NOTICE.

I ſhall expoſe to SALE, on MONDAY the 15th day of October next, if fair, if not on the firſt fair day, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at Mr. TOWSON's Tavern, in Baltimore county, about ſix miles from Baltimore town, the following property, to wit:

LOT No. 1, containing by ſurvey 189 acres of land; formerly the property of Daniel Dulany, ſon of Walter, purchaſed by Mr. George Fitzhugh, and from which purchaſe he has been lately releaſed by the Governor and Council, under the act, entitled, An act to appoint an agent for the year 1792, and for other purpoſes.

LOTS No. 3, 4, 1, 12, 1, 2, 3, and half of one other LOT, No. 3, the whole containing by ſurvey, 683¾ acres of land; formerly the property of Daniel Dulany, of Walter, purchaſed by doctor Horatio Belt, and releaſed therefrom as above.

One hundred and ſeventy-five acres of land, in Baltimore county, called James's Park, formerly the property of the Principio Company, purchaſed by James Hughes, and releaſed therefrom as above.

LOT No. 2, containing 270 acres of land; formerly the property of Hyde's heirs, purchaſed by Nicholas Britton, and releaſed therefrom as above.

One LOT of LAND, containing 330 acres, formerly the property of the Nottingham Company; purchaſed by Daniel Bowly, Eſquire, and releaſed therefrom.

LOT No. 8, containing 125 acres of land, formerly the property of the Principio Company; purchaſed by Richard Coale, and releaſed therefrom as above.

LOTS No. 19 and 28, in My Lady's Manor; purchaſed by James Smith and James M'Fadon, containing 127 acres of land, and releaſed as above.

And on TUESDAY the 16th day of October next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at Mr. Daniel Grant's In Baltimore-town, I ſhall expoſe to SALE, The WHARF and WAREHOUSES on Fell's Point, formerly the property of the Meſſrs. Chriſtie; purchaſed by Charles Wells and Aquila Johns, and releaſed from the ſaid purchaſe: Alſo ſundry LOTS in Baltimore-town, and on Whetſtone Point.

And on SATURDAY the 20th of October next, at Mr. George Mann's, in the city of Annapolis, two HOUSES and LOTS in the ſaid city, one on Cornhill-ſtreet, the other adjoining the Ball Room, formerly the Revenue-office.

And on SATURDAY the 27th day of October next, at Mrs. Kemboll's Tavern, in Frederick-town, at 12 o'clock, I ſhall expoſe to SALE, the following property, to wit:

LOTS No. 55 and 64, containing about 200 acres of land, in the Manocacy Manor; purchaſed by major John Davidſon, and releaſed therefrom by a decree in Chancery.

LOT No. 41, containing 133¾ acres of land, in Manocacy Manor; purchaſed by major Alexander Trueman, and releaſed from his purchaſe, by the Governor and Council.

One third part of LOT No. 59, containing 157 acres of land, in Manocacy Manor; purchaſed by William Pendergaſt, and releaſed therefrom by the Governor and Council. Alſo ſundry other LOTS in, and near Frederick-town.

The whole of the above property will be ſold on a credit of four years from the firſt day of December next; one fourth payable annually in the following manner, viz. Two thirds of the principal in ſpecie, or depreciation or other liquidated ſtate certificates, or in ſtock created under the act of congreſs, bearing an immediate intereſt of ſix per cent. and the remaining one third in ſpecie, or in ſtock created under the ſaid act, bearing an intereſt of ſix per cent. after the year eighteen hundred, and the intereſt on the whole, in ſpecie only, on the firſt day of December, annually. Bonds, with approved ſecurity, will be required of the purchaſers.

RANDOLPH B. LATIMER, Agent, for the State of Maryland.

September 19th, 1792. 3

Will be SOLD, at PUBLIC or PRIVATE SALE, at the dwelling plantation of Mr. THOMAS LANE, November 23, 1792, if fair, if not on the firſt fair day,

A PARCEL of valuable NEGROES, conſiſting of Men, Women and Children, and a fellow that is a houſe carpenter, and can work at the blackſmith's trade.

On the twenty-ſixth, there will be SOLD, at the late dwelling plantation of Mrs. Mary Brooke, deceaſed, a parcel of good houſehold furniture, and many other things. All perſons that have any claims, againſt her eſtate, are deſired to bring them in that day. The terms of the ſale, will be known on that day. 3X

Caroline county, September 3, 1792.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the ſubſcriber intends to prefer a petition to the next general aſſembly of the ſtate of Maryland, to obtain an act to confirm his title to a tract of land, lying and being in Talbot county, called The ADDITION, which is claimed by him in virtue of a contract for the ſale thereof by JAMES DICKINSON, deceaſed, the attorney in fact of the late ANTHONY RICHARDSON, a Britiſh ſubject, to the father of the late ANDREW MEIN.

5 PETER EDMONDSON.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias, from the general court, to me directed, will be EXPOSED to PUBLIC SALE, on SATURDAY the fifth day of October next, on the premiſes for ready money,

A TRACT of LAND in Prince-George's county, called Stoney Fields, containing two hundred acres, late the property of Joſeph Selby, now in poſſeſſion of Rinaldo Johnſon, tenant of ſaid Joſeph Selby. Taken at the ſuit of John Clapham and William Eddis, for the uſe of Samuel Lane. The ſale to commence at ten o'clock in the forenoon.

3X WILLIAM D. BEALL, ſheriff of Prince-George's county.

September 12th, 1792.

To be SOLD, at PUBLIC SALE, in Upper Marlborough, on Thurſday the eighth day of November next, if fair, if not the firſt fair day,

TWENTY valuable NEGROES, conſiſting of MEN, WOMEN and CHILDREN, among them are a valuable blackſmith, a young woman who is a good cook, and the others, which are grown, are good plantation labourers. This property will be ſold on a credit of two and three years, the purchaſers to give bonds with approved ſecurity, the intereſt to be paid annually.

4 HANNAH WEST, Executrix of STEPHEN WEST, deceaſed.

Woodyard, Auguſt 28, 1792.

AN induſtrious Mechanic, capabale of teaching PSALMODY in its different parts, who is willing to act as clerk and ſexton to a PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH, and can come well recommended, will be informed of an eligible ſituation, by making himſelf known to the Printers of this Gazette. 3

Cambridge, September 10, 1792.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition will be preſented to the general aſſembly, at the next ſeſſion, to make the road leading from EASTON to AKERS's FERRY a public road down to the water, and to condemn a piece of land at the ſaid ferry for the purpoſe of a ferry houſe. 5

THE ſubſcriber hereby gives notice, that ſhe intends to prefer a petition to the general aſſembly at their next ſeſſion, praying that an act may paſs, to authoriſe her to ſell and diſpoſe of, in behalf of her children, the land on which ſhe now lives, which land was deviſed to her ſaid children, by her late deceaſed huſband, John Wallace.

3 JUDITH WALLACE.

Charles county, September 15th, 1792.

NOTICE is hereby given,

THAT the ſubſcriber intends to petition the general aſſembly, at their next ſeſſion, for an act to releaſe him from debts, which he is unable to pay.

WILLIAM STEPHEN COMPTON.

Waſhington county, September 25, 1792. 3

Notice is hereby given,

THAT the ſubſcriber intends to make application to the next ſeſſion of aſſembly for an act of inſolvency to releaſe him from debts which he is unable to pay.

JOSEPH WOOD.

Maryland, Frederick county, Frederick-Town Gaol, Aug. 29, 1792. 6

Anne-Arundel county, September 16, 1792.

THE ſubſcriber having conveyed all his property to truſtees, for the benefit of his creditors, and ſtill finding that there is reaſon to apprehend that the whole will be inſufficient to pay all claims againſt him, is conſtrained to give this public notice to his creditors, that he intends to prefer a petition to the general aſſembly, at their next ſeſſion, for an act of inſolvency in his favour.

4 W. WORTHINGTON.

NOTICE,

THAT I intend to prefer a petition to the next general aſſembly of Maryland to releaſe me from my embarraſſments, being unable to pay my juſt debts. 6

GIDEON CLARK.

George-Town, Kent county, Aug. 26, 1792.

I DO hereby, in obedience to the directions of the court, give notice, that a repreſentation of the ruinous ſituation of the public gaol of Kent county will be laid before the next general aſſembly, to the end, that a law may be paſſed, ſhould the ſame be thought neceſſary, for erecting a new one at the expence of ſaid county. By order of the court,

BEN. CHAMBERS, clk.

Kent county, July 29, 1792. 6

To be HIRED,

An excellent Woman Cook,

SHE is honeſt and induſtrious, and well qualified, from conſtant and conſiderable employment in her line of buſineſs, to manage the affairs of a kitchen.—She has one female child, who muſt be taken with her. Inquire of

THE PRINTERS.

September 6, 1792. 5

THE ſubſcriber intends petitioning the next general aſſembly of this ſtate, to be releaſed from his confinement in gaol.

GEORGE ROBERTSON.

Somerſet county, Maryland, September 16th, 1792. 3

NOTICE is hereby given to all whom it may concern, that I intend to petition the next general aſſembly of this ſtate, to confirm my right to part of a tract of land, late the property of JOHN and MARGARET SMITH, which was conveyed to me by JAMES SCOTT, lying in this county, and is part of a tract of land called NEW MONSTER.

JAMES COCHRAN.

Cæcil county, State of Maryland, September 7, 1792. 5

Maryland, Frederick county, Frederick-town, Auguſt 29, 1792.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the ſubſcriber intends to make application to the next ſeſſion of aſſembly for an act of inſolvency to releaſe him from debts which he is unable to pay.

5 GEORGE ADAMS.

I INTEND to preſer a petition to the general aſſembly of Maryland, at their next ſeſſion, to compenſate me for the real property of James Jones which was confiſcated and ſold.

JOHN ROBERTSON.

Auguſt 28, 1792. 6

To the Public.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to the general aſſembly of Maryland at its next ſeſſion, for an act to appropriate the ſchool land of Anne-Arundel county to the purpoſe of teaching reading, writing and arithmetic, to poor orphans, and other children of the ſaid county, whoſe neareſt relations are incapable of affording them the benefit of ſuch an education.

It is propoſed, that the ſaid land be ſold; that the money ariſing from the ſale be added to the money already raiſed by voluntary contribution, and by the late orphan ſchool lottery, and that the whole be vested in truſtees for carrying into effect the benevolent deſign, for which the ſaid lottery was inſtituted. See No. 2312 of the Maryland Gazette, publiſhed May 5, 1791.

Annapolis, July 9, 1792. 7

☞ NOTICE is hereby given,

THAT we intend to apply to the next ſeſſion of aſſembly, for an act to confirm the title to a moiety of part of two tracts or parcels of land lying in Queen-Anne's county, called St. MARTIN's and BRANFORD containing in the whole 152⅝ acres of land, which was heretofore ſold by a certain Walter Meeds to Griffin Fontleroy, and by him ſold to James Jones, deceaſed.

DEKAR THOMPSON, adminiſtrator of GRIFFIN FONTLEROY.
ISABEL JONES, widow of James,
JAMES WOOTERS and REBECCA his wife, and JAMES JONES, repreſentatives of the ſaid JAMES JONES, deceaſed.

0X

Calvert county, September 10, 1792.

THE ſubſcriber being unable to pay his debts gives notice, that he intends petitioning the general aſſembly of this ſtate, at their next meeting, to paſs an act of inſolvency in his favour.

5 GAVIN HAMILTON SMITH.

Charles county, September 4, 1792.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the ſubſcriber intends to petition the general aſſembly of Maryland, at their next ſeſſion, for an act to diſcharge him from debts which he is unable to pay.

5 EDWARD W. BOSWELL.

ON the ſecond Wedneſday in November next an election will be held, in the city of Annapolis, for ten electors for the purpoſe of chooſing a preſident and vice-preſident of the United States.

WILLIAM GOLDSMITH, Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county.

4

St. Mary's county, September 10, 1792.

WHEREAS a certain Elizabeth Jenifer purchaſed a tract of land, lying in St. Mary's county, called Papaw Fields, of the commiſſioners of confiſcated property, and the ſubſcriber afterwards intermarried with the ſaid Elizabeth, and at her particular deſire and conſent he exchanged the aforeſaid land with a certain Thomas Smoot, for which he gave bond for the conveyance of the ſame, and before the matter was ſettled the ſaid Elizabeth died, which put it out of his power to comply with his agreement. This is therefore to give notice, that the ſubſcriber intends to petition the next general aſſembly of Maryland for an act to authoriſe and empower him to convey the ſame agreeable to the tenor of his bond.

2 W. B. SMOOT.

ANNAPOLIS:
Printed by FREDERICK and SAMUEL GREEN.

(LVIII Xth YEAR.)

MARY

T

PARIS, August

S

EVERAL cauſes have wards the dethroning and completely eſtrang ons of the nation from Time, that ſooner or every thing, will pro hat the king has acted completely the rite. There is no doubt but himſelf, ome others of the royal family, had co ſteady correſpondence with the combi rance, and the national ſpirit was i uſed to dethrone him, and endeavour me ſolid plan of reſiſtance to the con rces. before it became too late. Th gainſt the king was, that he had intere reventing ſupplies being ſent to the ar eans he expected they would fall an e vaders, who were to replace him on t

Aug. 12.—" In the engagement on F e populace and the guards, there rem ut the Swiſs fired firſt, but not until th d upon in the moſt violent manner, a rcibly turned round, and planted agai M. d'Affry gave the order to fire. Th reſt and Marſeillois ruſhed forward, an utes there was a dreadful ſlaughter. reated to the palace, and kept a moſt e windows. The dead lay in heaps ere full of people armed and unarmed, eir fire deliberately into this multitude as dreadful. It did not, however, i ſailants. Seven pieces of cannon were huilleries and the Louvre. They ma e old walls in a ſhort time; but the om the place de Carouſal was irreſi roke in, and in a few minutes the multi lace; every Swiſs that came in their t numbers found temporary ſafety in t rrets, and were with difficulty ſaved f the people. I can give no perfect ac ad. From the number yet unburied, the Seine, or burnt; for a fire was ace de Carouſal, in which the furnitu y, &c. of the palace was conſumed, (an the wantonneſs of cruelty, many they knew to be gentlemen) were th ſe there were not fewer than 2500—f mber much higher—and others dimini all number indeed—but this will by rtained. The names I have heard are Affry, the abbe Bouillion, Carle, M he palace is completely diſmantled. ceſſively hot, and they regaled them g's wine: they brought it out in im s; and it was not uncommon to ſee n n, after their own draught, put the b outh of the dead lying in mangled he rit of furious ſport which they have a ed, crying, " Here, take your laſt dr the nation!"—The horrors of the day ribed to you in adequate language, for our career in July, 1789, was exceed M. Maudart, the commander of the n s arreſted going down the ſtair-caſe of Ville. He was ſeized by the people, b head fixed upon a pole and carried eets.

In about an hour from the commenc ack on the palace, not one Swiſs was l who ſurvived their colonel, and gen. nded quarters, but they were cond ce de Greve, and there put to death. ndred Marſeillois have fallen, and nea izens, among which were ſeveral wor n, whom curioſity had led towards ion.

All the Swiſs, above 500, were put t people carried the remnants of their ds of their pikes in triumph. The pa ace, near the place de Carouſal, were fire, as well as the Swiſs barracks. The maids of honour of the palace w the Section; the reſt of the perſons o to death. The wine cellars were alo e jewels, plate, &c. were brought to d depoſited in ſafety.

The attack at the palace began before Marſeilles officer appeared at the pri palace, and demanded entrance for banditti from a Swiſs officer who ere. The Swiſs replied, that his orde rmit him to comply. The Marſeilles o applied a piſtol to his breaſt, and ſhot heart.

M. Sulin, the queen's ſecretary, is li oſe whoſe heads were cut off in the pal Many of the women belonging to the me others, met an equally unfortunate d fled for ſafety, and had reached t