold, and Col. Ingraham, the provost marshal, was in attendance.—Beavers came forth at the appointed time with a steady step, leaning on the arm of a friend, a fellow-prisoner, with large numbers of other rebel prisoners looking on from the windows.

Having mounted the scaffold, his limbs were tied and the rope adjusted. Mr. Pitcher entered upon religious exercises, the prisoner in the meantime, at intervals, looking about him "upon the last of earth." Finally, having taken leave of his step-father and step-brother, (named Hatton,) who are also in prison, and who were allowed to be with him at this last hour, and also requested of Mr. Wood that he would send his body to his mother, near Dranesville, Va., and shaken hands with all on the scaffold, the cap was drawn over his face, and calling out, "Good bye to all," the trap fell, and his body hung suspended by the fatal cord.

Some movements of the muscles and limbs afterwards indicated suffering, and it was 20 minutes or so before the prison surgeon pronounced life entirely extinct. It was found, however, that the neck had been dislocated. Beavers was a young man of athletic frame, about five feet ten inches in height, and only about 21 years of age. At one point during the proceedings, when turning towards the prison windows, he admonished those looking therefrom to let what they then saw be a warning to them.

The Young Men's Christian Association of this city, which has been in existence for over ten years, and has done so much since the war commenced in connection with the benevolent and moral enterprises for the benefit of the army, and having been granted a charter at the last session of Congress, it appears is now in the hands of a responsible board of trustees, and proposes to erect a spacious building as will afford the conveniences of a lecture hall, library, reading room, &c. The situation is designed to be central so as to afford a well appointed lecture hall for general public use. Several thousand dollars have already been subscribed for this important and worthy object, and as soon as $20,000 has been secured the work will go on.

Miles and Annie Johnson, who were found guilty of aiding soldiers to desert, and furnishing them with citizen's clothes, a few days ago, will be sent under proper guard to the penitentiary at Albany, N. Y., to serve out their term of service.

One hundred and fourteen more rebel officers are to be sent from the Old Capitol to Fort Delaware, and three hundred and fifty-seven rebel privates will be sent to Elmira, N. Y.

It appears by a statement of Captain Wm. L Van Derlips, of the 14th Veteran Reserve Corps, that the member of the guard (Porter) at Beltsville, who shot dead the soldier on the train of deserters, stragglers, substitutes, etc., for taunting and throwing at the reserve guard, was not killed in turn by the soldiers who got off the cars. They caught and beat him murderously, but he was rescued by Capt. D. and another officer, who carried him off and turned him over to the provost marshal of the Sixth Corps, at Harper's Ferry. The man shot was Joseph McLofiin, Eleventh Vermont Heavy Artillery.

Major General Butler and several of his staff arrived up in the steamer Greyhound this noon. Surgeon McCormick, medical director, was with the party. Gen. Butler is on his way north to visit his home for a brief period. He had an interview with Secretary Stanton this afternoon.

Four soldiers, of different regiments—Reuben Hagan, 148th Pennsylvania; John J. Skinner, 3d Pennsylvania cavalry; Isaac M. Quimley, 20th Illinois, and Amos E. Stanley, tried and convicted of desertion and reinlistment in another regiment, have been sentenced to be dismissed the service of the United States, and be confined at hard labor in Fort Delaware for a period of three years. In addition Quimley is to have a 25-pound ball and chain attached to him during one year of his imprisonment.

An association has been started here for securing the exemption from the draft of each member paying $100 into a common fund.

At Georgetown, some 300 stragglers, deserters and bounty jumpers have been forwarded from Forest Hall prison, in the past two or three days, to Alexandria, to be disposed of by Col. Wells, at Camp Distribution.

A message was received to-day from Lieut. Henry E. Alvord, provost marshal of Fort Ethan Allen, Va., at the station-house, to arrest Frank Brown, of Darnes's livery stable, on a charge of smuggling liquor across the Chain bridge and selling it to soldiers. Accordingly he was arrested and detained until the arrival of the provost guard.

At Alexandria the jail on the 24th inst. contained 414 occupants, mostly deserters. The very large number of contrabands who have located in shanties, comprising villages, on the suburbs of Alexandria, since the war, do not, as a general rule, fraternize with the colored population "native and to the manor born." The inhabitants of these new and strange villages are generally orderly, but the old residents look on and wish they had selected other locations. POTOMAC.

Affairs at Annapolis, Md.

ANNAPOLIS, August 25, 1864.

The committee heretofore appointed by the corporation of this city to attend to a revision of the enrollment, having completed the same, appeared yesterday before Colonel John C. Holland, the provost marshal of the fifth congressional district, at Ellicott's Mills, and had a very agreeable and satisfactory interview with that officer, and succeeded in procuring a reduction of about one half on the former enrollment. They were informed that, as a general rule, applications for exemption upon the ground of alienage or unsuitableness of age, must be made in person by the party seeking exemption. Where a party enrolled is so disabled that he cannot appear before the board, a certificate of a respectable physician, with affidavits of identity, etc., by other persons, will suffice; so, also, in regard to a lunatic.

The residence of ex-Governor Thomas G. Pratt, on the corner of Tabernacle and King George streets, was sold some days since at private sale for fifteen thousand dollars.—Judge John Thomson Mason, purchaser. Governor Pratt contemplates, I am informed, removing to your city.

The provost guard, under command of Captain Hunt, made a descent, on Tuesday, on the restaurants of Christian F. Johnson and George O'Malley, on Tabernacle street, and seized and emptied a large quantity of the "ardent." M.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

There was only a moderate amount of business transacted at the stock board yesterday. Gold advanced 1¼ per cent on the sales of Thursday, selling at 255a255½. United States 5-20 bonds sold at 112½a112¾, an advance of ⅛ per cent on sales of previous day. For Certificates of Indebtedness 94¾ bid, a decline of ⅛ per cent on last sales; and for United States 6's 1881 the bid was 109, without transactions. There was some inquiry for State loans, but no sales. Maryland inscribed 6's 1890 closed at 112 bid, 116 asked; Missouri 6's 68 bid, 71 asked; and North Carolina 6's 60 bid, 62 asked. City 6's 1875 and 1890 brought 115¼ each, no change. Transactions in Railway bonds were confined exclusively to the sale of Nor. Central 1885's at 105; the others closed at about previous rates. A lot of City Pas. R shares changed hands at 21½. No disposition to speculate in the Mining fancies is manifested, and what few sales were realized show no fluctuation in prices.

The following were the quotations for Government securities and domestic exchange in this city yesterday: United States 6s 1881, 109¾a110; United States 5-20s 112½a113; 7-30 Treasury Notes 111a112; One-year Certificates 95a95½. DR. JOHNSTON, BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL,
OFFICE No. 7 SOUTH FREDERICK ST.,
THE ONLY PHYSICIAN ADVERTISING,
Has discovered the most Certain, Speedy and Effectual Remedy in the World for DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE,
Relief in Six Hours! No Trifling!
Persons Ruined by Improper Pretenders,
Or that Deadly Poison Mercury,
Should Apply Immediately.
A CURE WARRANTED, OR NO CHARGE,
FROM ONE TO TWO DAYS.
Weakness of the Back, Involuntary Discharges, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsy, Langour, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those Terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—those SECRET and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the mariners of Elyssus, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.
YOUNG MEN
Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talent and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.
TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.
MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c.
MARRIAGE.
Married Persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, Organic Debility, Wasting of the Organs, Deformity, &c., should apply immediately.
He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.
ORGANIC WEAKNESS,
IMPOTENCY,
IMPEDIMENTS TO MARRIAGE.
By Dr. Johnston's marvellous treatment, weakness of the organs is speedily cured and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most nervous, debilitated and impotent, who had lost all hope, have been immediately relieved.
All impediments to Marriage, Physical or Mental Disqualifications, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Trembling and Weakness, or Exhaustion of the most fearful kind, speedily cured.
DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, be alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.
YOUNG MEN
who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.
What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country and darling of his parents, should be snatched from all the prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviation from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness; indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.
DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.
When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education or respectability, can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, filch his pecuniary substance, keep him trifling month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health, to sigh over his galling disappointment; or, by the use of that deadly poison, Mercury, hasten the constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as Affections of the Head, Throat, Nose, Skin, etc., progressing with frightful rapidity until death puts an end to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to that undiscovered country from whose borne no traveler returns.
