I DO acknowledge, that in the Year 1762, an Account Current was shewn to me from Mr. Thomas Philpot, of London, Merchant, against James Elliott; wherein an Article was charged, dated 5th Feb. 1761, to Bill 18th Sept. to William Woodward for £. 3 : 14 : 0, which Article I did then deny to be just, and upon looking into my Books and Papers, could find no Memorandum of any such Bill, and did thereupon make Oath, that no such Bill had passed through my Hands; since which Time the Affair having been much talked of in the Neighbourhood, I have had Occasion to look further back, and do find a Bill for that Sum passed through my Hands in the Year 1759. How justly a Transaction of this Nature can be imputed to me as a Fault, I leave the Impartial to consider, there appearing a manifest Difference in the Dates of the Bills, of no less than two Years; as likewise a Difference between the Oath taken by me and the Printed Advertisements set up by Mr. Forster, who has declared in that, my Denial of ever having received such Bill as is therein mentioned: The Oath taken before Mr. Couden, and which is annexed, will plainly convince every One of the Truth of what I have advanced.

WILLIAM WOODWARD.

Anne-Arundel County, August 24*th*, 1763. } CAME Wm. Woodward before the Subscriber one of his Lordship's Justices of the Peace for the County aforesaid, and made Oath on the Holy Evangels of Almighty GOD, that the Bill of Exchange Charged to James Elliott in the within Account and said to be Drawn to him this Deponent the 18*th* Sept. 1761, for Three Pounds Fourteen Shillings Sterling, he does not remember any Thing of; and saith, that at that Time he never had any Bill of Exchange from James Elliott, as charged in the within Account, to the best of his Knowledge, Remembrance, and Belief. Sworn before
