

Judge Wins 57th Election

The Washington Post, Times Herald (1959-1973); Sep 27, 1961;
ProQuest Historical Newspapers The Washington Post (1877 - 1993)
pg. B3

Judge Wins 57th Election

Judge Alan Bowie was re-elected to his 57th term as secretary-treasurer of the Prince Georges County Bar Association yesterday.

Bowie, who is 80, helped form the bar association in 1904. He is a former County Trial Magistrate and County States Attorney.

Prince Georges County Circuit Court Judge William B. Bowie was elected president. Del. Hervey Machen (D-Prince Georges) was elected vice president.