HEADLINE: Hopkins Health System Appoints Peterson President

BODY:

The Johns Hopkins Health System has appointed Ronald R. Peterson as president, effective January 15, 1997. He has served as the Health System's acting president since September and as president of The Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center since 1984. In December, he was named president of the Johns Hopkins Hospital. Peterson also serves as chairman of the Johns Hopkins Medical Services Corporation and a director of the board of the Johns Hopkins Home Care Group. A graduate of The Johns Hopkins University, Peterson, 48, began his career at Hopkins Hospital in 1973 as an administrative assistant.
