Mr. Andrews

BEGS leave to inform the Ladies and Gentlemen of Annapolis, that the much admired Comedy of "The ROAD TO RUIN," with the Farce of "The PRISONER AT LARGE: Or, The HUMOURS of KILLARNEY," are now in rehearſal, with all care and attention, for his benefit, and will be performed as ſoon as Mrs. Solomon and Mr. Godwin are able to appear.——Mr. ANDREWS, being a very young performer, and conſcious of his preſent inability, ſolicits a continuance of that indulgence which he has already experienced from the ſo juſtly diſtinguiſhed and judicious audience of Annapolis. 2 X

To be Sold,

ON MONDAY the 18th day of November next, if fair, if not on the firſt fair day, at Public Sale,

THE PLANTATION whereon the ſubſcriber dwells, containing about 200 acres. The ſale to be on the premiſes. The ſituation of this land, it being diſtant about twelve miles from the Federal City, and four from Upper-Marlborough—the fertility of the ſoil—the great proportion of valuable meadow-land—the abundance of wood and fine timber upon it, together with the improvements—will render it an object worthy the attention of any perſon inclinable to ſettle in this part of the country. There are upon the above land, valuable griſt and ſaw mills, lately erected.

At the ſame time and place, will be ſold, another tract of land containing about 230 acres. This tract adjoins that valuable plantation the property of Mr. Addiſon Murdock, deceaſed, and partakes much of its quality.—Alſo will be ſold, at ſame time and place, about 30 healthy country-born SLAVES, conſiſting of men, women and children, among whom are ſome good houſe ſervants, together with a variety of articles of houſehold and kitchen furniture, plantation utenſils, a good ſtock of horſes, black cattle, ſheep and hogs, and a large quantity of well cured hay.

The above property will be ſold upon a credit of two years, the purchaſer giving bond with approved ſecurity, to bear intereſt from the date. In caſes where the articles ſold may not exceed ten pounds, the money muſt be paid on the delivery.

THOMAS CLARK.

N. B. The ſubſcriber will ſell, at private ſale, a commodious STORE HOUSE, ſituated on the wharf in Upper-Marlborough.

Prince-George's county, October 10, 1793. 2
