SPAIN.

e papers, with one accord, speak of the rance of Don Carlos upon the northern er of Spain, as a fact no longer ques
. He did not, however, as first stated, ed in a steam-vessel from Portsmouth rough France. The spreading of the a near the capital is again spoken of; and ness of the Queen. There is nothing er in the two latter reports to justify pposition that they will lead to the postponement of the meeting of the Cortes; and respect to Don Carlos, should he really himself at the head of the troops, there le doubt of the Queen's forces soon giving good account of him. The incident however, be productive of this good —that it will incline the government ore to liberal measures, in order to secure the support of the constitutional party many friends of that cause in London repared to expect, as a consequence of rival of Carlos, an invitation to General to take the command of the army in quarter.

s said that Don Carlos had obtained from e £3,000,000, for the purpose of carrying into effect his designs of introducing nd desolation into the Peninsula. A was received from him, dated July 10th isondo, at which time he had not ed himself, but was to present himself unts, on the 12th, as the King of Spain.

General Rodil reached Pampeluna on the h of July, with 6000 men, but if as is reported his officers and men are favourable to Don arlos, their arrival will only add to the rength of the Queen's enemies.

Since the expulsion of Don Miguel from ortugal, several official accounts have ap eared in the Lisbon papers of the proclama on, or, as the Portuguese call their joyous remony, the acclamation of the Queen Don a Maria, in parts of the interior, where, un l the rebellion was completely suppressed e people had no opportunity of expressing eir feelings. It appears from these docu ents, that on such occasions it is usual to ow an equal share of applause on the een and the constitutional charter. How er, the fact of the acclamation of the lat had not it seems, been mentioned in the port from a place called Monsaras. This o ission has drawn from the Government the llowing reproof, which is published in the azettes received by the last arrival from bon.

"The Duke of Bragatza, Regent in the me of the Queen directs the Camara of the lla de Monsaras to be informed that the ct of acclamation of the right of her most aithful Majesty to the Portuguese throne, erformed in said city amidst the general ap probation of the inhabitants, on the 29th of ast last, has been received at the Home ffice. Although in the abovementioned act expressions are to be met with well denoting e enthusiasm with which that acclamation as made, and manifesting the sentiments of ue affection which the Camara profess for eir legitimate Sovereign, still his impe al Majesty observes that in that important ocument the result of one of the most solemn s which the Municipal Chambers have to erform, inasmuch as through them is expres d the wishes of the people whom they re resent, no mention is not even once made of e constitutional charter of the monarchy, hich is the most precious gift the nation has ceived from his unexampled magnanimity, ccess to its liberty, and diffuses a brilliant ustre over the Portuguese soil. His Im erial Majesty trusts, therefore, that the Ca ara will be guilty of a similar omission

IN CHANCERY,

26th August, 1834.

Horace Roby, and Mary his Wife, administrators of Francis Murdock vs.
Peter Griffin, Adm'r. of Precious Griffin.

THIS bill in this case states that the complainants as administrators of Francis Murdock, are entitled to one-half of certain negroes bequeathed by a certain John Griffin, in a will bearing date the 21st of October, 1806, to his two daughters Mary Griffin and Precious Griffin, to be equally divided between them by his executor—It further states that the negroes were paid over to Mary Griffin and Precious Griffin, by the executor, without his dividing them—That Precious Griffin is dead, and died intestate and unmarried—That subsequently to her death Mary Griffin intermarried with Francis Murdock, and at the time of her intermarriage with Francis Murdock she had in her possession three negroes being one of the negroes mentioned in said John Griffin's will as bequeathed to Mary Griffin and Precious Griffin, and the other two were the increase of the other negroes mentioned in said will—That Mary Murdock is dead, and that Francis Murdock her husband survived her, and died in the year 1833—That Peter Griffin has administered on the estate of Precious Griffin, and claims one-half of said negroes. The object of the bill is to have a sale of the negroes decreed, and the money arising from the sale to be equally divided between the complainants and the said Peter Griffin, as administrator of Precious Griffin. The bill further states, that Peter Griffin, the administrator of Precious Griffin, resides in the District of Columbia, and beyond the jurisdiction of this court.

Whereupon it is Ordered, That the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper once a week for three successive weeks before the 30th day of September next, give notice to the said absent defendant of the filing of complaint and this bill, and warning him to appear either in person, or by solicitor, in this court, on or before the 26th day of January next, to shew cause, if any he hath, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

NOTICE.

THE Commissioners of Primary Schools will meet, as usual, on the second day of the October Term of A. A. County Court. It is important that the commissioners in their annual report to the Legislature, should give a full and satisfactory statement of the condition of the Schools, and of the operation of the Primary School system in this county; and to enable them to do this, it is necessary that the Trustees of the several districts should make full and uniform reports of the condition of their schools. In order that such satisfactory information may be obtained, printed reports are provided, which the trustees, who are not already supplied, may procure on application to the secretary. The trustees are requested to return these reports to the subscriber, at as early a day, after the 1st October, as practicable. Much unnecessary trouble and delay may thus be avoided. If sent by mail the postage must be paid.

MR. & MRS. HAMILTON'S
BOARDING SCHOOL
FOR YOUNG LADIES.

THIS Institution is situated in the most healthful and pleasant part of the city, corner of Saratoga and Courtland sts. Baltimore.

After having conducted an extensive Boarding School for young Ladies, for several years in North Carolina, and Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton removed to this city in 1831, and opened a Seminary for young Ladies, upon a scientific plan, which has received an almost unprecedented patronage.

Mr. & Mrs. H. have liberally provided their school with every apparatus necessary to illustrate their instruction. Their philosophical apparatus is equal to any other that can be found in private Seminaries in this country, and their chemical is sufficiently extensive to illustrate any subject treated upon in the text books of the school. Their Cabinet of minerals though small yet contains upwards of 700 specimens. Their Seminary is also furnished with an Armillary Sphere, Cary's, Wilson's and Gardner's Globes, several Pianos and a Harp. Mr. & Mrs. H. beg leave to remark, that the instruments they possess, are the best they could procure in this country or in England.

The Library contains upwards of 1500 volumes of the best authors, as connected with the studies pursued in the school, to which the young ladies have general access.

In all the departments the most competent teachers have been engaged, whose instructions are given under the immediate eye of the principals.

The course of instruction in this institution, is carried on in a regular and continued system of academic studies embracing all the scientific and ornamental branches necessary to a complete course of female education.

Parents and guardians who wish for more particular information, can obtain a prospectus of the seminary by applying to the editor.
