PROPOSALS

BY JACOB D. DIETRICK Bookseller,

HAGERSTOWN, MARYLAND,

For publishing by subscription, the following work, for which he has obtained a copy right.

DISTRICT OF MARYLAND, TO WIT:

Be it remembered, That on the twelfth day March in the twenty ninth year of the independence of the United States of America, Jacob D. Dietrick, of the said district, hath deposited in this office, the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor in the words following, to wit:

'THE NEW

AMERICAN CLERK's MAGAZINE,

AND

COMPLETE PRACTICAL CONVEYANCER ;

Containing the most useful and necessary precedents in conveyancing, as settled and approved by the most eminent conveyancers; with observations and references to the laws, &c. with a variety of other useful instruments of writing:

The whole of which are adapted to the use of the Citizens of the United States, and more particularly to those of the State of Maryland, under the following heads, viz.

Acquittances, acknowledgments, affreightment, affidavits, agreements, annuity, apprentices, arbitration, assignments, awards, bargains of sale, bills of sale, bonds, bottomry, contracts, conditions, covenants, composition, copartners, deeds, distresses, exchanges, feoffments, gifts, grants, indentures, leases, letters of attorney, letters of licence, mortgages, obligations, oaths, partitions, petitions, promissory notes, receipts, releases, revocations, sales, surrenders, settlements, wills, &c. &c.

With necessary instructions & forms of precedents

For the use of justices of the peace, sheriffs, coroners and constables, and of matters which relate to the duties of executors and administrators in the settlement of the estate of deceased persons; also, of guardians, &c

The whole selected from the laws, & draughts of actual practice

BY A GENTLEMAN OF THE BAR."

In conformity to the act of the congress of the United States, intitled, "an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors or proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned."

PHILIP MOORE, Clk. D. C. Md.

TO THE PUBLIC.

No book could be offered, which stands in less need of encomium and recommendation—This want of such a book as "The New American Clerk's Magazine, and Complete Practical Conveyancer" has been long and generally complained of, and is in numerous instances severely felt, by the people of the State of Maryland in particular.

With a view of facilitating the communication of information, necessary to the interest and happiness of the people, the above work was undertaken, and it is believed, has been executed in a manner that must be extensively useful; it is in considerable forwardness, & will be published in the course of this summer.

CONDITIONS.

1. It shall be neatly and correctly printed in a handsome duodecimo volume, on excellent paper, and an elegant new type.
2. It will contain between three and four hundred pages.
3. It shall be elegantly bound and lettered.
4. The price to subscribers shall be one dollar and twenty five cents, payable on delivery of the work.
5. Those who subscribe for, or obtain ten subscriptions, and account for the money, shall be entitled to one copy for their trouble.

☞ Subscriptions received by the publisher, and the different gentlemen who hold subscription papers. Also at this office.

15 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, yesterday morning, a negro girl, named HANNAH WILSON, of a sullen countenance, down look, very black, thick lips, slender made, round shoulders, remarkable small feet, about 23 years of age. As she has taken a variety of clothes with her, it is impossible to describe her dress; among those taken, are a suit of tea ground cotton, a white muslin dress, two white muslin petticoats and jackets, a dark calico petticoat, a plain black bonnet, and sundry coarse clothes. Whoever takes up the said runaway and secures her in any goal, so that her master may get her again, shall receive if taken in the city, five dollars; if taken twenty miles from home, ten dollars; and if taken out of the state, the above reward and all reasonable charges, if brought home to the subscriber, living in North Gay-street, Baltimore.

JOHN READEL.

☞ I am of opinion she is in the city, harbored by some of her acquaintance, and waiting to get a passage to the Eastern Shore, from whence she came. I will prosecute to the rigour of the law, any person or persons who harbor or assist her in getting off. There is some little suspicion that she may have gone towards Philadelphia.

ISAAC CAUSTEN

Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-street.

To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers, &c.

To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.

To be sold at private sale,

THAT Valuable Plantation where the subscriber now lives, containing two hundred and twenty four acres, of which there are about fourteen acres excellent Meadow, and with very little expence there might be forty more made; there are about ninety acres cleared in the whole, the remainder is wood land; there is erected on said place a good stone dwelling house, with 2 rooms on the first and second floors, well finished, with passages between, a log barn, stables and other out houses. This plantation is situate in North Hundred, Baltimore county, about four miles from Black Rock Mills; it is well supplied with excellent spring water, also, a large stream runs through it, where there is a mill seat if the purchaser should choose to build. Any further description is thought unnecessary, as it is presumed those who mean to purchase will first visit the premises, when and where the terms will be made known by the subscriber now living on the place.

For sale,

SELBY MILLS, with 330 acres of land and the improvements thereto belonging 8 miles from Baltimore, and about half a mile from the road leading to the city of Washington. The mills are capable of manufacturing 50,000 bushels of wheat yearly, to the best advantage, having water carriage on the spot, which renders the property very valuable. The whole of the above property will be sold low, and an accommodating credit will be given for one half the purchase money; or I would sell one half the concern to an agreeable partner.

Being desirous of declining the dry good business, I would sell my stock of Goods, of about 10,000 dollars worth, either wholesale or retail, at a very low advance for cash, or on a reasonable credit for good paper. Apply at 78, Baltimore street, to

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.

AS Dr. WARNER's practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.

—As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.

Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.

N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Bond-street, to Cumberland Row, No. 64, below the Market-house.
