ſtrating the reaſon of ſuch demand, and which are intended to eſtabliſh the aggreſſion. Thoſe his majeſty has weighed with that ſcrupulous attention he owes to his Swediſh majeſty, that reſpect demanded by his own duty, his love of peace, and, in fine, all thoſe principles which he has manifeſted from the commencement of his reign. He has perceived the evident juſtice of the charges, and as he muſt attend with due fidelity to ancient and inviolable engagements and good faith, the ſacred law of all kings, he declares that it is the conduct of his majeſty the king of Sweden which has determined him. He regrets this the more, as he has neglected no means in his power to prevent it, and has not ceaſed to endeavour to preſerve the friendſhip and be in perfect harmony with his majeſty. His Daniſh majeſty, however, at the ſame time declares, that in conſequence of defenſive treaties, and the ſtipulations thereof, he yields for the preſent to the free diſpoſition of the empreſs of Ruſſia, his auguſt ally, a part of his ſhips of war and troops, which he will begin to equip. His majeſty adds to this declaration a ſolemn aſſurance, that he entertains no other deſign or deſire than the re-eſtabliſhment of a ſolid and durable peace, and that this ſtep may contribute thereto on his part; the moment he ſees his wiſhes accomplished in this reſpect, will be as precious to him as that has been diſagreeable and painful in which peace has been interrupted."

The above is ſigned by the Daniſh miniſter, and dated at Copenhagen the 19th ult.

Though Denmark has acceded to the demands of Ruſſia, it would ſeem ſhe wiſhes to be conſidered and remain neutral in the diſpute. If the declarations, however, ſaid to be made by the king of Pruſſia, of joining Sweden in caſe Denmark ſhould aſſiſt the empreſs, are founded, the logic of Denmark will hardly be underſtood at Berlin, and ſtill leſs admitted at Stockholm.

WINCHESTER, November 26.

A traveller, who paſſed through this town on Saturday laſt, imforms of a boat lately going down the Ohio, in which were a number of ſettlers, deſtined for the remote regions of Kentucky, having been attacked by a party of Indians.—The only particulars we have been able to collect, or that he was able to give, relative to this diſaſter are, that a man and his wife were killed by the ſavages.

4 X THOMAS HARWOOD.

Patowmack, November 29, 1788.

HAVING ſuſtained conſiderable damage from people hunting, and, under frivilous pretexts going on my land, I hereby give this public notice, to forewarn all perſons from ſuch treſpaſſes in future, as I am determined to proſecute all ſuch offenders.

I have to rent, the ferry oppoſite to Alexandria, lately occupied by Mr. Lowe, with the houſe and ground annexed to it.

3 X SUSANNAH T. HAWKINS.

Port-Tobacco, September 19, 1788.

RAN away from the ſubſcriber, a Man Slave named GEORGE, a dark mulatto, about ſix feet high, ſlender made, with large and long arms, he has loſt one of his fore teeth, and has ſeveral remarkable ſcars on his face and neck, occaſioned by being ſeverely wounded with a knife by a fellow who attempted to murder him ſome time ago, one of theſe ſcars is below his under lip, another from the upper part of his right cheek acroſs his neck, and two others acroſs the back part of his neck, which have left marks reſembling thoſe frequently ſeen on Africans; he had on and took with him an oſnabrig coat and overalls, London brown ſuperfine broad cloth coat, a white linen jacket, two ſtriped jackets, a pair of yellow laſting breeches, white and brown thread ſtockings, white and brown linen ſhirts, new ſhoes and metal buckles. Whoever apprehends and delivers the ſaid ſlave to me at this place, ſhall receive TWELVE DOLLARS REWARD, including therein all charges whatever.

12 J. H. STONE.

THERE is at the plantation of HENRY W. DORSEY, living on Elk-Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, taken up as a ſtray, a ſorrel GELDING, about fourteen hands high, five or ſix years old, has a blaze down his forehead, four white feet, no perceivable brand, is ſhod before, and trots and gallops. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges. 3 X w 3

By the COMMITTEE of GRIEVANCES and COURTS of JUSTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the committee of grievances and courts of juſtice will ſit every day during the preſent ſeſſion, from nine o'clock in the morning, until three in the afternoon.

By order
6 X JOHN KNAPP, Clk.

Charles county, November 22, 1788.

A DAKK mulatto man, about thirty-five years old, was committed to my cuſtody the 27th ult. he is a fat well looking fellow, appears to be ſenſible, and is about five feet ten inches high; has on a blue country cotten jacket, crocus trouſers, felt hat, and oſnabrig ſhirt; he ſays his name is EDWARD PROCTOR, that he made his eſcape four or five weeks ago, and that he is the property of Mr. Bernard O'Neil, of George-town. The owner of the above deſcribed mulatto is deſired to prove property, pay charges and take him away.

X THOMAS A. DYSON, ſheriff.

November 19, 1788.

I HEREBY give notice, that I will proſecute all ſuch as I may find hunting with either dog or gun on the plantation I now occupy, commonly called GREENBURY's POINT. I do likewiſe forewarn all watermen and others to land on ſaid plantation, or any part thereof, under any pretence whatever. Such as do not pay regard to this notice may be aſſured I will deal with them as rigorouſly as the law will admit.

WILLIAM CAMPBELL.

N. B. It has been with extreme reluctance that the above notice has been given, but I have lately detected ſo many ſtealing my rails under pretence of being in ſearch of drift-wood, and have had ſuch cauſe to ſuſpect hunters of injuring my ſtock, as well as committing the ſame offence, that my intereſt has been too much at ſtake to forbear it any longer. X W. C.

October 30, 1788.

To be RENTED, and poſſeſſion given the firſt day of December next,

THE houſe or tenement at preſent occupied by Mr. Thomas Rutland, junior, on the head of South-river. For terms apply to the ſubſcriber.

X JOSEPH HOWARD, Jun.

I HEREBY give notice, that I will proſecute all ſuch as I may find hunting, with either dog or gun, on the plantation of the late ROBERT DAVIDG, deceaſed. X JOSHUA YATES.
