OF KENTUCKY.

Gen. JOSEPH LANE,
OF OREGON.

Democratic Electoral Ticket.

For the State at Large:

J. LLOYD MARTIN, of Talbot county.

For the Districts:

J. BROOKE BOYLE, of Carroll Co.;
JOSHUA VANSANT, of Baltimore city;
T. PARKIN SCOTT, of Baltimore city;
JOHN RITCHIE, of Frederick Co.;
JAS. A. FRANKLIN of A. Arundel Co.

THE MEETING AT POOLESVILLE.—Democrats and all others will recollect the meeting at Poolesville to-morrow, and attend. Good speakers will be present.

THE ELECTION IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The election in this great State, for Governor, Members of Congress, and other officers, takes place on Tuesday next. HENRY D. FOSTER is the Democratic candidate for Governor, and ANDREW G. CURTIN the candidate of the Republican and Bell forces combined. The struggle will be a fierce one, and the result will be considered as deciding the presidential contest. The Democracy of that noble old Commonwealth are aware of the great responsibility which devolves upon them, and are moving with an earnestness worthy of their cause. Although opposed by the combined hosts of Lincoln and Bell, they are confident of success. We await the result with equal assurance, and are preparing our plants to swell the cheers which will go up from every hill and valley for the invincible Democracy of the "Old Keystone."

☞ In our issue of last week, we alluded to HENRY WINTER DAVIS, as having, among other prominent men, deserted Bell, and gone over to Lincoln. Our authority for so doing was based upon a speech delivered at New York, by the editor of the Baltimore "Patriot," a leading Bell and Everett paper of that city. It turns out, however, that this co-follower of Mr. Davis' political fortunes was a little imprudent in asserting the fact, however much he was cognizant of it. Mr. Davis has, since then, announced, in a speech in Baltimore, that whilst he intends to support Bell, yet he advises all those in the Northern States, who are opposed to the Democracy, to vote for Lincoln, as the most available man. So that, after all, we find Mr. Davis perfectly in different whether Bell or Lincoln shall be elected, so that the Democracy shall be defeated. If he lived in a free State he would vote for Lincoln; but living in the South, he will vote for Bell.

The Baltimore American, (BELL and EVERETT paper,) thus speaks of the speech of Mr. Davis:

"The least that can be said concerning this first effort of our esteemed representative is that it is a Lincoln pronunciamento in Bell clothing, or rather an eccentric Republican sheep with a Union Bell on its neck. It is a sheep decidedly, and it looks very much like a black sheep. It has wandered far from its flock, and its bleat, though vigorous and loud, would accord with Wide Awake music more well than does with cheers for Bell and Everett. We admit that Mr. Davis is perfectly consistent. Whenever his vote has decided the complexion of affairs in Congress, it has always happened to benefit the Republican party. The question to be decided is not whether or not the speech of Thursday evening will agree with his official acts, but whether he truly represents a Southern State or not."

FLORIDA ELECTION.—The following returns from the election in Florida, which took place on Monday last, has come to hand: The town of Fernandina gives John Milton (Breckinridge) 15 Governor a majority over Genl. Edward Hopkins, the Bell and Everett candidate, of 3. R. B. Hilton, the Breckinridge candidate for Congress, has a majority over Benj. F. Allen (Bell and Everett) of 155.—Baldwin precinct, Duval county, gives a Breckinridge majority.

THE NEW YORK UNION TICKET.—The Union ticket has been finally formed. Greene C. Bronson has been substituted for Henry S. Randall as elector at large, and the Douglas State Committee have endorsed the fusion.—Wm. C. Ely, of Herkimer county, was substituted for Wm. F. Allen for Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Greene expresses his determination to oppose the ticket, and Mr. Brady will stump the State against it.

☞ Ex-Governor Wise, of Virginia, addressed the Democracy of Norfolk on Thursday night last in support of Messrs. Breckinridge and Lane. The speech was delivered in the Opera House, before a large assemblage, and is described as having "enchained the audience by a display of thrilling eloquence, strong and convincing argument, and oratorical skill seldom if ever surpassed in any political campaign." It was commenced at a few minutes to eight o'clock and continued till half-past five o'clock—nearly four and half hours.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.—The Georgetown correspondent of the Washington Star, under date of the 1st instant, says: "To Mr. Sorrs, the very obliging and gentlemanly collector of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, we are indebted for the following statement of the amount of tolls received at the office here during the month of September: Ascending, 2,384.87; descending, $22,252.40; total, $24,637.27. This exhibit will be gratifying to the friends of the canal, and is an evidence that that important work might and may be made to accomplish."

—Maj. Jas. Hammond, appointed Douglas elector by the Union convention for Page county, Va., has determined to support Breckinridge and Lane.

—The New York Fusion Committee have decided to hold a mass ratification meeting on Monday evening next.

☞ The new Druid Hill Park, at Baltimore, is to be inaugurated on Monday next. The Prince of Wales has been invited to be present on the occasion.

The election for Mayor takes place, in Baltimore, on Wednesday of next week.

The True Aspect of the Case.

There never was a more errant attempt at humbuggery than that of the old fogie and Know-nothing organs pretending to believe in the probability of electing Bell and Everett. There is not a single man in the entire party, (says the Baltimore "Republican,") who believes in the possibility of the thing, much less its probability. John Bell and Edward Everett have far less to hope for than had Fillmore and Donelson. The truth is that Bell and Everett are only supported by the remnant of the Know-nothing party, and such old Whigs whose hatred to Democracy is the predominant feeling, and who, to gratify that hatred, are ready to forget all the holy motives of love of country or humanity. Such a party must necessarily be small, and in no State of the Union could it hope for success upon its own merits. It has no merits, no principles to recommend it to the favor of any body, and can only succeed anywhere by a minority vote in consequence of the divisions of other parties. No one can deny this position; it is a fact known to every informed man in the country. Why do these Know-nothings and bitter old Whigs hope for success in Maryland, or Virginia, or anywhere else? Simply because they hope the divisions in the Democratic party may give them a plurality vote. Why do the organs of this mongrel party continually lend their columns to the encouragement of Douglas? Simply because Douglas is working for their benefit in dividing the Democratic party. Does any body suppose that the Know-nothing or old Whig organs have any love for Douglas, or any desire that the Democratic party should triumph through him? Listen to the Baltimore American, which is constantly claiming for the Douglas movement. Infidel American of Monday, while speaking of the contest, it says:

"The ball fairly opens, the individual and spirit begins to shine in his true character, and to that the world is now going to judge of him. Those who have done so are those who pulled the rope. But when the lions are removed to their lairs again, it may be well to watch the portals, lest some inferior beast should stalk in and take possession of the fatted ground. From the bottom of our heart we reciprocate the present Administration; but it is just possible with the record of the New York Republican before us, with its towering contempt and defying threats and vituperation that could be hurled against the Administration of the National Government, it might prove not only wise."

Is there any reason for this fear? Is there anything in the spirit of the whole Herald language, but only half the Democracy, and we had free to have said, to concur. But the Democrats point out which the American alludes, are those that were led by Jefferson, and Madison, and Monroe and Jackson, by James K. Polk and Franklin Pierce, and James Buchanan, and will be near half the ranks in the ranks of the patriots and statesmen who have led them as the world has ever seen. Will any Democrat gratify these malignant haters of Democracy by throwing his vote away in such manner as to kill all the efforts of their friends? The question is with the people of the South. We truly believe that more than three-fourths of the Democracy of Maryland are for Breckinridge, and that the Democracy of the South are for Breckinridge and Lane.
