

DR. BORDEN NAMED G. W. ALUMNI HEAD

Annual Meeting of General Association Is Held at Mayflower Hotel.

Dr. Daniel LeRay Borden, one of Washington's leading surgeons, was reelected president of the General Alumni Association of George Washington University at the annual meeting last night at the Mayflower Hotel.

Other officers elected for the coming year were: Vice presidents, Dr. John Howard Dellinger, Dr. Ella M. Enlows, Dr. Frederick A. Reuter, Mr. Ross Snyder, Mr. Ernest Ruebsam, Dr. Malcolm Gibbs, Miss May Paul Bradshaw, Dr. Robert McCullough, Mrs. Robert M. Stearns was reelected treasurer and Miss Marguerite McDonough, assistant treasurer.

Annual reports of officers were made, and reports were read from George Washington University alumni clubs in various cities, including San Francisco, Milwaukee, New York, Philadelphia, &c. Col. Howard W. Hodgkins, secretary of the George Washington University Alumni Club of Chicago, was present to present his report in person.

Dr. Cloyd Heck Marvin, president of the university, addressed the alumni, telling of his visits this year to various alumni groups throughout the country. Mrs. Joshua Evans, jr., and Mr. Stephen E. Kramer, members of the board of trustees, called upon to address the meeting expressed satisfaction with the progress which has been made by the university, despite recent times of stress.

A group of members of the Class of 1908, who attended the meeting, held a gathering immediately following to observe the twenty-fifth anniversary of their graduation. Included in this group were Mr. and Mrs. Justin F. Sellar, of Elizabethton, Tenn.; Mrs. Emma M. V. Triepel, and Dean and Mrs. William C. VanVleck.

Following the meeting, a reception and dance was held by the association in honor of the members of the graduating class who are to receive their diplomas next Wednesday.