Inſpection Houſe for Tobacco.

THIS is to give public notice, that the inſpection houſe for tobacco, at Beard's Point, on South er, in Anne-Arundel county, is now in readineſs to ceive tobacco for inſpection; and, from the large antity of that article made in the neighbourhood of uth river aforeſaid, it is expected that a conſiderable mber of hogſheads will be brought to this houſe ring the preſent ſummer for inſpection, and, from ſuperior quality, it is preſumed all perſons wiſhing become purchaſers of tobacco may be well accom-dated, and that upon good terms.

It is thought unneceſſary to expatiate on the many vantages of this warehouſe, as it is ſo well known be ſituated on a beautiful and navigable river, and t more than ten miles diſtant from the bay; it is ala well known fact, that the tobacco raiſed in that rt of Anne-Arundel county is preciſely the ſame in uality as the tobacco heretofore inſpected at Taylor's nding on Patuxent, which has always been found to r the European markets as well, if not better, than bacco of the growth of any other part of Mary-nd.
