This Day Published,

BY SAMUEL BUTLER,

At the corner of Market and Charles-streets,

Price 1 dollar neatly bound and lettered,

Ferdinand & Elmira.

Printed from the original manuscript of an American lady, author of 'Dorval,' 'Julia and the Baron,' and 'Amina.'

The writer of this instructive and amusing work, has heretofore published the effusions of her pen in New England, and there (where the flights of fancy, as it is said by the frigid dwellers of the north, are not received with that frank welcome which they experience in the more genial climate of the south) it received that commendation, that applause, which genius and fancy never fail of producing on those liberal and candid minds who will take the trouble to discriminate between the ordinary productions of the common English novelist, who works for a livelihood, the same as any other mechanic, and those who write with a view rather to bring forth a finished piece of goods, that will serve the purpose and remunerate himself; and the lady of refined sentiment and correct taste, who writes for the amusement of herself, her friends and the public. It contains upwards of three hundred pages, is well printed on a new type and fine paper.

INTERESTING ANECDOTES OF THE

Heroic conduct of Women,

Previous to, and during the French revolution: translated from the French of M. Du Broca, and other modern writers of authenticity.

When it is considered that this work records some of the most shining virtues of human nature, such as constancy, fortitude, courage, affection, tenderness, love and patriotism, as well as superior good sense and judgment, which have been exhibited by females, and shews that the Fair Sex, when exigency requires, are by no means inferior in these virtues, and in several of them superior to what in like cases would be expected from the boasted lords of the creation—it is reasonable to expect, that almost every lady of information will be happy in purchasing a book so well calculated to defend the cause of beauty, when attacked by petulence or arrogance.

The present edition is enlarged by additional selections of about one-third more than the London translation of Du Broca's Anecdotes, and is printed on a fine cream colored paper, and still sells at only one half the price of the London copy.

In the press, and with all convenient speed will be published, the second vol. of the Baltimore Musical Miscellany, consisting of new and approved songs set to music.

Dr. MACE'S

ANTI-BILIOUS TINCTURE & HEALTH-RESTORING PILLS

[illegible] in general, and especially for preventing the diseases of warm climates and warm seasons, such as the cholera morbus, [illegible] and fever, [illegible] bilious [illegible] of yellow [illegible]

[illegible] and without [illegible] accompanying [illegible] the use of these remedies [illegible] as preventing [illegible] in many cases [illegible] but the following will be taken from real facts, it is presumed [illegible]

Mr. [illegible], a young man, afflicted with a bilious complaint, and at every summer he was [illegible] for country or sea air [illegible] the remedies here recommended [illegible] to a good state of health [illegible] summer and fall the ague [illegible] which he was formerly affected [illegible]

Mr. [illegible] was affected with jaundice or bilious [illegible], and was speedily relieved in 10 days by the same means.

Mrs. [illegible] had been for a long time subject to [illegible] and bilious fever in the highest degree. [illegible] were very yellow, and she was [illegible] in the body. She had tried many remedies recommended by physicians and others, but without any effect. She was, however, [illegible] by the remedies given in the above cases.

Mr. T. had been for a long time afflicted with a bilious complaint. He had applied to different physicians and had taken the usual remedies recommended in such cases. He also took a journey to the springs. All, however, were useless. By the use of these medicines as stated by the above mentioned [illegible] he was completely relieved in [illegible] days.

Mrs. P. a young lady, was affected for a long time with [illegible] yellowness of the skin and whites of the eyes with other particular complaints, for which the Tincture is a certain remedy. She had consulted a physician and had [illegible] remedies in vain, but was completely relieved by the same medicines as mentioned above.

Mr. P. another young lady, in the same condition, was cured in the same manner.

Mr. S. has been subject to bilious complaints for a long time, and has taken the medicines generally recommended in such cases to no purpose, but was restored to health in a short time by the above mentioned remedies.

Mr. [illegible] was affected with a bilious fever in a [illegible] degree. He had severe pains in his head, [illegible] with a sick stomach and yellow [illegible] of the skin and eyes, attended with a high fever. He took a teaspoonful of the tincture every half an hour until bitter, and then every two hours, together with the pills, and in a very few days was entirely restored to health.

The Anti-Bilious Tincture and Pills have been tried by many in this city with the greatest success, as could be expected, to whom reference or further satisfaction may be made if necessary. Considering the nature of this state, so far from being for bilious complaints, the reputation of these medicines is established upon the most solid foundation. The inventor of them has never known of a single instance in which they have not been taken with all the advantage which could be expected. Every day they are coming more in demand, while their credit is increasing in the same degree. Neither the tincture nor pills contain any mercury, or any dangerous medicine whatever; they are composed of simples entirely, and are perfectly innocent. These medicines are found, when taken for the prevention of summer and fall diseases, to carry off the bile in as gradual manner as it increases, and thereby hinder its coming to excess. When taken for the cure of bilious diseases, they carry the bile away very speedily, without any inconvenience; increase the strength of the stomach and occasion a good appetite, by which the patient is soon restored to health and spirits.

The price of the tincture is one dollar by the bottle, and of the pills half a dollar by the box: wholesale purchasers are supplied with both at a dollar, which makes a generous allowance for retailing. Sold by the inventor on the Point, No. 21, Fell's street, and in town by George Baily, druggist, No. 68, Market-street, and no where else in this city.

The inventor of these medicines recommends them upon principles which he will not hesitate to avow upon a proper occasion. He detests a character of a Nostrum-monger, nor would he willingly ape the Mock-doctor of Molier

VENEREAL COMPLAINTS.

AS Dr. WARNER's practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.
