THE SENTINEL.

ROCKVILLE, MD.

FRIDAY, : : SEPTEMBER 20, 1861.

SOUTHERN VICTORIES.—Southern papers from the 1st to the 11th (inclusive) of this month, give accounts of three distinct important engagements, as having taken place between these dates and immediately opposite Washington, in all of which the Southern army achieved important victories. In these three victories they claim to have killed between eight and nine hundred Federals, and double that number in wounded and prisoners. In each of these victories, the Confederate loss, in killed and wounded, is said to be very small.

RELEASED ON TAKING THE OATH.—The following named gentlemen, arrested in Frederick, on Tuesday last, were released on taking the oath of allegiance: E. Riley, Milton Y. Kidd, Thomas H. Moore, Wm. Kilgour, and S. P. Carmack.

John N. Brewer, Reading Clerk of the Senate, refused, and was dispatched in the cars with the nine arrested members of the House, who were not asked to take the oath, to Annapolis.

☞ The Richmond Examiner of the 11th says one hundred and fifty-six Federal prisoners, selected chiefly from among those members of the New York, Massachusetts, and Michigan regiments, who had evinced the most insolent and insubordinate disposition, were on the 10th instant, dispatched by railroad to Castle Pinckney, a small fortification in Charleston harbor, for safe keeping.

Political Movements of the Rebels in Maryland.

ROCKVILLE, (Md.) September 10, 1861.

On Saturday last a primary meeting was held here by the rebels to elect delegates to the Baltimore convention to nominate State officers. About sixty delegates from Montgomery county were present. Their meeting was a secret one. The most prominent of those present were Thomas Lansdale, of the Triadelphia Mills, President; Alex. Kilgour, H. V. Bowie, D. H. Bowie, Hez. W. Veirs, J. W. Campbell, Michael D. Offutt, John W. Jones, M. Green, M. Fields, (editor,) Lewis Shaw, G. Peters, Thomas Nolan, S. M. Lyddane, John Brewer, A. Garrett, M. Deitrick, (jailer and bailiff,) Geo. C. Peterson, W. H. Reed, Thomas Hunter, Lem. Clements, Mike Lettod, John Spates, (Register,) Saml Riggs, E. C. Belt, J. S. Cameron, (school teacher,) Ben. Cooly, (mail contractor,) J. A. T. Kilgour, E. S. Wootton, R. A. Sheckels, Isaac Young, and others.

A committee, consisting of Isaac Young, W. V. Bowie, J. A. T. Kilgour, and Ben. Cooly, was appointed to draft a series of resolutions, which they reported, and were adopted. These resolutions were lengthy and of a strong secession character. Among them were the following in effect:

Resolved, That we, delegates from Montgomery county, while respecting the federal government and its laws, still love our State, and will oppose the federal government if bringing northern abolitionists upon our soil.

Resolved, That we will oppose the northern abolitionists in endeavoring to arrest citizens loyal to the State of Maryland.

Delegates were appointed to the Baltimore convention, but their names could not be ascertained.

John W. Jones, one of the members of the meeting, is said to be a rampant secessionist and is owner or lessee of the building in which the telegraph office is located. Thos. Nolan, lately arrested on a charge of having shot a picket, was another. Lieut. Belt is represented as a fanatical secessionist.

During the day outside secessionists thronged the town and boldly proclaimed their sentiments. Many of them, as well as the delegates, were armed with revolvers and knives, striking terror to the hearts of the quiet Union men. Deep threats were made of what would be done to the abolition hordes.

It is stated that the secessionists of this town are well provided with ammunition and weapons, and that a resident citizen has been teaching the sword exercise.

The above statements are from the New York "Herald," and show that we have here, amongst ourselves, need of vigilance, of principle and honor as Bennet himself, who is admitted to be the most venal and unqualified liar who ever disgraced the newspaper press of New York. The attack on this village was commenced several months ago by the Washington "Star," and has been continued in that paper—in Greely's "Tribune," and now in the "Herald," as if all these papers intended to bring down some special wrath on the people of this neighborhood.

We have frequently noticed the troops of several regiments, passing through this place, look as if they expected to see an armed force at every turn; and, no doubt, this idea arises from such pieces as we have alluded to.

Now, when it is known that the whole county contains but little upwards of two thousand voters, a large number of whom are unconditional Union men—that there is not a single militia company, nor a supply of arms or ammunition in its borders—that it is occupied by sixty or seventy thousand troops of infantry, cavalry and artillery—is it not strange that the "unconditional" Union men should be afraid of the Peace party of Rockville, amounting to not more than forty or fifty unarmed and peaceable citizens? The lies in the "Herald" are "gross as a mountain—open, palpable!" Several names are there of persons that have no existence here; others are named who live here, but were not in the village at the time of the meeting; and as to the "outside crowd of seceders, and the brandishing of knives and revolvers," it is a sheer lie. As to the "terror of the quiet Union men," we know not what the imagination of a coward may suggest, and the best authority has said, "the wicked flee when no man pursueth." The resolutions passed at the meeting were such as no constitutional Union man could object to.

Movements of the Enemy.

BAILEY'S CROSS ROADS, Sep. 18.—The Confederates are undoubtedly building a very strong fort, with heavy siege guns, on Chestnut Hill, (Murray Mason's place,) about 1½ miles south of Munson's Hill, (the guns of which will, it is said, have a range of six miles,) and have commenced another on Edsall's Hill, about 1½ miles south of Chesnut Hill. This last is on the line of the Orange and Alexandria railroad, not far from the burnt bridge. A position on Edsall's Hill is said to be occupied by three Maryland regiments. A portion of the Alabama regiment on Monday took possession of the barn on the land of the late Major Lewis.—Wash. Star.

A FEMALE WARRIOR.—One of the Louisiana companies in the battle of Manassas, lost its Captain. The company then unanimously elected the wife of the deceased to fill his place, and the lady, in uniform, passed through Memphis, on the 12th instant, on her way to assume command of the company.

FEDERAL TELEGRAMS.

From Western Virginia.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 16.—A special dispatch to the Gazette, from Cornifex Ferry, on the Kanawha, dated the 14th instant, says: "Lee resumed the attack along our whole line, at Cheat Mountain yesterday. After a long contest he was fairly repulsed by Reynolds, with considerable rebel loss, and little or no loss on our side, owing to the fact that our troops fought behind entrenchments.

Lee has manifestly a large force, but is alarmed lest Rosecrans should come upon him in the rear.

Our scouts returned to-day from a ten miles exploration towards Lewisburg.

Col. McCook took seventeen prisoners yesterday in an armed reconnoisance across the river.

CAMP SCOTT, Sept. 15.—Gen. Cox is here to-day for an interview with Gen. Rosecrans. He has moved the main body of his army from Gauly Bridge towards Lewisburg.

Wise and Floyd are both retreating as fast as possible.

Further Intelligence.

ELKWATER, Va., Sept. 16.—The body of Col. John A. Washington was sent over to the enemy yesterday, under a flag of truce. While on the way it was met by a similar flag, coming from the enemy, for the purpose of obtaining information as to his condition.

On the 12th instant, a detachment of 300 men from the Fourteenth Indiana and Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Ohio regiments, dispersed three Tennessee regiments, under Gen. Anderson, on the west side of Cheat Mountain, completely routing them, killing eighty and obtaining most of their equipments. Our loss was eight killed.

The enemy made an advance on Elkwater on the same day, with a force supposed to have been 15,000, but they were driven back by detachments from the Fifteenth Indiana, Third and Sixth Ohio Regiments, and shelled from Loomis' battery. They have retired some 8 or 10 miles distant.

A strong force of Arkansas, Tennessee and Virginia troops also threatened the east side of Cheat Mountain, but we have not yet had a general engagement with them. A shell from one of Loomis guns, thrown two miles into the enemy's camp, killed ten and wounded four of them.

The thirteenth Indiana regiment had a severe skirmish with superior numbers of the enemy on the 12th, and killed ten or twelve of them, with trifling loss.

As the enemy advanced on Elkwater their column was checked by a detachment of the Seventeenth Indiana regiment.

Lieut. Morrill, of the topographical engineers was taken by the rebels while on his way to Cheat Mountain.

From Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.—Col. F. P. Blair jr. was ordered yesterday by the provost marshal to report himself under arrest on the general charge of using disrespectful language when alluding to his superior officers.

It is understood that the precise charge on which Col. Blair was arrested is insubordination, in communicating, while a military officer, with the authorities at Washington, touching complaints against and using disrespectful language towards Gen. Fremont, with the view of effecting his removal. It is stated that letters written by Col. Blair are now in the possession of Gen. Fremont.

Attack on Lexington.

A Bloody Contest—Repulse of the Rebels with Heavy Loss—The Battle Still in Progress.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 18.—A courier has arrived here from Lexington, bringing the following intelligence, which is credited by the commanding officer:

General Price commenced an attack on the Federal entrenchments at Lexington, on the morning of Col. Mulligan, on Monday morning. All day long the rebels under Gen. Price assaulted the works, but were repulsed with severe loss. The battle was renewed on Tuesday morning, but was finally suspended when the courier left.

Gen. Lane was at Jacksontown with from two to three thousand men, marching to the relief of Lexington.

The rebel loss on Monday is reported at 1,000, and the Federal loss at 800, which figures are probably exaggerated.

From Kansas.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—The Leavenworth (Kansas) papers of the 11th instant give the following accounts of the late engagement between Rains and Montgomery. On the 2d instant a rebel force of six hundred, mounted men, approached Fort Scott, and encamped eighty miles belonging to the government, killing the teamster. A messenger was dispatched to Montgomery, who had five hundred men.

He pursued Rains for eleven miles, killing several of his men, when, coming upon the main body of the enemy, the battle commenced. Rains was provided with cannon, while Montgomery had only one howitzer. The fight lasted two hours, when Montgomery slowly retreated, keeping up a running fight until nightfall. The enemy was reported by the prisoners taken, to have numbered two or three thousand.

Twenty-three negroes had been declared free under Fremont's proclamation, being the property of a rebel leader.

From Kentucky.

FRANKFORT, Sept. 18.—The committee on Federal relations reported the following:

Whereas, The Confederate troops have invaded Kentucky, and insolently dictate the terms upon which they will retire; therefore

"Resolved, That Gen. Robert Anderson be invited to take instant charge of this department, and call out a force sufficient to expel the invaders."

The above were passed by the House and concurred in by the Senate.

The Senate also passed a concluding resolution, with but three negative votes, which proposes to confine the war to the two armies, and discountenances partisan quarrels, as leading to civil war.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 19.—Early this morning the U. S. Marshal seized the office of the Louisville Courier, arrested ex-Gov. Morehead, Reuben T. Murrett, one of the proprietors of the Courier, and Martin W. Barr, telegraphic news reporter for the New Orleans press, on charges of treason or complicity with treason. The prisoners were all carried to Jeffersonville, and will be transferred to the custody of the marshal of Indiana district.

The transmission of telegraphic news South is now interdicted, and the lines in that direction interrupted.

From General Banks's Column.

[Mail Correspondence of the Associated Press.]

DARNESTOWN, Sept. 14.—A quantity of cavalry arms and equipments, which were recently seized by some of the soldiers at the house of Capt. John L. Duffief, under the misapprehension that they were to be used to aid the rebel cause, have been ordered by General Banks to be restored, it appearing from good Union authority that Mr. Duffief has always been an unflinching Unionist, and that they were issued by Gov. Hicks to sustain the Union cause in this county. Capt. Duffief will return them to Gov. Hicks on their delivery.

There has apparently been increased activity in all the departments of this division during the past week. There are numerous floating rumors that Johnson has been greatly strengthened along the river line. On one occasion a regiment of rebels came in full view of our pickets at or near the mouth of Seneca river, but moved off before our batteries could be brought to bear upon them.

JUDGES OF ELECTION.—The Commissioners, at their meeting, on Tuesday last, made the following appointments of Judges of Election for the ensuing year:

First District.—James Williams, William Brown, of J., and John D. Poole.

Second District.—William E. Murphy, Wm. Reid, and William Williams.

Third District.—Leonard Hays, Isaac Young and Samuel Dyson.

Fourth District.—Henry West, Benjamin F. Perry, and Oratio Clagett.

Fifth District.—George B. Scaggs, Pennel Palmer, and Minot Darling.

ARRESTS.

The Arrest of Citizens by Federal Authority—The Mayor, Members of the Legislature, Hon. Henry May, and Others—Excitement in the City.

The city of Baltimore was thrown into a fever of excitement yesterday morning by the announcement of the arrests during the preceding night of some of the most prominent citizens, including Mayor Brown. The authority came from Washington, and special squads of the federal police were detailed for the work. The first place known to have been entered was the editorial room of the Exchange newspaper, the door of which was forced, and a file of unaccepted letters carried off. The police consisted of Lieutenant Bishop and five of the federal police of the western district. They then proceeded to the residence of Frank Key Howard, Esq., one of the editors and proprietors, and took him into custody. They next went to the editorial room of the South newspaper, on the third floor of the Jarvis Building, at the corner of Baltimore and North street, the correspondence of which was taken away, together with a file of the paper. The residence of Thomas W. Hall, Esq., the editor, was next visited, and his father was first arrested through mistake, but the policeman went to the room of Mr. Hall, Jr., and took him into custody.

About the same time a party of policemen visited the city residence of George William Brown, Esq., mayor of the city, in Calvert street, near Pleasant. The house of the mayor is occupied at night by his brother, who was also arrested through mistake, but he soon convinced them that the mayor was at his country seat, near the Relay House, on the Northern Central railway. A carriage was at once procured, and on reaching the country seat Mayor Brown was arrested and brought to the city.

The house of Hon. Henry May, on Charles street, near Eager, was visited by the Federal police, and he was required to leave his bed, in obedience to the mandate from Washington. He inquired by what authority he was to be arrested, and was informed that it was by authority of the provost marshal of Washington city.

The residences of the following members of the House of Delegates were also visited and those gentlemen arrested:—Wm. G. Harrison, Lawrence Saunston, S. Teackle Wallis, T. Parkin Scott, Henry M. Morris, Ross Winans, and Henry M. Warfield. The city residence of Dr. J. Hanson Thomas was visited, but he was in the country, and escaped until his return to the city yesterday morning, when he was taken into custody. Charles H. Pitts, Esq., was also in the country, but was arrested yesterday morning, soon after reaching the city. The residence of John C. Brune, Esq., on Cathedral street, was visited, but he was absent at the time, and up to late last night had not returned, and then escaped Barrett.

Dr. A. A. Lynch, of the Senate, and Leonard G. Quinton and Robert M. Dennison, of the House of Delegates from Baltimore county, were arrested yesterday morning. The carriage in which Mr. Quinton was brought to the city showed marks of rough usage, many of all the glass having been broken. When he reached the office of the provost marshal he pushed aside the policeman who accompanied him, and walked into the office.

James Collins, a member of the regular police, was also arrested. All of those arrested were taken to Fort McHenry, those arrested during the night having been conveyed thither at that hour.

[illegible] Gen. Scott, Gen. Pope, Gen. Howard, the nominees of the Union parts for Governor of Rhode Island, were arrested, but they were released on taking the oath of allegiance. Other parties were also released on taking the oath, but notice has been given that the parties thus released will be rearrested if they do any more treasonable business.—Baltimore Sun of 19th inst.

ARREST OF ANNAPOLIS FIREMEN.—On Saturday afternoon, Sept. 14, Mr. Thomas Wells, an engineer of the Annapolis Fire Department, was arrested by the Federal police, and taken immediately to Fort McHenry. Mr. Wells is one of the proprietors of the Ex-Change Hotel, and was at his residence when the police took him into custody. A few minutes after, he was accompanied to his office at the corner of Baltimore and North streets, where he made arrangements for the suspension of the issue of that paper for the present. He was then taken to Fort McHenry and confined in the guard house, under the charge of Gen. Dix. The members of the Legislature, together with the other state prisoners, were taken down to Fort Monroe, Wednesday, and on Friday evening were carried to Fort Monroe. We have not yet learned the reason why Mr. Wells has not transported, as not unlikely he will be detained there for fortification at the North, he was then taken and he had made his arrangements for such an event.—Sun of the 16th inst.

HOME VISITORS OF MARYLAND.—Jas. J. Heckart, Senator from Carroll county, and James W. Marshall, delegate from this county, were arrested at the Lippincott Hotel, yesterday evening, as they were about leaving for Frederick, by Deputy Marshal Kimball, and taken to Fort Monroe. They were allowed time to call at their homes and notify their friends before leaving the hotel.

On the arrival of the Louisiana, on Saturday afternoon, James T. Dennis, Esq., of Somerset; George W. Laubing, Esq., of Worcester, and Philip F. Fulton, Esq., of Kent, were arrested and taken directly to Fort McHenry. Before the boat was made fast to the wharf the officers got on board. Mr. Dennis said he had been told that he would probably be arrested, but he had a sworn oath to perform to his constituents, and determined at least to make the effort to reach Frederick. The report that Thomas J. McKaig, senator from Allegany county, arrested a few weeks since, had been sent to Fort Lafayette, is said to be erroneous. It is understood that Mr. McKaig is in the State of Ohio, having taken some form of oath to support the constitution and laws of the United States, and is under parole obligating not to leave the state of Ohio until the termination of the existing troubles.—Sun of 17th inst.

SELECT MORE ARRESTS.—We learn that Thos. J. Clagett, a member of the House of Delegates was arrested at his residence near Petersville, on account of his disloyalty. And on yesterday, in this city, immediately after the adjournment of the House of Delegates, Milton Y. Kidd, Chief Clerk of the House, William Kilgour, Clerk of the Senate, and William E. Salmon, one of the Delegates from this county, and Jos. W. Elkins, private citizen, recently returned from Virginia, were arrested, by Lieutenant Carmichael, of the Baltimore Police, and handed over to the military authorities here. Mr. Gordon, Mr. Macculbin and Mr. Durant members of the House of Delegates were also arrested.—Fred. Exam. 18th.

Skirmish at Seneca.

SENECA, Md., Sep. 17.—Capt. Sponable, of the New York 34th regiment (Col. Ladew,) and eight men crossed the Potomac last night below here—near Darby's mill—for a reconnoissance in Dixie. While scouting they fell in with a squad of fifteen or twenty secessionists, when a sharp skirmish ensued. On our side, Corporal Bob Gracy was killed and Corporal Zugg wounded. We have no means of ascertaining if the Confederates lost any men, but have good reason to believe they did. When our little force retreated to the river, they discovered that the Confederates had stolen their boat. They were obliged to swim the river, and this morning all but two came in.—Wash. Star.

A CARD.

J. ALMONEY, Proprietor of the "MONTGOMERY HOUSE," Rockville, Md., would respectfully return his thanks to the citizens of Montgomery county—to the Federal troops who have visited this place, and to the traveling public generally, for the liberal patronage heretofore extended, and would invite a continuance of the same.

DEATH.

Obituary.

A close [illegible] and [illegible] of thirty years [illegible] in most [illegible] years. Early in life [illegible] in the district of the Methodist Protestant church.

Our friend has known no chill or the tinsel and, now, as I contemplate his whole life from an inner and revealed standpoint it may be recorded, in all truth, that I never knew him to do or say any thing but what was gate, kind and gentlemanly. He never combined the tenderness and modesty of a woman—blended with the firmer attributes of a [illegible]; and his character of a consistent [illegible], in many vexed questions, is most [illegible] and chaste in my memory.

He inherited adult nature with good parts, and never knew how to be occupied and what kind of a sort want he proved, in the scriptural sense, "he being dead, yet they speak." As a son, husband, father, master, neighbor and citizen. His walk and daily conversation was the record, without warning and time for correction, on which he was summoned before that angel tribunal. We wish, if his heart and life, while our hearts are sorely grieved, submit without murmur, to that visitation which comes to [illegible] us.

Much [illegible] [illegible] in our neighborhood of country, [illegible] with the full knowledge [illegible] I never knew a [illegible] more man, his children, and the young of his neighborhood, know how he followed the path of duty—a precious legacy, above and beyond all earthly price—which, if they will but observe, they will find it is the way in which honor lies.
