

PEREMPTORY CHANCERY SALE—The valuable Baltimore street property mentioned in the advertisement below, will positively be sold to the highest bidder, and without reserve.

By virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of Maryland, and an order of the Orphans' Court of Baltimore County, the subscriber will expose to sale by public auction at the premises in the city of Baltimore, on WEDNESDAY, the 8th day of October, at one o'clock, P. M. the residue of the estate of the late Levy Solomon, being the elegant three story brick DWELLING HOUSE and LOT on the north side of Baltimore street, fourth door east of Calvert street, adjoining to J. I. Cohen, Jr. Esq. The Lot has a front on Baltimore street of twenty five feet six inches, and in depth eight feet. The House is nearly new, plastered and finished throughout, including the garrets; there is attached to the house a good two story brick back building and dry cellars under the whole, with the advantage of a front four feet alley leading into the yard from Baltimore street. This property is not surpassed by any in the city as a stand for business. The house is at present occupied as a dwelling, and the store as a fancy store, by Mr. Lewis Silver; possession will be given immediately. The title papers may be examined on application to the subscriber.

The terms of sale are a credit of three, six, nine and twelve months, with interest on each instalment from the day of sale, to be secured by bonds or notes with security to be approved by the Trustee.

SOLOMON ETTING,

Trustee and Administrator.
